LOCAL BRIEFS.

M. J. O'Meara is expected to arrive home from New York tomorrow.

Harvey D. Trenam, superintendent of the Beaver Cone mine in Beaver county, is in the city.

There will be a meeting of the principals of the city schools this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

District Attorney Elchorn returned last evening from Tooele, where he has been attending court.

The infant daughter of H. S. Fernstrom, and granddaughter of the councilman, died last night. She was born Jan. 20 last.

Dennis McCarthy of Park City, who was injured in the J. I. C. mine Monday, is in a serious condition at the Holy Cross hospital.

The Vernal Express "learns from sources perfectly reliable" that the Moffat surveyors are 20 miles down the Bear River canyon.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Harriet E. Evans, will be held tomorrow, Thursday, at 1 p. m. from the Sixteenth ward meeting-house.

There is plenty of Rock Springs coal on the local market, most of it being from mine No. 1, though for general purposes No. 9 is considered the most satisfactory.

The Lacey House stock will be sold by trustee V. E. Hickey to the highest bidder, and bids will be opened Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in Judge Baldwin's office, Commercial block.

George O'Donnell who was arrested by the police on suspicion of having escaped yesterday afternoon, as he proved that he was not the man wanted.

The geological survey has presented the weather office in this city with 15 finely engraved plates showing elevations of hills and mountains all over the state. The elevations given are as close as 100 feet apart.

The construction department of the Independent Telephone company is completing the stringing of cables on the east side, but cannot lay any more underground until a further supply arrives from Rochester, N. Y.

Grant Hampton is the new assistant secretary and treasurer of the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, succeeding Mr. Snow, who retired to go into other business. Mr. Hampton has been with the company since 1887.

Ross Moore was held by Judge Dichi yesterday afternoon, on charge of vagrancy and using abusive language. He and Carl Larsen had been arrested for beating up an old man named Iver Wilson who was distributing valentines. Carl escaped with a lecture.

Dr. J. K. W. Bracken of Las Vegas, Nev., corroborates the recent statement of Engineer H. M. McCartney that the reports wired to eastern papers from about many bodies of perished tie-men travelers being found on the Nevada desert are mere exaggerations.

State Supt. of Schools Nelson returned today from a ten days' trip in the east. He visited schools on route at Denver, Kansas City and Topeka, and while at St. Louis, he looked over the school exhibits of the various states at the World's Fair, with a view to preparing an exhibit for this state.

Deputy Sheriff Steele returned from Ogden yesterday having in charge G. F. Hammer, who is wanted here upon the charge of burglary. Hammer burglarized a blacksmith shop in Sugar House ward about two years ago and carried away about $25 worth of tools. It is believed that he will plead guilty.

Secretary Harris of the Commercial club has sent a letter and a telegram to Prof. F. H. M. McCartney, offering the good offices of the club in securing for Salt Lake City the location of the western headquarters of the arid land reclamation bureau. This will mean a good deal for this city, including the disbursement of much money.

Mayor Morris has approved a number of matters passed upon by the council Monday night, among them being the report of the finance committee denying the claim of Chief Devine for $748 for services as inspector of street lighting. The other matters approved were the placing of several new arc lights and the grading of certain streets in the city.

Albert W. Burtch, formerly a rookie in the Salvation army of this city, and "booted" for the good of the service, was arrested in Denver yesterday for forgery and a number of other crimes. He has been living with a 17-year-old girl as his wife, and says he has another better half in Salt Lake. Burtch served several months in the Salt Lake county jail for robbing a till on Commercial street.

The funeral of W. J. De Armond of Monroe and father of the wife of Judge C. W. Morse of this city, was held yesterday afternoon from the Morse residence in this city, with interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Revs. D. C. Holmquist and H. W. Brown of the Methodist church officiated. The deceased came to this territory in 1889, and after living in Salt Lake for several years removed to Monroe where he died at the age of 57.

Bishop D. H. Moore of the Methodist church, and formerly chancellor of Denver university, was on the passenger steamer Albatross which was captured by the Japanese. The bishop has visited in Salt Lake many times, and preached the dedication sermon in the local Scandinavian Methodist church, his theme being "Most of the people of Egyptian general." Bishop Moore is at present in charge of Methodist missionary work in China, Japan and Korea.

There will be civil service examinations in this city, March 2, for the position of mechanical draftsman in the ordinance department at large, at $1,200 per annum, also, for the position of miscellaneous computer in the United States naval observatory at $900 to $1,000 per annum. On March 8 for the position of assistant geologist on the geological survey at $1,500 to $2,000 per annum; and for aid in the division of birds' eggs, national museum, at $540 per annum.

There was a pleasant presentation yesterday afternoon at the offices of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company. Retiring Superintendent H. O. Jackson was presented with a solid gold watch and chain, and the best wishes of the employees of the company. On one side of the watch are 12 diamonds, and on the other the legend, "To H. O. Jackson from the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone employees, 1904." H. M. Pennington made the presentation speech, and Mr. Jackson replied as suitably as he could, though he could not express more than his thanks, as he was taken entirely by surprise.

Secy. Beatty of the state board of health has given City Chemist Hanna a batch of additional patent medicines for analysis, which he selected at random from the shelves of Salt Lake druggists. The doctor will present the results of these analyses before the coming spring meeting of the state board of health at Washington with a view to securing united action in prosecuting the manufacturers of injurious stuff. One widely and persistently advertised "remedy" for rheumatism is found to be 47 per cent pure alcohol. Dr. Beatty believes that when the public is posted by the action of the national authorities at Washington, there will be a strong reaction against all patent medicine fakes.

MISSIONARY REUNION.

Pacific Islands Elders to Enjoy Entertainment in Granite Stake Tabernacle.

The fourth midwinter reunion of the Pacific Islands missionaries residing in the Salt Lake, Granite and Jordan stakes will be held in the new Granite stake tabernacle tomorrow night. The entertainment arrangements have been made with the street car company to run cars from Main street to the meeting-house every 15 minutes between 7:15 and 8 p. m. The committee in charge of the evening's entertainment wishes it announced that it is possible that there are some who are directly interested in the reunion who have been overlooked in the matter of invitations. Those who wish to be included in that it is a pure oversight and any connected with the mission will be welcomed at the door by the committee. A splendid program has been outlined for the entertainment and a jolly good time is assured. The expense of the entertainment will be paid out of the fund created by the selling of last season. Following the program, in which members of the First and Second wards take part, there will be an old-time social party, permitting those present to become better acquainted with one another. Beesley's orchestra will be in attendance.
