They were then ordained and se apart under the hands of Apostic Rudger Clawson, assisted by the presidence of the Stake and Bishop Harriso High Priest Heber S ras ordained a Bishop, Apostle Rudget Clawson being mouth: Elder Charles Cottrell, Jr., was ordained a High Priest and set apart as first counselor Bishop Cutler, President Taylor being mouth; and Elder DeGray Dixon, being already a High Priest, was set apart as second selor to Bishop Cutler, President C. W. Penrose being mouth.

The dedication prayer was then of-fered by President Angus M. Cannon. Elder Charles Cottrell, Jr., v the building committee had explain that the ground and the building, ful completed, had cost about $1,400, at was all paid for. He acknowledged the of the Fourth ward in obtaining the necessary funds. The ground and the building from foundation to the shin gles, with all its parts, materials, con tents and appurtenances, was dedicated to the Lord for the purpose designed se designed and His blessing invoked upon all. Elder Rudger Clawson ther Elder Rudger Clawson then ac dressed the congregation on the dutie the Saints, and particularly those of the Bishopric, touching on the on erous responsibilities of the position and the need for all presiding officers to live in the hearts of the people, which he showed formed a more enduring monument than one of marble or bronze. Bishop Sperry expressed his regrets at losing so many of his children, numbering about 255 in the formation of the ward, but believed it was the will of the Lord and invoked His blessing upon ibem in part-ing: After singing, the benediction was pronounced by Elder Henry P.

The meeting house is a very neat and substantial structure, solid and nicely finished and furnished, with a good, substantial platform, and tastefully ed. It has a fine reed organ to ac-company a well-appointed choir, and the ladies of the Relief Society presented the new ward with an elegant set of standard books in large type, namely the Bible, the Book of Mormon and the Doctrine and Covenants.
