

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

The approach of summer weather has been evidenced in the falling off in social affairs during the week—only a comparatively few having been given. Already the usual exodus has begun to the canyon and seashore, and next week will see the departure of a still larger number.

Miss Edith Sutherland was guest of honor on Monday at a pretty afternoon affair given by Miss Ida Logg, about 30 guests being entertained. The amusement was cards, and the tables and rooms were handsomely decorated in roses, while the same flowers combined with pink carnations and smilax decorated the rooms. The guests were Mrs. Roy Hampton, Miss Howell, Miss Grace Bettles, Miss Jessie Home, Miss Jean Odell, Miss Beth Critchlow, Miss Julia Cullen, Miss May Brunton, Miss Maude Wheeler, Miss Bessie Croxall, Miss Nellie Loback, Miss Stella Cohn, Miss Elsie Sadler, Miss Grace Williamson of Denver, Miss Ella Holmes, Miss Seina, Alice and Mary Wall, Miss Geneva Horlick, Miss Florence Sears, Miss Elmer Stewart, Miss Alina Crismon, Miss Kate Groo, Miss Fanny Breeden.

Miss Stella Fabian and Miss Edna Dunn took a large party to the lake on Monday night in honor of Miss Carrie Calvin, who is here visiting with friends for the summer.

Mrs. W. D. Donohoe and Mrs. E. H. Ains entertain at cards at the Country club next week.

Mrs. James Ivers gives a bridge party at her residence on east First South street next Wednesday.

Yesterday morning Miss Fanny Breeden entertained informally at "400" at her home in honor of her guest, Miss Beatrice Boreman of Ogden, the rooms being bright with flowers, and about 20 guests being present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained at a lawn party on Thursday night, their guests being chiefly members of the Auld Lang Syne club. The porch was lighted with Japanese lanterns and rugs and Indian blankets were spread on the lawn. About 30 guests enjoyed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser took a party to the lake on Wednesday night, the trip being planned for the Misses Lyster of Chicago, and comprising about 40 people.

Miss Abbie Herman was hostess at an oriental tea on Thursday, given in honor of Miss May Price, whose wedding takes place next week. The decorations were chiefly Japanese fans and umbrellas being used and a guessing game was enjoyed in which the Japanese idea prevailed. Pink sweet peas were the flowers used, the table in the dining room being most effective, with its centerpieces of the dainty flowers and smilax extending from it to the corners. About 20 guests enjoyed the afternoon.

Miss Stella McCready was another bride-elect honored in a delightful entertainment on Thursday. Her hostess, Miss Helen Burton, and 29 guests participated, the rooms being bright with pink roses and nasturtiums, and an enjoyable afternoon spent.

This afternoon Miss John C. Cutler and Miss Hazel Cutler give a large box party at the theater to witness the last matinee of the Mayall company. After the party will be entertained at dinner at Franklin's.

Miss Dagmar Orob gave a delightful party Monday evening, the occasion being her eighteenth birthday. The grounds and house were beautifully illuminated, and about 50 young people enjoyed themselves with games and music.

On Tuesday the wedding of Miss Pearl Morris and Mr. W. W. Mosby took place, the ceremony being performed at the bride's home by Bishop Seddon, and an enjoyable reception followed.

Mr. Axel Wurzbarger of Detroit is spending a month with his friend, Harold Orob. Mr. Wurzbarger studied piano for five years under Alberto Jovan, and is still pursuing his studies at the Michigan Conservatory of Music.

The marriage of Miss Elvora B. Christensen of this city to Mr. J. Russell Lamman of Zanesville, O., will take place in Des Moines, Ia., on the bride-elect is a sister of County Attorney P. P. Christensen and Attorney A. E. Christensen, and is well known in this city, and also in Cache county, where she formerly resided. After their marriage the young couple will take an extended wedding tour of the east, and will then return to Zanesville, where they will make their future home, and where the groom-elect is a well known business man.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Owens and Henry McGee will take place Wednesday evening, July 11, at the home of the bride's parents, Malad, Ida, Miss Owens is a graduate nurse of St. Mark's hospital, and is well known in Salt Lake.

On Monday, July 16, will be the sixtieth anniversary of the "calling to arms" of the Mormon battalion. After a fruitless search through this city not one of that brave band could be located. The Daughters of the Mormon battalion will celebrate the anniversary with a patriotic program, and all loyal descendants are invited to be present to commemorate the birth of an organization which suffered much and accomplished much and whose memory should never be forgotten. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Rilda Jones Taylor, 25 south First West street, on Monday, July 16, at 3 o'clock, the following program will be rendered: "The Call to Arms," Mrs. Julia P. Murdoch Farnsworth; piano solo, Mrs. Gertrude F. Kimball; speech, (to the occasion), Nathaniel V. Jones. Recitation (written in memory of Battalion). Refreshments.

Mrs. E. F. Holmes entertained a large party of friends at luncheon on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. T. Richards entertained at an informal but pleasant affair on Tuesday, her amusement being cards.

Mrs. Chas. Post and Mrs. L. M. Bailey were hostesses at a delightful bridge party yesterday, the event being the second in a series.

Miss Carrie Calvin took a large party to the Hermitage on Wednesday, the party being chaperoned by Mrs. Calvin.

Miss Elizabeth McIntyre and Arthur Hertzler whose engagement has been announced were guests of honor at an elaborate dinner at the Alta club given by Charles E. Bamberger, Mr. Conzert of New York was also guest of honor, and Mrs. Ernest Bamberger.

was chaperone. The table was beautifully decorated and present were Miss Edith Sutherland, Miss McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage, Miss Marjorie Ellerbeck, Miss Carrie Calvin, Miss Lorren Leary, Miss Stella Fabian, Miss Bob Ellerbeck, Miss Evelyn Daly, Miss Elsie Sadler, Miss Mary Smedley, Miss Jenna Hudd, Geddes, Miss Dora Daly, Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Letta McMillan, Miss Louise Sullivan, Messrs. Robert Lawrence, Sidney Bamberger, Dr. Hugh Sprague, Paul and Sam Williams, Albert McCordick, Ben Siegel, Harold Lamb, Will McIntyre, Roger Sherman, Harry Binta, Earl Siegel, Wallace Bredemeyer and James Hogle.

Miss Elsie Davis gave a pleasant afternoon party on Tuesday, about 30 being present to enjoy the affair. The rooms were decorated with flowers and greens and refreshments were served on the lawn.

On Tuesday night Miss Stella McCready and Mrs. David Nelson were guests of honor at an informal card party given by Miss Evelyn Thomas and Miss Annie Adams the entertainment being "500." The rooms were prettily decorated in pink and white, and present were Miss Annie Best, Mr.

MISS ALLIE WHYTE.

TO WED ON HIGH SEAS.

A unique wedding will take place when M. Hall Cowen of Trinidad is married to Miss Allie Whyte of Windsor, Ontario, this week. In order that Cupid may have free rein without violating the stringent matrimonial laws of the British West Indies the young couple have arranged to be married at sea, thus avoiding a two weeks legal residence exacted by the English colony. Miss Whyte, the bride-elect, sailed from New York last week on the steamship "Marval." On July 12, when the "Marval" is due at Grenada, Mr. Cowen will board her from another vessel and the wedding ceremony will be performed beyond the three-mile limit.

and Mrs. Charles Crismon, Miss McCready, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ray, Miss McCready, Mr. Nelson, Lieut. B. P. Os, wald and Edward Wagner.

Mrs. Carrie Snyder entertained the members of her club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Elliott T. Kimball was hostess at a delightful affair yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Stella McCready and Mrs. George T. Badger, the rooms being effectively decorated, and the amusement being cards.

Mrs. James T. Hogle was hostess at an informal musicale and luncheon at her home on Thursday.

The Ladies' Literary club on Tuesday night was bright with emblems of the various colleges represented just now in Salt Lake, the hall being in possession that evening of a number of the students and recent graduates. Flowers and ferns added in the light effect, the table at which supper was later served, being especially pretty. About 40 young people were present, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Keith chaperoning the affair.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer left on Wednesday for Logan to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher in a trip to Bear Lake for a few days.

Miss Laura Simmons of Montana is the guest of Miss Hazel Stevens for the summer months.

Mrs. Curtis L. Knight and little daughter Mignon returns to California next week. Mr. and Mrs. Knight have just returned from an extended trip to Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mrs. John Bern will arrive this week from Nebraska.

William McIntyre, Jr. left this week for Canada.

Arthur J. Hertzler has gone east.

Miss Margaret Lynch and brother Patrick of Battle Creek, Mich., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sullivan.

Mrs. J. A. Reeves and two sons will leave for Denver in a few days for a visit of several weeks.

Miss Mary Olive Gray will spend the summer with friends in Colorado.

Mrs. William Cunningham has returned from a visit of several weeks with friends in Nebraska.

Miss Ruby Dunn is visiting with friends in Ogden for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Fred Hornung will leave early next week for a visit with her mother in Iowa.

The Misses Dora and Mary Bogue of Denver are in the city, the guests of Misses Zayda and Charlotte Bothwell.

Miss Maud Mariott of Ogden is the guest of Miss Abbie Herman.

Mrs. Henry Sadler, accompanied by Miss Elsie and Jack Sadler, left this week for Montana, where they will visit with Mrs. James Wells.

The Misses Pearl and Nora Van Cott, who have been on a six weeks' trip in the east, returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bamberger are in Ogden canyon.

Mrs. C. H. Brink, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Denver, left for her home Wednesday. Mrs. Brink has been here on a short visit and has been the guest of Mrs. O. K. Lewis.

Mrs. Fisher Harris, her mother, Mrs. Mary P. Ploutz, and Miss Margaret Harris are at Brighton.

Miss Margaret Clark, daughter of Senator C. D. Clark of Wyoming, is the guest of Miss Clara I. Colbourne at Rowland hall for the rest of the summer.

Edith Godbe, Tessa Godbe and Marjorie Brooks have gone to Brighton to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Billings, Mr. and home at the Critchlow residence, 430 Seventh East, during the summer.

Miss Lucy Gaby has returned to the city after a pleasant visit with friends in the Northwest.

Mrs. R. Savage and Misses Savage will leave shortly for the Savage ranch in Wyoming, where they will spend six weeks.

Miss Jessie Peabody of Canon City, Colo., is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Baer for a couple of weeks at the Emery-Holmes.

Mrs. Alma Katz is here from Portland visiting with Miss Sherman.

Mrs. J. Vernon Bridge, formerly Miss La Von Peirce, arrived here Thursday from visiting in Chicago and Milwaukee. She will spend the rest of the summer here with her mother, Mrs. L. T. Peirce, before returning to her home in Phoenix, Arizona.

Ogden, July 14.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paine Monday evening their daughter, Miss Grace Payne, was married to Mr. Frank Francis. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Robert McQuarrie in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. After the extending of congratulations, all sat down to an elaborate wedding supper. The contracting parties are among the best known and most highly esteemed young people of the city. The bride is a young lady of charming personality and the groom is the editor of the Ogden Standard and Morning Examiner of this city. They have a cozy little home at 2371 Adams avenue, where they will be pleased to receive their many friends after Aug. 1.

Mrs. Horace Peery was hostess this week at a pretty euchre party, given at her home on Adams avenue Wednesday afternoon, which was attended by about thirty of her lady friends. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. O. M. Runyon and Mrs. J. S. Lewis. After cards a dainty menu was served. The home was tastefully decorated with cut flowers. It was given in honor of Mrs. Lulu Peery Faulkerson of Chicago.

Next Wednesday morning Miss Kitty Fitzgerald will entertain at her home on Adams avenue.

The Hollanders of Ogden and other parts of the state, numbering about 2,000, had a joyous outing at the Lagoon Thursday.

Miss Ellen Larkin is visiting at Kayville with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Joseph Wheeler is visiting with relatives in Ogden. She will return to Salt Lake City tomorrow.

A pretty social event took place Monday evening when Miss Allie Bowen entertained gracefully the graduating class of the Ogden high school of 1906. An evening of real enjoyment was spent at music, games, and partaking of a bounteous repast.

The Weber club gave the first of a series of delightful dancing parties Tuesday evening at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon. Delicious refreshments were served.

Rev. Father Cushman entertained at the Hermitage hotel in Ogden canyon Monday evening the members of the St. Joseph's Catholic church choir, and the whole took part in the dramatic production "Niobe," last month. A trout and chicken dinner was served, and a few hours spent at music and other pleasures. Following are those who were guests of the rev. father: Messrs. Margaret Biel, Daisy Maginn, James Griffl, May O'Brien, Nellie Moran, May Conroy and Mayme Carter; Messrs. Dean, Maguire, Maginnis, Laughren, Bachman, O'Brien, Wedell, Devine, Junk, Gillies, Adams, Smith and Bachman. Mrs. George Madson chaperoned the party.

Monday afternoon Willard Scofield gave an automobile party up Ogden canyon to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenberg and Miss Cohen. After enjoying the beautiful scenery of the canyon, a trout and chicken dinner was served at the Hermitage.

Mrs. Cohen announced the engagement of this week of her niece, Miss Tillie Raw, of Philadelphia, to Mr. George M. Lewis of Salt Lake City.

The Fourth and Second wards had a pleasant outing Tuesday at the Lagoon.

Mrs. John Hobbs entertained the W. C. T. U. at her home on Adams avenue Wednesday afternoon.

Albert Scofield returned home this week from an extended eastern business and pleasure trip.

Messdames Bogart, Judge, Hinley, Noble, Helms, Alexander, Van Nantome, Stewart, Hughes, McKelitt, Havelst and Healy and others, went to Evanston Monday, where they spent two days as guests of the ladies' auxiliary to the B. of L. E. A social dancing party was given in their honor.

About four hundred boys and girls of the St. Joseph's parish of this city were delightfully entertained Thursday at Glenwood park, where they were the guests of Father Cushman.

J. S. Noble and wife returned home this week from an extended California trip.

The Royal Neighbors of America gave a pleasant social Thursday afternoon at the Eagles' hall.

Miss Thilda Anderberg of this city and Mr. Ross Ripple of Johnstown, Pa., were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderberg, Bishop Ralph Poulton officiating. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, and the ceremony was performed under a beautiful arch of American Beauty roses, which, with sweet peas, were the decorations. A large number of relatives and friends of Miss Anderberg and the family were present to extend congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple and many beautiful presents were received. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

Senator and Mrs. Smoot entertained at dinner Wednesday in honor of R. E. Benedict and F. E. Olmsted of Washington, D. C.

Dr. James L. Hughes of Toronto, Canada, has been the guest of Senator and Mrs. Smoot this week, and has enjoyed fishing and lake parties arranged in his honor by the senator and his family.

Miss Fay Loose entertained Monday in honor of Miss Annie Parkinson of Preston, Ida.

Mrs. James Ferguson entertained at dinner Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Olive Donovan of Chicago, covers being laid for 30.

Mrs. William K. Farrer was the hostess at a dinner Sunday; covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Lott A. Russen has returned to Lehi after a week's visit with Miss Hazel Strong.

Mrs. James C. Leatham of Lak-

ROOSEVELT DEMANDS REAL VACATION.

It is said that President Roosevelt is going to have what he describes as a "real" vacation this year. This expressed intention is borne out by the fact that he has insisted on inviolate privacy during his first week at Oyster Bay, the summer home of the chief executive.

Shore was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. N. Strong, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Genter of Salt Lake were the guests of Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot Sunday.

Miss Annie Dow has gone to Salem to visit friends.

Mrs. J. N. Strong entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Conover of Ferron, and Mrs. J. C. Leatham of Lake Shore; covers were laid for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Thatcher of Logan are visiting Mrs. Thatcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bean.

Misses Rena and Cora Dusenberry and Miss Jessie Dill were Salt Lake visitors this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Roylance visited friends in Salt Lake Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leo Brown have gone to Fayette, where they will reside.

Miss Annie Parkinson, who has visited Provo friends for some time, has returned to her home in Preston, Ida.

Miss Ethel Smith has returned from a trip to Mantel and Nephi, visiting friends.

Miss Alice B. Matthews has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., to spend the vacation with relatives.

Miss Jessie Dill has left for a visit to her home in Columbus, O., and will also visit friends in Colorado.

Miss Sophia Nuttall of Salt Lake has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor this week.

Miss Zula Houltz, Edith Dusenberry, and Amy Taylor have returned from a visit to Salt Lake.

Thomas John, Jr., entertained a number of young friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas John, at a lawn party Friday. A very enjoyable time was passed by the young people with music and games. Refreshments were served.

The Pallas club met with Miss Leah Pyle Friday evening. After the usual interesting literary program, delicious refreshments were served.

The children of the Fourth ward Sunday school intermediate department were the guests of the teachers, Misses Leah Pyle and Florence Snyder, Wednesday, at a delightful outing to a grove north of the city. Interesting games were played, and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grimm have gone to Illinois to visit relatives.

Miss Alice B. Matthews entertained the children of her sewing club at a pleasant outing to the Provo lake resort Monday.

Miss Emma Ashworth of the Fourth ward, and the children of her Sunday school class enjoyed a pleasant day in Provo canyon Thursday.

The Priscilla club met Thursday evening with Miss Bessie Eastmond. After the regular art and literary program dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Knudsen and family have gone to the Uintah reservation on an extended outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Thatcher of Logan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry to dinner Tuesday.

Miss Ada Paxman is visiting in Salt Lake for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Busath.

Postmaster Cleave and family spent Sunday in Provo canyon.

A delightful lake party was given Tuesday by the Tinkley family in honor of Mrs. Addie Robb of Newhouse, who is visiting in this city, as their guest. Bathing, boating and feasting were enjoyed by all.

Miss Nettie Gember of Salt Lake was the guest of Miss Giddie Gillespie this week.

Mrs. Joseph Nelson delightfully entertained the neighbors to dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for 15. A sumptuous dinner was served, and a social time enjoyed.

Mr. C. E. Loose entertained United States Marshal Spry and Ed. Callister Wednesday evening.

Miss Maud Erickson of Salt Lake is the guest of Miss Tessa Kirkwood.

Mrs. A. E. Buckler chaperoned a party of young people at a lake party on Wednesday. Bathing, boating and a good social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. A. D. Smith entertained Tuesday at a card party. Twenty ladies enjoyed the afternoon. Refreshments were served.

Miss Tessie Kirkwood entertained on Friday evening in honor of Miss Maud Erickson of Salt Lake. Music, recitations and games all tended to make a pleasant evening. A dainty lunch was served.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Cleave attended the postmasters' convention Thursday. They were the guest of Postmaster and Mrs. John Peters of that city.

Miss Chloe Smoot was the delightful hostess at an evening party Friday. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses. A delightful evening was passed. A delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Leo Holst and baby are visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. R. Mingley of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bowring this week.

Miss Lysle Knudsen entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Rodney Badger of Salt Lake, also to Miss Bessie Bodel and Donna Thompson, and Olive Eddy "au revoir" prior to their departure for their summer vacation.

The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. Those present were: Messdames C. W. Knudsen, Rodney Badger, F. W. Fishburn, R. L. Fishburn, Nels Jensen, Hyrum Standing, A. W. Taylor, J. M. Hansen, Jim Pitt, J. C. Knudsen, B. F.

Miss Tessie Kirkwood entertained on Friday evening in honor of Miss Maud Erickson of Salt Lake. Music, recitations and games all tended to make a pleasant evening. A dainty lunch was served.

pleasant evening. A dainty lunch was served.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Cleave attended the postmasters' convention Thursday. They were the guest of Postmaster and Mrs. John Peters of that city.

Miss Chloe Smoot was the delightful hostess at an evening party Friday. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses. A delightful evening was passed. A delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Leo Holst and baby are visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. R. Mingley of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bowring this week.

Miss Lysle Knudsen entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Rodney Badger of Salt Lake, also to Miss Bessie Bodel and Donna Thompson, and Olive Eddy "au revoir" prior to their departure for their summer vacation.

The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. Those present were: Messdames C. W. Knudsen, Rodney Badger, F. W. Fishburn, R. L. Fishburn, Nels Jensen, Hyrum Standing, A. W. Taylor, J. M. Hansen, Jim Pitt, J. C. Knudsen, B. F.

Miss Tessie Kirkwood entertained on Friday evening in honor of Miss Maud Erickson of Salt Lake. Music, recitations and games all tended to make a pleasant evening. A dainty lunch was served.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Cleave attended the postmasters' convention Thursday. They were the guest of Postmaster and Mrs. John Peters of that city.

Miss Chloe Smoot was the delightful hostess at an evening party Friday. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses. A delightful evening was passed. A delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Leo Holst and baby are visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. R. Mingley of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bowring this week.

Miss Lysle Knudsen entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Rodney Badger of Salt Lake, also to Miss Bessie Bodel and Donna Thompson, and Olive Eddy "au revoir" prior to their departure for their summer vacation.

The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. Those present were: Messdames C. W. Knudsen, Rodney Badger, F. W. Fishburn, R. L. Fishburn, Nels Jensen, Hyrum Standing, A. W. Taylor, J. M. Hansen, Jim Pitt, J. C. Knudsen, B. F.

Miss Tessie Kirkwood entertained on Friday evening in honor of Miss Maud Erickson of Salt Lake. Music, recitations and games all tended to make a pleasant evening. A dainty lunch was served.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Cleave attended the postmasters' convention Thursday. They were the guest of Postmaster and Mrs. John Peters of that city.

Miss Chloe Smoot was the delightful hostess at an evening party Friday. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses. A delightful evening was passed. A delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Leo Holst and baby are visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. R. Mingley of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bowring this week.

Miss Lysle Knudsen entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Rodney Badger of Salt Lake, also to Miss Bessie Bodel and Donna Thompson, and Olive Eddy "au revoir" prior to their departure for their summer vacation.

The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. Those present were: Messdames C. W. Knudsen, Rodney Badger, F. W. Fishburn, R. L. Fishburn, Nels Jensen, Hyrum Standing, A. W. Taylor, J. M. Hansen, Jim Pitt, J. C. Knudsen, B. F.

Miss Tessie Kirkwood entertained on Friday evening in honor of Miss Maud Erickson of Salt Lake. Music, recitations and games all tended to make a pleasant evening. A dainty lunch was served.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Cleave attended the postmasters' convention Thursday. They were the guest of Postmaster and Mrs. John Peters of that city.

Miss Chloe Smoot was the delightful hostess at an evening party Friday. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses. A delightful evening was passed. A delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Leo Holst and baby are visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. R. Mingley of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bowring this week.

Miss Lysle Knudsen entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Rodney Badger of Salt Lake, also to Miss Bessie Bodel and Donna Thompson, and Olive Eddy "au revoir" prior to their departure for their summer vacation.

The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. The guests were prettily served to dainty refreshments on the lawn. Those present were: Messdames C. W. Knudsen, Rodney Badger, F. W. Fishburn, R. L. Fishburn, Nels Jensen, Hyrum Standing, A. W. Taylor, J. M. Hansen, Jim Pitt, J. C. Knudsen, B. F.

HOTEL BRIGHTON.

In Big Cottonwood Canyon.

UP AMONG THE PINES

Fishing, Hunting, Mountain Climbing, Outdoor Sports of All Kinds. Finest Water in the State—Free From Line.

Daily Stage from Murray, 8 a. m. Leaves Granter & Davis Livestock Stable. Daily Stage Also Meets Red City Train at Park.

Phone Bell 261. Red, Murray, or Ind. 26 for information and rates.

WASH SUITS.

Fact is, that if you had a family of 200 boys, the best, wisest, and most economical thing you could do, at this season of the year, would be to bring them all in and buy them one or two Wash Suits a piece; they don't cost much, from $1.00 to $3.50. Cotton and linen duck, English galatea cloth, English drill, butchers' linen, etc. Not loaded down with trimmings, just enough to make them handsome. Also straw, duck and canvas Hats in great variety.

Poulton, Madsen, Owen & Co.

111-113 Main Street. Where the Clothes Fit.