LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 8.

In Better Health.—We hear from Mrs. Rich, of this city, that she learns by telegram from her husband, Apostle C. O. Rich, that his health has been better ever since his visit to the city, which appears to have benefited him considerably.

Death of a Meadowville Man.—Brother John Loftus, of Meadowville, Bear Lake Valley, died last night at the residence of Mrs. Blazard, 14th Ward, from liver and lung disease. The burial will not take place until his relatives are communicated with. He was aged about thirty-four years, and a man of excellent character.

Election at Ogden.—A dispatch from Ogden says:

The election is quiet but earnest. Everybody is out. The saloons are closed. Town full of people. Voting heavy and strictly partisan. Up to three o'clock 1,500 votes were cast—presumably one-third Liberal. It is expected that the total will reach 1,700.

An Alarming Mishap.—Mrs. Theobald, of Richfield, Sevier Co., just arrived in the city from that place, called and informed us of a mishap that occurred to her on the way. In crossing a bridge between Salina and Gunnison her wagon tipped over and went crashing into a gulch, a depth of twelve feet, the vehicle, team, butter, eggs, Mrs. Theobald and four children being all mixed up in confusion. Fortunately the frightened lady and her little ones were all rescued, escaping in a most remarkable manner with a few bruises. The harness had to be cut before the bewildered horses could be relieved. Mrs. Theobald states that she is greatly indebted to a Mr. Bosshardt, for his kindness in aiding her at the time of the accident.

"Rather Coercive."—It appears that Mr. T. A. Lyne and his better half are not identical in their political proclivities. When they got to the polling place, Fifth precinct, he insisted on scrutinizing her ballot, to which she for a time demurred. At last she took out the ticket that was in the envelope, threw it away and inserted a "Liberal" ticket in its place. A Mr. Coulam picked up the discarded ticket from the floor, and found it to be that of the People's Party.

Mr. Lyne is a pronounced "Liberal." Had he been a member of the People's Party and the discarded ticket a "Liberal" one, what a howl would have been raised about women voting "under the lash." It is to the credit of the People's Party that no such incidents occur among them, although it is laid to their charge that the women vote under coercion, a matter of impossibility under the present ballot act, except in such a case as the one in point.

Ladies' Work.—On Saturday a meeting was held at Sandy, Bishop's Counselor Andrew Olsen Geltea presiding, for the purpose of organizing a Relief Society. The object was effected by Elder Geltea, assisted by Sister E. R. Snow Smith, the following officers being chosen: President, Mrs. Wilhelmina Olsen; Counselors, Mrs. H. Wilson and Mrs. C. Lewis; Secretary, Mrs. Maria E. Neff; Asst. Secretary, Mrs. Matilda Christofferson; Treasurer, Mrs. Ingre Geltea. Twenty members were enrolled.

In the afternoon a Primary Association was organized, Sister E. R. B. Smith presiding at the meeting, Mrs. M. I. Horne and Mrs. E. B. Wells were also present and took part in the proceedings. The officers selected are: President, Miss Maria Lewis; Counselors, Misses Annie Ostler and Maggie Olsen; Secretary, Joseph Maginnis; Asst. Secretary, James Osterman; Treasurer, Miss Mary Jane Lewis. The names of thirty-five members were enrolled, with more to come.

A Contemptible Fraud.—An organized and bare-faced fraud was attempted by the "Liberals" at some of not all the polling places in the city to-day. Telegrams from other parts developed the fact that the same trick was being perpetrated in other parts of the Territory. As this indicated a preconceived plot, telegrams were sent to every place that could be reached by the wires, warning the electors of the People's Party to beware of the unscrupulous deception.

The "Liberal" ticket, printed on thin paper, was of such a size as to admit it nicely into the usual envelope without folding. The trick consisted in "Liberals" placing these tickets inside the envelopes and, under the pretense of being in the interest of the People's Party, handing these stuffed envelopes to electors on the way to and at the polls. The People's ticket inserted subsequently by the voter made two ballots in one envelope, one of both of which would, by the judges, in his canvass, be thrown out. In this city the fraud was detected in the early part of the day, posters were placed at the polls advising the electors to examine the envelopes, and a close scrutiny maintained, so as to prevent the prevalence of the villainous trickery. To what extent it obtained in other parts we are not enabled to state.

Thieves in Ogden.—Ogden is having its share of depredations as well as this city. The Herald of that town tells the following:

On the night of Saturday last, the residence of W. P. P. St. Clair, agent of the U. P. R. Co., was visited by burglars, who effected their felonious entrance through a front window, ransacked the premises, and escaped through the rear door, their plunder consisted of about $200 in cash and a gold watch and chain. It appears that the same parties had paid a similar visit to the residence of Mr. Barnum, on 6th street, where they abstracted a quantity of valuable clothing. A portion of this was found, early on Sunday morning, by Mr. Alma Gibson, on Franklin Street, near Fourth, and this gentleman gave the alarm. Mr. St. Clair notified the police authorities, who after considerable search succeeded in capturing two individuals against whom there is said to be conclusive evidence.

Late in the night Mr. C. W. Peck, of Gentile Valley, was on his way to the Chamberlain House, on Fifth Street, and was passing by the Globe Hotel on the corner of that and Young streets, when he felt himself suddenly surprised by a vigorous blow or two skillfully and powerfully directed in his face and on his head. He was stunned and fell unconscious to the ground. When he "came to himself" he not only found himself bleeding from his bruised forehead and cut lip, but also robbed of all the money and valuables he had on his person, about $235 in cash and several checks.

DARING ROBBERY.

A MAN KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED ALMOST IN THE GLARE OF THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

On Sunday night, as James Lawson, Jr., was passing down First West Street, almost directly opposite the Continental Hotel, he was suddenly attacked by two men. One of them felled him to the ground by a couple of tremendous blows, and when prostrate upon the sidewalk the other searched his pockets, taking all the loose change on his person and his watch and chain. Not content with this they even took his hat and necktie, and fled.

Frank Tilford, formerly an attorney in this city, has been elected to the State Legislature of Colorado.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 8.

Sailed.—By telegram to President Taylor from James H. Hart, Esq., we learn that Apostle John Henry Smith and Elder William Groesbeck sailed from New York for Liverpool, yesterday.

Document Found.—Yesterday a gentleman picked up the certificate of the declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, of Peter Erickson. He can yet the document on calling at this office.

Slight Earthquake.—About six o'clock last night many persons in this city state that they distinctly felt an earthquake shock, the vibration lasting about twenty seconds and moving in a northerly direction. It is a coincidence that at or about the same time shocks were felt along the line of the Union Pacific Railroad, so the dispatches state, at Cheyenne and Laramie; also at Denver.

Partially Restored.—Two or three months since a man named Robert Hall had one of his eyes injured while at work at the railroad depot. He had lost the other optical organ by previous accident, and the result of the last hurt was total blindness. A week or two since, however, he was operated upon by Dr. Benedict assisted by Dr. R. B. Pratt. The result is that Mr. Hall has partially regained the use of sight the injured eye, being able to recognize acquaintances at a distance of a few feet away from him.

New Pamphlet.—We have received a pamphlet of 52 pages, just issued from the Juvenile Instructor office, from the pen of Sister Helen Mar Whitney. It is entitled "Plural Marriage, as Taught by the Prophet Joseph," a reply to Joseph Smith, editor of the Laramie (Iowa) Herald. The reasoning of the author is good, and the little book contains much valuable information, not only on the subject indicated in the title, but some others as well.

Knocked Down.—On Monday evening, a Mr. Richard Kearsley, the mailing clerk in the Herald office, was standing on corner of Main and Fourth Streets conversing with Justice Middleton, a team came along at a lively gait, which was unobserved by the parties, and the shafts of the vehicle struck Mr. Kearsley in the back, knocked him down, bruised his head and face, and injured him somewhat internally.

The old gentleman was lifted up, a vehicle was procured, and he was taken to his residence, where proper attention was given to him. Mr. Kearsley is over 70 years of age.—Ogden Herald.

Engaged by Haverly.—We learn that Mr. Haverly, the celebrated theatrical manager, has engaged both the temples of the drama in this city—Salt Lake Theatre and Walker Opera House—for three years, for the purpose of presenting his specialties here during that period. In consequence of this arrangement all the companies from a distance that will play here will make arrangements to do so with him. By an understanding with him local companies will be enabled to play at the Salt Lake Theatre by giving Mr. Haverly's agent notice ten days ahead of an intention to put a play upon the boards.

Haverly's specialties will appear alternately at the Salt Lake Theatre and the Opera House.

The Voting.—The voting in this city was conducted, as a rule, decently and in order, with but little exception. In the First Precinct, however, the electors were unnecessarily kept out in the cold when they might as well have been inside the building. They were obliged to crowd around the windows at the north side of the school house, and were delayed by useless quibbling on the part of one or two of the judges, who in some instances compelled the voters to spell their names, when there was no apparent room for doubt as to identity. There was also an occasional tendency to be unpleasant at the Court House. At the other precincts everything passed off agreeably. Owing to the closeness with which the proceedings were watched the trick resorted to by some of the "Liberals" in stuffing envelopes with Van Zile tickets and passing them off for empty ones did not succeed.

Serious Accident.—Yesterday Mr. David James met with a serious accident. He was driving up West Temple Street on his way to the railroad depot in a two-wheeled conveyance, when his horse stumbled. George Sims, who was also in the vehicle, jumped out and escaped unhurt, but Mr. James was not so fortunate. The severe jolt threw him out. He struck upon his head and turned over upon his face. He was assisted to his feet, and although he walked to his home in the Seventh Ward, he did so mechanically, being in a dazed or semi-unconscious condition, and remained in that situation for over two hours. He attempted to come out this morning, but felt so ill that he had to remain confined to his room. There is a bad bruise on his head, and the side of the face is slightly injured. He will probably be all right again in a few days.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 9.

Getting Well.—We are pleased to learn that Judge Elias Smith is recovering from the effects of an accidental fall he had last Friday. No bones were broken but his system sustained a severe shock.

The Price.—The price of Sister Helen Mar Whitney's excellent pamphlet on "Plural Marriage," mentioned in yesterday's News is ten cents. Copies can be obtained at the Instructor and Exponent offices and from H. K. Whitney.

A Burglary Failure.—At a late hour last night some persons were heard attempting to force an entrance to the house of Brother Chas. Hyde, Seventh Ward, by one of the windows. Charles Hyde, Jr., went promptly out to interview the interlopers, when they scampered off at a lively rate and escaped in the darkness.

A "Respected Lady."—We have from Brother W. H. Stott, of Moroni, the details of a birthday entertainment given on Nov. 2d, to Sister Jane Prestwick, on the completion of the sixty-fifth year of her age. The guests were mostly the relatives of the respected lady, and the occasion was one of genuine social enjoyment.

Foiled Again.—Last night the house of Mr. John Hepworth, on the lower part of East Temple Street, was entered by burglars, who after getting in opened the doors so as to provide egress in case of emergency. Mr. Hepworth was awakened on hearing them rummaging about. Thinking it was his daughters he called out and enquired what they were doing up and about at such an unseemly hour. The girls in turn thought it was their brother and spoke, thinking they were addressing him. While this colloquial battery was being fired the burglars rushed out of the house and escaped. The police were communicated with, but of course nothing could be done, by way of arresting the thieves. Luckily the scoundrels were interrupted too early to enable them to carry anything away.

RATIFICATION AT GRANTSVILLE.

GRANTSVILLE, Nov. 4, 1882.

A political meeting was held here last evening, Hon. F. M. Lyman, chairman, and Wm. Jefferies, secretary.

Hon. J. T. Caine, S. R. Thurman, F. S. Richards, Warren N. Dusenberry and James Sharp, addressed the large assembly. Their speeches were argumentative, historical, anecdotal, patriotic, earnest and soul-stirring. The liberal platform of the People's Party was ably contrasted with the illiberal platform of the "Liberal" party, greatly to the disadvantage of the latter, and to the eternal disgrace of its originators and advocates. The People's platform was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted. The action of the convention in nominating Hon. J. T. Caine as our Delegate to Congress was ratified with unanimity and cheers. The Grantsville brass band, led by Prof. J. Ratcliffe, discoursed inspiring and patriotic music. The entire proceedings was spirited and good, and of that broad and liberal character which will confer benefits upon home, country and the whole human race, blessing friend and foe alike in their operation; and no man will have the ghost of a chance here, to be elected as Delegate to Congress on the 7th of November, but the Hon. John T. Caine. JEFFERIES.

NO WAR ON "MORMONISM."

The Philadelphia American has the following to say in regard to the Utah Commissioners and the intent of Congress with regard to the "Mormons":

"The Commissioners have been effecting a registration of voters in accordance with the new law. The officers they selected are in part monogamous Mormons, and not exclusively Gentiles. This we think eminently wise. It emphasizes the principle on which we always have insisted, that the National Government has no more intention of suppressing Mormonism than of putting down any other sect. It wages war upon polygamy only. Under the iron-clad oath prescribed by the Commissioners, the registration has excluded polygamy quite effectually. This does not give the Territory into the hands of the Gentiles, by any means. A great number of Mormons, estimated by some as high as twenty-five thousand, are polygamists, and as such can neither vote nor hold office under the new law. But a still larger number probably a majority of the population of the Territory, are not polygamous, and the Mormons are confident that these will carry the day."

The American talks good sense on this point. It touches upon another connected with the "Mormon" question, which we will produce with comments at another time.

Vast merit is inherent in St. Jacobs Oil, and we heartily recommend it to our readers.—Chicago (Ill.) Western Catholic.

The New York Evening Telegram says: Tony Pastor was cured of rheumatic pains by St. Jacobs Oil. He praises its efficacy.
