

SUFFOCATED BY SULPHUR FUMES

Ten Men Lose Their Lives in a Tunnel Used to Haul Coal.

THEY WERE ON A LOADED TRAIN

They Were Overcome by Gas Emitted by Locomotive—Engineer Put on Steam to Save Them but Failed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 25.—Ten miners were suffocated by gas and sulphur fumes from a locomotive this afternoon in the workings of the Summit Branch Coal company at Williamsport, Dauphin county. The victims are:

DEAD.
Michael Golden, general inside foreman.
George Riddle, master mechanic.
John Kurny.
Joseph Panch.
Enoch Morgan.
Albert Nau.
Fred James.
Adam Spoppenheimer.
John Prodench.
The tunnel in which the disaster occurred is one mile in length and is used by the coal company to convey the coal mined in the Williamsport valley. The men employed in the Bear valley, who reside in Williamsport have made a practice for years of riding to and from their work on the tips of cars, that are hauled between the two valleys by small locomotives.

About 4 o'clock this afternoon General Inside Foreman Golden and about 10 miners boarded a loaded train which was about to be hauled from Bear valley to Williamsport. Everything went all right until about half of the journey was made, when some of the men attracted the attention of the engineer, who at once stopped, and it was found that nearly every man in the party on the cars had been overcome by the gas and sulphur fumes which emanated from the engine and floated back over them.

The engineer at once crowded on all steam possible and the unconscious men were hurried to the Williamsport end of the tunnel. Help was at once summoned here and the men taken to the surface, where a corps of physicians made every effort to resuscitate them, but all came too late. Foreman Golden and the other victims.

Parker of New York for president and to vote as a unit on all questions, was adopted.

Young Woman of New Haven Attacked by a Negro.

New Haven, Conn., May 25.—A brutal assault, similar to two previous ones that have created a great stir in this city, took place tonight. A well-dressed young woman was attacked in a dark street by a man supposed to be a negro. The assault was committed near the place where the daughter of Prof. Richards of Yale and a domestic were recently attacked.

In the assault tonight almost the same methods were employed by the assailant as marked the other two cases.

es, the man grabbing the woman from behind, putting his hands on her mouth and throwing her to the ground. Her cries were heard for blocks around, and the man, becoming frightened, left the young woman on the ground, her clothes torn and face scratched.

The young woman refused absolutely to give her name or to tell where she lived, and would not give any aid to the police except to indicate the way the man went. The man escaped.

The place where the woman was assaulted is near the Sheffield school building, and the outcrops of the main attracted hundreds of Yale men, who joined in the hunt for the culprit, but without success.

The daughter of Prof. Richards was assaulted last Thursday night in Humphrey street, and the assault on the domestic took place about three weeks ago on Prospect street. Both women were badly injured. Tonight's assault was committed on Canal street.

PATENT MEDICINES.

Advertisement of Objectionable Ones to be Excluded from Mails.

Washington, May 25.—In connection with the decision of the postoffice department to take steps to eliminate objectionable patent medicines and other advertisements from the newspapers, an announced some weeks ago, it was stated today that all these cases would be taken up individually on their merits. Each case will be considered carefully by the law officers of the department and when the cases are found to involve violations of the law governing advertisements in the American Newspaper Publishers' association will be notified. That body, according to the present plan, is to notify all of its papers who are members of the organization that the advertisement is contrary to law. The papers that are not represented in the publishers' association will be notified directly by the department and wherever papers so notified refuse to eliminate the objectionable matter the postoffice department will exclude them from the mails. The question of the contracts that the American Newspaper Publishers' association may have with the publishers has been considered and it is asserted that such contracts being for matter that is a violation of the law should not operate in any way to obstruct the carrying out of the postoffice department's plans.

THE IROQUOIS THEATER.

Permission to Remodel on Plans Submitted Flatly Refused.

Chicago, May 26.—Permission to remodel the Iroquois theater on plans submitted to the building department has been flatly refused by Building Commissioner Williams on an opinion for Corporation Counsel Tolman. Major Tolman said the theater would not be permitted to remodel on the provision of the theater ordinance had been complied with and intimated that it might be found impossible to remodel the interior of the playhouse to conform with the law. Mayor Harrison concurred in the opinion of the corporation counsel, and also said he would close all theaters Oct. 1 if they failed to meet the requirements of the ordinance.

The reasons given by Building Commissioner Williams who had refused the permit under the plans submitted to him were:

There are 748 people who could be seated on the first floor, 600 would have to pass out through an exit seven feet wide. It should be at least 16.

The ordinance does not permit with the section of the ordinance requiring three open spaces around it.

There is only one stairway for the first and second galleries, while the ordinance provides that each gallery shall have a separate entrance from the street level.

In the entrance to the balcony there are five stairs in a group, while the ordinance says there shall not be less than six.

There is one common exit and entrance from the balcony and galleries, while the ordinance demands a distinct and separate entrance for each floor, balcony, and gallery.

Chicago to Have New Theater.

Chicago, May 26.—The last steps necessary for securing the site for the new theater in Monroe street between Dearborn and State streets have been taken at a meeting of the board of education with the transfer of the lease from the Boomer and Gore estates to Mrs. E. J. Lehmann was approved.

The condition imposed was that the fire-proof building be erected on the property, not later than the year 1905.

The new structure, which is to cost $1,000,000 will be twenty stories high, built of white terra cotta and made fireproof. It will be an office building, but the lower floors are to contain a theater, which will be eighty feet wide. An entrance, 40 by 60 feet, is planned, and the intention is to make it one of the most ornate and beautiful in the city.

The program has been designed, it is declared, with an eye to beauty, safety, and complete comfort. Its seating capacity will be 2,200.

The house will be devoted to high-class vaudeville, under the control of the Kohl and Castle association. The opening is planned for a date not later than April, 1905.

FRANCE'S QUARREL WITH THE VATICAN

Pope's Official Organ Gives Review of the Case Before the Rupture.

M. NISARD WAS PEREMPTORY.

Insisted on Merry del Val Answering Immediately "Yes" or "No" to Certain Questions.

Rome, May 26.—The Osservatore Romano, the vatican organ publishes an official statement reviewing the relations existing between Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, and M. Nisard, French ambassador to the vatican, immediately before the recall of the latter as the result of the papal protest against President Loubet's visit to Rome.

Friday last, according to the paper, M. Nisard visited Cardinal Merry del Val and told him he had been instructed by Foreign Minister Delcasse to inquire as to the authenticity of the text of the note to the Catholic powers as published in L'Humanite of Paris which called for that directed to the French government, and to ask especially if the phrase regarding the recall of the nuncio which was omitted from the note addressed to France really occurred in that sent to the other powers.

The cardinal said he would reply immediately if the ambassador's interrogations were put in writing. M. Nisard pointed out that there was no time to do this and the cardinal then said that he would give an answer within an hour.

M. Nisard, however, insisted on an immediate reply and pleaded that the cardinal should answer "yes" or "no." The latter said he was sorry, but he was unable to comply with the ambassador's demands, and M. Nisard then said he would have to draw the conclusion that Cardinal Merry del Val did not recognize the authenticity of the note as published.

The cardinal retorted that he had not said anything of the kind to which M. Nisard replied that the telegram Minister Delcasse that you decline to answer.

To this the cardinal replied that, on the contrary, he had promised a written answer within an hour.

M. Nisard then withdrew, saying that he would wait. Two hours later Cardinal Merry del Val, not receiving word from the ambassador, sent a communication to the embassy saying that he was at M. Nisard's disposal and prepared to give an answer but no reply to this communication was received.

On Saturday morning M. Nisard again visited the secretary of state and informed him that the insistence upon a written form of his questions had been interpreted as a desire to elude the subject, and that, therefore, he had been instructed to leave Rome on vacation.

The Osservatore Romano concludes: "First, that Cardinal Merry del Val, not having given an answer, the recall of the ambassador was not justified; second, that the answer which the cardinal would have given within an hour would have been exhaustive and thoroughly satisfactory; and, third, that the request of M. Nisard to be informed as to the contents of the note sent to the other Catholic states was absolutely contrary to diplomatic usage and that there was no rule which obliged the government to send a collective note."

Tibetan Expedition Isolated.

The three were closeted for half an hour. All declined to discuss the conference. Mr. Bryan left here tonight for Texas.

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA, READ THIS.

The old way of taking Pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia, is all wrong. They may be put up in tablets or in liquid, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and you have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervous troubles and sick-headache, it does not cure, stop taking the drugs and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache, by cleansing the stomach and bowels at the same time using a medicine that will act on the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspepsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. Druggists sell these pills at 25c per box. It only takes one pill for a Pepsin Diet.

He was born at Troy, N. Y., in 1818 and at 16 commenced firing an engine on the old Boston & Maine. He later became an engineer on steamboats and made voyages to Europe and South America. When the Chicago and Alton railroad was built from Chicago to Joliet he ran the first engine. Stillman also ran the engine that hauled the first load of Confederate prisoners over the Alton road from Alton to Fort Dearborn.

MALARIA

AN INVISIBLE ENEMY

TO HEALTH

Malaria is a slow poison, but the most stubborn and deeply rooted when it takes possession of the system. We breathe into the lungs the polluted, germtainted air; the little microbes then enter into the system, and feeding upon the red corpuscles of the blood, soon reduce this vital, life-sustaining fluid to such a weak, watery state that the patient becomes listless, pale and anemic, and mentally and physically depressed.

Malaria may begin with slight rigors or chilly sensations, followed by fever and thirst; but gradually all parts of the system are affected; the liver becomes torpid, and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin; the stomach fails to properly digest the food, and there are frequent headaches, dizziness, bad taste in the mouth, constipation and a general worn-out, tired feeling that only a sufferer from Malaria can describe. Other and more dangerous symptoms are apt to follow where this disease is neglected, such as nervous prostration, palpitation, sleeplessness, enlarged liver, weak kidneys, boils and risings and dangerous-looking sores and abscesses. Malaria is all the more dangerous because of its insidious and stealthy nature. It is an invisible-atmospheric poison, and the germs and microbes that are lodged in the blood are propagating and increasing in number all the while, clogging the circulation and gradually wrecking the health.

What is needed in Malarial troubles is a blood purifier and tonic. S. S. S. purifies the germ-infected blood, tones up the stomach, improves the appetite and invigorates the entire system. It stimulates the torpid, sluggish organs of the body, enabling them to properly perform their functions and carry off the poisonous secretions and health-destroying matter that have been polluting the blood and clogging the circulation. S. S. S. contains no strong minerals, but is strictly a vegetable remedy, a blood purifier without an equal, and the greatest of all tonics. If you have any symptoms of Malaria, write us, and medical advice will be furnished without cost.
