Elgin Creamery company was organized January 1st, 1900, with the defendant, George McCarroll, president and general manager, and the defendant A. J. Vorse, secretary and treasurer. Of the 1,300 shares of stock issued and outstanding relability away he is owner of standing, plaintiff says he is owner of standing, plaintiff says he is owner of 750 shares. The board of directors consists of the defendants McCarroll ad Vorse, plaintiff, A. L. Hoppaugh and George G. Armstrong. Hoppaugh, the complaint alleges, is the confidential friend and legal adviser of McCarroll and Vorse, and entirely devoted to their interests. It is further ret out that Hoppaugh is the holder of one share of stock and a member of the board simply for the purpose of ensuring the simply for the purpose of ensuring the control thereof by and in the interest of McCarroll and Vorse. It is then alleged that the two latter sentiemen. who are owners of 1,500 shares of stock have so uniformly and persistently nanaged the affairs of the corporation terests and to lead plaintiff to believe that his stock, which plaintiff values at $7,500, is almost valueless.

The complaint then goes on to recite that the business of the corporationviz: the supplying at retail of milk and other dairy products to the citizens of Salt Lake-'is a legitimate and profit-able one, and if properly, honestly and lawfully managed, will yield substantia dividends to the stockholders. The fol-lowing instances of alleged fraudulent acts and omissions on the part of Mc-Carroll and Vorse are set out:

"A credit to the Eigin Dalry company (a partnership consisting of said Mc-Carroll and Vorse) of $197.44, for freight charges paid on certain bottles belongng to said partners on December 4th.

A credit to Eigin Dairy company of nachinery belonging to said partner-A credit to the Elgin Dairy company on account of $343 for moneys paid out to certain persons for the digging

Thomas Earl Gets on a Spree and Thinks that His Little Girl is Dead.

T. Earl, an old veteran, who was wounded at Gettysburg, got on a tear yesterday and kept it up until a late hour last night. When arrested he was about the wildest specelmen of humanity ever seen. He gave his name as "Wild Tom," and was looked up on the charge of drunkenness. Early this morning he began crying about his little seven-years-old girl whom he said died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. When Jailor Kimball opened the bas-tile this morning Earl fell on his knees to him and begged the jailor to return his child to him and let him bury it. He insisted that when he came in town yesterday he had his dead child with him and was going to bury it. He said that when he was arrested the officers took the child away from him. Later he remembered that the child was in his room at the Clarence lodging house on First South. In court this afternoon he told Judge Timmony that he was not drunk, that he did not drink, and asked to be allowed to bury his little girl. Officer Simpson said that the man had no child with him but that he was very much intoxicated. that he was very much intoxicated. Officer Lincoln, however, declares that earlier in the evening and that he had to all appearances a dead child in his arms wrapped in a quilt. Earl was allowed to go, and when he reached his room said that his child was not there, but insisted that she was dead and that the officers took her away from him. He said he thought he was arrested for not securing a burial permit. The officers are of the opinion that he is a candidate for the institution for the insane at Provo.
