FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Another fall of snow last night.

The dead body of an infant was found below the North Temple st., aqueduct last night.

W. W. Ritter Esq., and Miss Prissie Jennings were united in wedlock yesterday.

Today we give the full facts connected with the Boukofsky case. It appears as a horse of another color now.

Madame prices for the McCaull opera performance are: parquette, $1.50; children, 75c; first circle, $1.00; children, 50c; second circle, 50c.

Tonight, at 7 p.m., in the 12th Ward Hall, there will be a meeting of the Seventies of the 11th, 12th and 13th Wards. Members of the 11th and 12th Wards are invited. The 13th Ward will be present. The Saints are invited.

Apollon Young and Grant held meetings in Woodruff, Snowflake, Taylor, Erastus, Round Valley, Bush Valley, and in Nutrioso, during the last two weeks. Their visit is much appreciated by all good Latter-day Saints.—Orion Era, A. T.

Special meeting of the Alert Engine Company No. 3, on Friday, April 13th, at 7:30 p.m., in consequence of the death of a member. A full attendance is particularly requested. By order of the foreman, JAS. WHITE.

The weekly meetings of the 21st Ward M. I. A. have been discontinued, and monthly meetings for the summer season will be held. The first will take place on the 12th Wednesday in May, when a social entertainment will be given.

The other day at Frisco, a boy named Charles Staples took his father's revolver from a drawer, playfully cocked and pointed it at his sister. It was, of course discharged, but the bullet missed the girl. It whistled in close proximity to the ear of a passing pedestrian on the street.

Last Saturday evening, John Murphy, a section hand employed in the Union Pacific yard in Ogden, returned home from his work and while examining a loaded revolver it suddenly went off. The bullet, he believed had been loose. Had he made a "clean breast" of the affair there is a probability that he would have been aided by the police, been now in possession of his money, for he ascertained that Tipton Hamilton and one of his companions only left this city at one o'clock yesterday on the Denver & Rio Grande train. The man Davis who had aided Hamilton in the swindle had disappeared before that time. Had Mr. Boukofsky told the truth the officers could have arrested Hamilton before he left town.

These being the facts in the case the sympathy for Mr. Boukofsky is exceedingly small. He made affidavit before Justice Spiers this morning against Hamilton, charging him with robbing him of the sum of $5,000. It is presumed that the remaining $2,000 was the property of another dupe who has not yet appeared prominently on the scene, except inferentially.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council will meet in the Council House to-morrow evening, April 13th, at 7 o'clock.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

First Company.—By telegram from James H. Hart, New York, to President John Taylor, we learn that the first company of this season's emigration left Liverpool yesterday on the S.S. Nevada. It numbers 352 souls.

Ho Refused to Go.—A man employed at a First South Street store placed himself on the exterior of so much liquid lunacy this morning as to render him unfit for business. He was requested by one of the proprietors of the establishment to go home and rest for the day. He positively refused, and the store-keeper led him gently to the door by the shoulders. When that point was reached, the intoxicated individual suddenly turned around and seized the gentleman around the neck. A tussle ensued when the twain rolled over upon the sidewalk and did some ground, but not very tumbling. The police intervened and the parties took a walk to the City Hall.

A Railroad Town.—Shoshone, until recently known as Naples, is a town in Oneida County, Idaho, and although the Oregon Short Line is about twenty miles beyond that point on the way to Hailey, it is still the terminal town. Three months ago it had a population of not more than 200 all told, now the inhabitants number somewhere between 1,500 and 2,000. At present it is principally noted for bad whiskey, gambling dens and shooting scrapes. A few days ago mineral-springs hands were put into a slender building called a jail, for being uproariously drunk. A gang of roughs soon broke into the structure and set them all at liberty. Such is life along a railroad in course of construction in the West.

"Cheek" at the Theatre.—At the Salt Lake Theatre, Friday evening, amusement lovers will have an opportunity to see a bright and successful comedy, and they will turn out in force to enjoy it—or miss a capital thing. "Cheek," which is to be put upon the boards in a new comedy by Fred Maresden, and is said to be not only amusing, but to have a definite and well defined plot and though written for the express purpose of giving Rolant Reed a chance to display his peculiar talent to the best advantage, it is by no means "his one part play." Other characters are brought forward into prominence and there is scarcely a member of the company who has not good lines and good situations. It is very seldom that a play is brought to this city with such strong endorsements as "Cheek" carries.

Murder in Montana.—A Helena, Montana, correspondent informs the Butte Miner that, on Monday last, a colored man named William Brooks, but better known there by the nickname "Tex," was shot and instantly killed by Patrick Muer alias Lamb, on Sunday night Brooks had an altercation with a brother of Lamb's, resulting in a fight in which the brother was knocked down and pretty severely handled by Brooks. On Monday morning Muer, alias Lamb, and Brooks met on the sidewalk in front of the postoffice, and Lamb made some insulting remark to Brooks, who instantly resented it, and ran toward Lamb with clenched fist as if to strike him, but before he could get close enough to strike the blow Lamb drew his revolver and fired, and penetrating the brain. The wounded man fell upon the sidewalk and expired almost instantly.

THE BOUKOFSKY ROBBERY.

THE MYSTERY DISCLOSED AND THE TRUTH BROUGHT OUT.

In the News of Tuesday it was stated, on the authority of the gentleman himself, that Mr. N. Boukofsky had been robbed on Monday night of $5,000 by a man named Charles W. Davis. We are informed by the police that they entirely discredited Mr. Boukofsky's story, and immediately set to work to find out the facts, in which they have been eminently successful. In addition to the robbery tale, it also transpired that Mr. Boukofsky took a couple of metal bricks to Mr. McVicker, the assayer, for the purpose of being tested, when that gentleman at once discovered that they were brass, washed or plated with gold.

The way it all came about was that a man named Tipton Hamilton and some other parties from Colorado brought the bricks to this city. They claimed they were pure gold, taken from the Kansas City Bank at the late robbery there, and they were anxious to dispose of the wealth of about one-half its intrinsic value. The bricks, had they been the pure metal, would have been worth nearly $14,000.

Mr. Boukofsky was approached on the subject, Davis acting as a go-between for Hamilton and others, and he agreed to purchase the bricks, doubtless in the hope of doubling his money. The bricks were "plugged" with gold, in order to deceive the purchaser. Hamilton bored into the end of one, and the side of the other, the result being a quantity of pure gold scrapings or granulations. On the strength of this test Boukofsky, probably in conjunction with another party, paid $7,000 for the bricks, at least $5,000 of that sum being paid by him.

There can be no doubt that the cause of Mr. Boukofsky concocting the robbery story was that he was ashamed for the truth to be known, as he would have appeared, as he does now, in the position of a person purchasing property which he believed had been stolen. Had he made a "clean breast" of the affair there is a probability that he would have been aided by the police, been now in possession of his money, for he ascertained that Tipton Hamilton and one of his companions only left this city at one o'clock yesterday on the Denver & Rio Grande train. The man Davis who had aided Hamilton in the swindle had disappeared before that time. Had Mr. Boukofsky told the truth the officers could have arrested Hamilton before he left town.

These being the facts in the case the sympathy for Mr. Boukofsky is exceedingly small. He made affidavit before Justice Spiers this morning against Hamilton, charging him with robbing him of the sum of $5,000. It is presumed that the remaining $2,000 was the property of another dupe who has not yet appeared prominently on the scene, except inferentially.

Ritter-Jennings, W. W. Ritter, Esq., superintendent of the Utah & Western Railroad, and Miss Prissie Jennings, daughter of his Honor Mayor William Jennings, were united in marriage. The occasion was celebrated last night by a fete at Devereux House, the residence of the Mayor, where a gay and happy throng of invited guests assembled. The reception was a very brilliant affair, and on a scale of munificence usual to Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, whose liberality, excellent taste, and generous hospitality are widely known here and elsewhere. The happy couple received the congratulations of all, and we unite our best wishes with those of others so cordially expressed for their welfare and happiness.

Among the numerous handsome and costly presents received by the bride and groom was one of which Mr. Ritter is doubtless specially proud. It was in the shape of a massive silver tea service, accompanied by the following notes:

Union Pacific Railway, Salt Lake and Western Division. Superintendent's Office, Salt Lake City, Utah, April 11th, 1883.

To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Ritter: We the undersigned employees of the Salt Lake & Western and Utah & Nevada Railways, herewith present to you the accompanying service, as a slight testimonial of our esteem and respect for our superintendent, and for whom and his bride we wish a life of unalloyed peace, prosperity and happiness.

To this was attached forty-three signatures. The many amiable qualities of the happy couple admirably suit each for the other. May adverse clouds never dim the serenity of their conjugal sky.

Ugh!—People residing along the north side of the west portion of North Temple street are in a ferment, and they have good reason for feeling considerably exercised. The cause of this is that, the mains not being extended to that locality, they are compelled to use for domestic purposes the water that flows down the aqueduct. This stream is the subject of constant defilement by unscrupulously filthy disposed persons. We are reliably informed that it is not an uncommon occurrence for sacks of rags to be rinsed in the stream, slops to be emptied into it, while disgust has been heightened to active nausea by the discovery along its course of carcasses of dead dogs and sacks of kitchen.

The finding of the dead body of an infant yesterday was the last straw that severed the already strained spine of the camel. The good people referred to are naturally anxious for relief of some sort.

Died in Jail.—This morning, a young colored man named Marine Valentine, who some time ago asked permission to stop at the city jail, died in that building from consumption. He was quite low from the complaint when taken in. He was told to make application to the County authorities to be taken care of, but he begged to be allowed to stop at the jail, as he preferred being there. Arrangements had been made with the County, however, to take him in charge, but he expired before he could be removed.

PROBABLE INFANTICIDE.

A NUMBER OF BOYS FIND THE DEAD BODY OF AN INFANT.

About half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon Charles Bullock, John Sandberg, both aged about 12 years, and a number of other boys were playing near the mouth of the City Creek aqueduct, on North Temple Street, when they discovered in the stream the dead body of a female infant. The boys consigned it to the care of Mrs. Bacon, who lives in the vicinity, until the officers could be notified of the discovery. The infant was in a perfect state of development, even to the nails upon the toes, and was probably of six or seven months advancement.

There were evidences upon the body of a forced premature birth, and probable murder. A mark was on the upper part of the back of the head, and another on the forehead, plainly indicating that it had been held by some such instrument as forceps. So a gentleman who saw it informs us.

The body had evidently been dead for several days, as when found it showed evidences of decay having set in.

Last evening an inquest was held by Coroner George J. Taylor, and a jury, the verdict being to the effect that the child came to its death sometime between the 1st and 8th of April, at the hands of some party or parties to the jurors unknown.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE FLOW CONTEXT.

Editor Deseret News:

We notice in your paper of April 11th a communication signed A. Warnock, giving a result of the trial between the "Gillpin" and "Well" sulky plows, held on Paul Schettler's farm on Thursday, April 5th. In justice to myself and to those present I deem it necessary to make the following statement: In accepting Mr. Warnock's challenge to meet him in a play trial, we judged him to be (as we consider other dealers of this city) a gentleman and a man of veracity and principle.
