

Halloween has furnished its quota to the social events of the week, though the number of functions tinged with the mysteries of the occasion have been fewer than those of any past year. A number of weddings of interest have taken place and there have been some charming home functions in the way of receptions, card-parties, etc.

A delightful event of the week was the afternoon party given by Mrs. Joseph J. Daynes and Mrs. H. T. McEwan at the residence of the former on Tuesday. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the parlor in pink roses and amilies, the library in pink and white cosmos, the dining room in yellow and white chrysanthemums and nasturtiums, and the large reception room in red salvia. During the afternoon Mrs. Ida Snow and Mrs. Lewis Hills rendered vocal solos, and Mrs. Barker recited. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Joseph Sharp and Miss Stella Daynes. The guests were: Mrs. Fred Scarff, Mrs. Chas. Hyde, Mrs. Jos. Geoghegan, Mrs. Henry Parker, Mrs. Jos. Swenson, Mrs. Mary R. Moss, Mrs. Chas. Lamborne, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Chas. Lamborne, Mrs. C. B. Stewart, Mrs. V. L. Romney, Mrs. George Romney, Mrs. D. Romney, Mrs. Miss A. Romney, Mrs. John Sharp, Mrs. Joseph Sharp, Mrs. J. C. Sharp, Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Margaret Sharp, Miss Leslie Daynes, Mrs. Louis Hills, Mrs. Geo. D. Pyper, Mrs. Nelson Emory, Mrs. Maria Y. Douglass, Mrs. John McDonald, Miss Ella McDonald, Mrs. Frank Margretts, Mrs. George Margretts, Mrs. J. G. McDonald, Mrs. Emma Woodruff, Mrs. Abigail Woodruff, Mrs. A. C. Beebe, Mrs. Henry McKean, Mrs. Jesse Knight (of Provo), Mrs. James Murdoch, Mrs. D. L. Murdoch, Mrs. H. E. McKaig, Mrs. Dr. Leslie Snow, Mrs. Nell Young, Mrs. L. G. Hardy, Mrs. T. Marshall, Miss Aggie Campbell, Miss Annie Campbell, Mrs. Atwood, Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Frank Y. Taylor, Mrs. Geo. M. Cannon, Mrs. Leslie Snow, Mrs. Nell Young, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Julia Taylor, Mrs. Reuben Clark, Mrs. A. B. Richardson, Mrs. William Brothers, Mrs. Steve Richards, Mrs. Jos. Wells.

Mrs. Hyde Daynes entertained at cards on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Baer and Miss Maxon. The rooms were prettily decorated with cosmos and chrysanthemums, and the score cards and tallies were decorated with original designs of figures and heads in Gibson style—the handwork of the host. Among the guests were: Mrs. Baer, Miss Maxon, Mrs. La. Mott, Mrs. E. Carpenter, Mrs. Frank Stephens, Madame and Mrs. P. Poutz, Mrs. Fisher Harris, Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. E. W. Whitney, Mrs. Mont Perry, Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mrs. William King, Mrs. Hurst, Mrs. Ed. Perry, Mrs. Charles Brink, Mrs. Melvin Sowles, Jr., Mrs. H. P. Henderson, Mrs. Steiner, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. E. D. Woodruff, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Claudia Morris, Miss Gibson, Miss Stephenson, Miss Luce, Miss Myrtle Fowler, Miss Reynolds, and the Misses Dorn and Parker.

It will be welcome news to the many friends of the Opera club that the organization is to continue its regular socials and dancing parties during the winter season. The first one was given last Tuesday evening, in the Ladies' Literary club, in the form of an informal reception to members and a few invited guests. The first part of the evening was spent in playing sixty-three, prizes being awarded to Miss Opal Hicks, Miss M. Perry, Judge Alex McMaster and Mr. R. W. Brady. The party was then favored with two piano solos by Miss Elsie May Angel. Light refreshments were served in the lower rooms, while the tables and chairs were cleared from the upper floor, after which dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey entertained at an elaborate tea, her mother Mrs. Austin receiving with her. The parlors were decorated in pink with cosmos used in profusion, the sitting room with yellow chrysanthemums, the library with red daisies and the dining room with an artistic scheme in American beauty color, the room with lamps and candles shaded in red, and a large basket of grapes tied with bows in American beauty color, making an effective decoration. Olsen's orchestra provided delightful music. Mrs. W. C. Jennings and Mrs. T. B. Beattie assisted in receiving. Mrs. Tracy and Mrs. Iglehart served tea and coffee in the dining room. About 200 guests were present during the afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. Maclean and Mrs. C. S. Vagner entertained at a large reception on Tuesday afternoon from 2 till 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Vagner. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, vines and cosmos, the parlor in red, the lunch room in white, the dining room in pink, with cosmos, ribbon and shades in the prevailing color, and the hall wholly in green with vines and fen, Nettie Thompson, Jane Johnston, Roy Doe, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Thompson, Zabranksie Richards, May Merrill, David Larson and others.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neill entertained at dinner at the Alta club on Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Neill of the Neill company. The tables were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and amilies and covers were laid for nine. Present besides the host and hostess and guests of honor, were Miss Violet Neill, Miss Forbes, Mr. Edwin Neill, Mr. Benner X. Smith and Mr. Weed of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir entertained at a musicale last night at their residence on East South Temple street, about 200 guests being present. The doors connecting the parlors, library, dining room and reception hall were thrown open, making one apartment, the musicale being given in the large reception hall. The house throughout was decorated with chrysanthemums and plumosa, and refreshments were served in the large hall on the third floor. The program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Charles G. Plumb.

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S SOCIAL SECRETARY.

MISS ISABELLE HAGNER.

Miss Isabelle Hagner, who has been appointed social secretary of the wife of the President, has no light position to fill. Besides attending to all the large private correspondence she will supervise the details of all the state functions. Miss Alice Roosevelt's debut will be under her directions.

JAY GOULD'S SON TO MARRY MISS KELLY NEXT SPRING.

MISS HELEN KELLY.

FRANK J. GOULD.

Much interest is manifested in the engagement of Frank J. Gould, son of the late Jay Gould, and brother of Miss Helen Gould, to Miss Helen Kelly, the daughter of the late Edward Kelly, who was well known in American yachting circles. The date of the wedding will be announced on the eighteenth birthday of Miss Kelly.

the refreshments being entirely German. The rooms were decorated with an abundance of cosmos, and guessing contests were features of the event. On Monday the prizes were won by Mrs. S. L. Boggs and Mrs. Thos. Williams, and on Tuesday by Mrs. H. C. Wallace and Mrs. Geo. A. Lowe.

A very pleasant Halloween party was given Wednesday evening by Miss Nettie and J. Leo Fairbanks at their home on Eleventh East street. Informality was the leading feature. Among those present were: Nettie Fairbanks, J. Leo Fairbanks, Vernon Fairbanks, Tessie Garn, Alice Richards, Claude Richards, Mina Taylor, Jennie Taylor, Zetta Hamer, Mrs. Percy Somers-Cocks, and Miss Edna Dwyer, a violin solo by Mr. Skelton and a selection by the Y. M. C. A. quartet. Christensen's orchestra rendered music during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Weir were assisted by Mrs. J. E. Dooley, Mrs. Hal Brown, Mrs. F. A. Vincent, Mrs. H. Q. Macmillan, Mrs. John Delano, Mrs. William Wightman, Mrs. Gill Peyton, Mrs. A. Boxrud, Mrs. William Iglehart, Mrs. L. C. Miller.

Mrs. J. T. Donnellan was the hostess at a delightful function on Thursday in the nature of a rose luncheon, followed by a eucire contest, in honor of Mrs. Corfield, of England. The decorations, chrysanthemums and violets. Those present were Mesdames Al Ensign, Buelah Fields and J. E. Hansen, the Misses Aften Young, Jasmine Young, Lena Preston, Kate Kanter, Laura Sanders, Mamie Porter, Hattie Jennings, Catherine Cuimer.

On Wednesday evening Mr. V. V. Morris entertained a party of friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Sanders, Jr. The guests were: Misses Emma, Nora and Margaret Thornerberg, Anna Murray and Messrs. Barry, of Ogden and George Dwyer of Salt Lake.

On Monday Mrs. Victor Clement, Mrs. J. R. Walker and Miss Emily Read

BEAUTIFUL OGDEN HOMES.

RESIDENCE OF JAMES H. SPARGO.

The home pictured above is that of James H. Spargo, proprietor of the Spargo book and stationery store, and one of Ogden's substantial business men. The home is situated at 548 Twenty-fifth street, an admirable location. It was erected about twelve years ago and is built of pressed brick with sandstone trimmings. The interior contains ten rooms and a conservatory and the appointments of the house are convenient as well as artistic. On the lower floor is a vestibule at the right of which is the spacious parlor and the conservatory. Also the dining room, sitting room, library and kitchen and a china closet. On the second floor there are five commodious bed rooms and a bath room. There is a large basement utilized for a furnace room, laundry room, etc. The house is lighted with electricity and heated with hot air, and is furnished with elegance and good taste. The attractiveness of the home begins on the outside, where the well kept lawn, flower gardens, evergreens, creepers and overhanging vines serve to make the surroundings as beautiful as any in the city.

entertained at luncheon at the Alta club in honor of Miss Younger. The table was laid in the red room and was decorated with chrysanthemums, asparagus, plumosa and maiden hair fern. The guests were Miss Younger, Mrs. Ferry, Mrs. Fyler, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. David Murray and Mrs. Burns MacDonald.

Mrs. Hosmer will entertain next week at the Alta club.

Mrs. S. B. Milner will entertain next week in honor of Mrs. Corfield, of England.

The P. E. O.'s will give a Halloween party tonight at the home of Mrs. A. G. Andrews.

The Shakespeare class was entertained by Miss Ann M. Cannon this week.

Miss Ruth Winter has gone east.

Mrs. E. J. Jolly and Miss Stewart leave tomorrow for California.

Miss Bradstreet was the guest of the Misses Leonard during the week on her way from the coast to her home in Maine.

The Trousseau club met with Mrs. Joseph Richards on Wednesday.

Mrs. S. S. Walker and Miss Nellie Walker are visiting Mrs. Walter Lewis in Butte.

Miss Ada May Hartwell and Mr. Frank McCarthy were married on Monday, Rev. Frank Barnett officiating. Miss Ida Hartwell, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Mr. Dee Smith best man. Light refreshments were served after the ceremony, and later the newly married couple left for Wyoming, where they will make their home.

Mrs. J. W. Neill and Miss Neill have returned from California.

Mrs. Geo. A. Lowe and Miss Lowe have returned from their eastern trip.

Miss Vera Cannon entertained informally Thursday evening at a Chaffin Dish party.

Mrs. H. P. Henderson will entertain next Thursday in honor of her niece Miss Reynolds.

Miss Christine Kanter will leave shortly for New York, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing leaves shortly for a month's visit in the East.

Among the pleasant Halloween parties was that given in St. Mark's school house by the Young Ladies' Guild of St. Peter's mission. Games, fortune-telling and a candy booth furnished the pleasure of the evening.

Miss Josephine Clawson was the hostess at a pleasant Halloween party on Thursday evening.

Among a number of delightful children's parties given on Halloween night were those of Miss Rhea Rogers and Marcus McCune, the evening being spent with amusing games appropriate to the occasion.

Miss Drake, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. La Farge, leaves tomorrow for her home in Illinois.

Mrs. Hector Baxter of Minneapolis is the guest of Mrs. C. W. Bennett.

Mrs. Olive Gaylord and Mrs. C. H. Sebree left on Friday for an eastern trip. C. H. Sebree and mother, Mrs. Howard Sebree, will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. A. Gibson leaves shortly for a trip to Honolulu and Japan.

Miss Ethel Paul entertained the Pan-Hellenic society on Thursday.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

One of the pleasurable events of the week was a farewell party given at the home of William Critchlow in honor of his sons John Q. and Benjamin and Mrs. Hattie Jensen, on the evening of Monday, October 28th. The evening was one of much pleasure and long to be remembered by those present. The evening was spent with vocal and instrumental music, impromptu speeches, etc., after which a sumptuous spread was enjoyed. Mr. John Q. Critchlow left Tuesday for Peru, South America, where he goes as expert accountant, and to look after some mining interests of Hon. A. W. McCune, of Salt Lake. He will accompany eight other gentlemen to the scene of their labors. Mrs. Hattie Jensen accompanied her brother around by Portland, Oregon to San Francisco, where she will visit with friends for a short time. Benjamin Critchlow, left Wednesday for England where he goes to do missionary work.

Prof. H. S. Goddard was in Ogden this week on business and pleasure.

Dr. E. C. Rich was a Park Valley visitor this week on business.

Mrs. Ashby Stringham, one of Ogden's popular and charming ladies, daughter of Mrs. Richard Douglass, was married Tuesday evening to Richard Weatherby, of Butte, Mont. Rev. William E. Malson, officiating. The wedding was a quiet one. Mr. and Mrs. Weatherby left this week for Butte, where they will make their future home. Mr. Weatherby is a well known business man of Butte.

Mrs. Thomas E. Fitzgerald left Tuesday evening for New York City where she has gone to spend several weeks with relatives and friends.

The home of Hon. F. J. Hendershot was the scene of a very delightful party Tuesday evening, given by Mr. Hendershot to his many friends. The home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful cut flowers and potted plants. The evening was very pleasantly spent in vocal and instrumental music, short speeches, etc. Miss Nellie Hendershot charmed the gathering with some beautiful solos. During the evening the guests were invited into the spacious dining room, where tables were spread with a most sumptuous repast. The guests departed at a late hour pronouncing the evening one of great enjoyment.

Mrs. W. W. Wells, of Payette, Idaho, is visiting with friends in Ogden.

Mrs. J. W. Guesford, of Winnemucca, Nevada, was spending the week in Ogden visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCray of Salt Lake gave in Ogden this week visiting with friends.

Miss Clara E. Hadlock and Mr. Chas. S. Braer, both of this city, were married this week.

The order of the Pioneers of the Pacific gave a delightful card party Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles Welch left Ogden Wednesday for Nevada and California to spend a month with relatives and friends.

William Shill and Miss Hattie Stanford, both of Salt Lake City were married in this city Wednesday Oct. 30.

One of the social events of the week was the Harvest Home festival given Thursday evening in the Methodist church under the auspices of the Epworth League. During the latter part of the afternoon a supper was served in the hall and in the evening a fine musical and literary program was rendered. The festival was largely attended and enjoyed by all.

The Ladies' Presbyterian Aid society was entertained Friday afternoon at the pretty home of Mrs. A. M. Hunter on north Washington avenue. A pleasant afternoon was spent in music, social chat, etc.

A pleasant card party was given by the A. O. U. W. Wednesday evening in their hall on Washington avenue.

A Halloween social was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. W. C. Weaver, at her elegant home, No. 1622 Fourth street, to the young people of the Presbyterian church and their friends. The evening was delightfully spent at music, games, etc., after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Thomas H. Carr entertained the Rathbone Sisters Friday afternoon in her usual delightful way.

Thursday morning two very popular Salt Lake people giving their names as J. Robert Hawley and Miss Laura Crocker, came to Ogden and secured a marriage license and were married by Rev. Goshus, of the Congregational church.

The ladies of the Macabees Ogden Hive 5, gave a pleasant card party in the K. of P. hall Wednesday evening which was largely attended. After cards refreshments were served.

The entertainment given in the Tabernacle Monday evening under the auspices of the Weber Stake Relief Society,

MISS EDYTHE PATTEN.

Miss Edythe Patten, the bride to be, has long been a favorite in White House and diplomatic circles, where she is known as "one of the pretty Patten girls." Her marriage with the general who is her senior by five or six years, is a genuine love-match.

WHERE THE WEDDING WILL TAKE PLACE.

The ceremony will be performed at the bride's home on Massachusetts avenue, Washington, D. C. Five thousand invitations have been issued; Cardinal Gibbons will officiate.

MAJOR GENERAL HENRY C. CORBIN.

On account of the high rank of Major-General Corbin there will be a big assemblage of high officers in the army, navy and also the diplomatic corps.