TIME OF HOLDING WARD MEETINGS.

As the Meetings in the Tabernacle are discontinued for the present, and the Meetings in the various Wards are held at different hours, we think it will be useful to our readers and the public generally, if we publish the time of holding the different Meetings on Sunday. We also include the home missionary appointments to the various Wards for the Sunday immediately following the appearance in the NEWS of this notice about the times of meeting.

THEATRE.—The performance last night was one of the best, if not the best, of the engagement of Mr. Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay acquitted himself creditably as "D'Artagnan," and the same may be said of Miss Walters, Miss Kent, and Messrs. Thorne, Graham, Margetts and Bowring, and others of the company. In the farce Messrs. Graham and Margetts filled the house, not with grief. After the play Mr. Lindsay, in answer to the call of the house, appeared before the curtain and briefly expressed his thanks.

This evening, the last of the engagement of Mr. Lindsay, will be presented the tragedy of "Othello," Mr. Lindsay as "Othello," Mr. Bates as "Iago," Miss Walters as "Emelia," Miss Kent as "Desdemona." Messrs. Graham, Thorne, Dudley, Maguire and Malben also appear.

The performance will conclude with the farce of the "Spectre Bridegroom," Mr. Margetts as "Diggory."

On Monday Professor Bosco in his illusions.

WILL PREACH.—Elder Joseph F. Smith will preach in the 8th Ward to-morrow evening. Meeting commences at 6 o'clock.

FROM WYOMING TERRITORY. — Mr. Morrison, Deputy Sheriff of Uintah County, Wyoming Territory, is in town, having arrived a few days ago armed with a requisition from the Governor of Wyoming for the arrest of one Sheppard, against whom there stands a charge of embezzlement. The Wyoming authorities had received information that Sheppard was in these parts and they sent Mr. Morrison after him. Mr. Morrison, accompanied by a son of Mr. R. J. McAllister, a Deputy Marshal, brought the prisoner to town yesterday evening, having caught him in one of the mining camps in the vicinity of Parley's Park.

THIRTEENTH WARD ASSEMBLY ROOMS.—Elder John Taylor will preach there to-morrow afternoon. Meeting commences at 1 o'clock.

[Per Deseret Telegraph.]

PAYSON, Dec. 13th, 8.45 p.m.—President Young and party reached here this p.m., all well. In the evening Elders L. D. Young, W. C. Staynes, E. F. Sheets and A. M. Musser addressed a large and attentive assemblage of the people, in the fine new meeting house, on the every day duties of life.

A MEETING of the Elders' Quorum will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the west wing of the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. They meet there the second and last Sunday evening of each month.

PIOCHE MATTERS.—Here is a dispatch from that place:

PIOCHE, 13.—The case of James Woods, charged with killing Wm. McCarthy, was investigated by the grand jury and the prisoner discharged.

There was an excursion yesterday on the Pioche and Bullionville R. R., around Spring Mountain. The road will be completed to Bullionville in January.

It is reported that rock assaying $3,500 per ton was struck yesterday in Pioche, in the Phoenix Mine.

The bullion shipments for the past three days, by Wells, Fargo & Co's express amounted to $118,905.

BRITISH MISSION.—We learn the following from the Millennial Star of November 12th:

A Conference was to be held in London, November 24th, at which President George A. Smith and party were expected to be present, the Elders from Utah in the British Isles were expected to be present on the occasion, so far as possible.

Elder Charles H. Wilcken, President of the Birmingham Conference, had completely recovered from the smallpox, and had resumed the duties of his appointment. Elder Erastus W. Snow, who had nursed him in his illness, had, so far escaped being attacked by the disease.

Elders John Bennion, Luke Syphus and Mark Burgess arrived from Utah Nov. 3rd on a visit to their relatives and friends, and were authorized to labor in the ministry as they might have opportunity and feel disposed.

LOOKS BAD.—In our Thursday's issue we stated that a case of alleged swindling or embezzlement would shortly come up in the Justice's Court for investigation, and that the defendent in the matter was a gentleman of some influence and standing in society, having come to this Territory bearing letters of recommendation and introduction from a number of influential men of the nation. The investigation was to come off before Justice Samuel W. Richards at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The defendant, both in person and by counsel, appeared at the time appointed, but no one appeared on the other side. Neither the person who made the affidavit charging the defendant with the grave crime, nor any of four other complaining witnesses who had been subpœned, was there. The Court was kept open one hour after the appointed time, when counsel for the defendant asked for the discharge of the latter, which of course was at once acceded to. The Court announced its intention to have the person who made the complaint and the other witnesses who had been subpœned brought before him and required to show cause why they should not be fined for contempt. Of course the Court could not do ot herwise, but if the case is as bad as it looks it is to be regretted that steps a great deal more stringent than that should not be taken. The defendant and his counsel are emphatic in asserting that the case was got up by the complainants for the express purpose of levying blackmail. We are, of course, not prepared to say definitely that such is positively the case, but there is no doubt whatever about appearances pointing very strongly in that direction.

It is very certain that a person who prefers so serious a charge against an individual as that of embezzlement, must either do so because he is convinced the party defendant is really guilty, or he must have some ulterior motive, and if that motive be the levying of blackmail, it is the complaining party himself who is the criminal, in fact the embezzler, whether he accomplishes his object or not, for it is the malice aforethought and intent which in reality constitutes the offence against the laws.

Whether or not the case in question was one connected for blackmailing purposes, one thing is certain, and that is, that blackmailing is one of the most cowardly, cold blooded systems of robbery ever resorted to by the cormorants of society, and the laws and the enforcement thereof cannot be too stringent on matters of that kind.

A COMPLETE SMASH.—Yesterday a man attached a span of horses to a wagon, on Third West Street, near the Utah Southern railroad, for the purpose of testing the animals. In crossing the track the horses baulked when the wagon was on the line. A freight train, with passenger car attached, backed from the North and the result was that the wagon was smashed into "smitherengs," the wood work being knocked into splinters. The passenger car also sustained some damage from the collision.

Late Arrivals.—Carl C. Asmussen has made a large addition to his already extensive stock of elegant Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, of Foreign and Domestic manufacture.

It is his intention to make such a display, during the approaching holidays, as to please the most fastidious. Call and examine his stock.—It is made up of the useful as well as the ornamental. He proposes to sell at cost.

Music Has Charms.—A person who called in the splendid Jewelry establishment of Theo. Hollander, amused that gentleman by the antics he cut, and the amusements exhibited while the proprietor undertook to show him some of the latest improvements in the adaptation of music.

The stranger was pointed to a chair, where he was no sooner seated than a lively tune struck up in the seat of the chair, which continued to play, while a ladies' work table, work box, dressing case, albums in great variety, gentlemen's dressing cases, cigar cases and numerous other things were exhibited, all exercising their full powers in making melody, and still the chair continued playing, until the occupant imagined himself a music box, when to relieve his bewilderment he grasped an elegant decanter, and would have taken a sly drink, but the mystic music exhibited its power, in cheering the inner man in another way than emitting the usual spirituous draught.

MORAL.—Gentlemen who do not wish their ladies to look "Oh! How Sweet!" "Buy It!" had better not call at Hollander's during the holidays.

We clip the following from a well known Boston paper—

J. ESTEY & COMPANY.—Every day the name of ESTEY is becoming more and more a familiar household word all over the land—and morning, noon and night, from thousands of happy firesides, sweet sounds of rarest melody float up to bless it. Having had occasion recently to visit Brattleboro, Vt., where the manufactories of J. ESTEY & Co. are situated, we took occasion to visit each of them. To our surprise we found four large buildings filled with workmen, and saw the marvelous strides modern skill and invention have made. We witnessed the working of one of the most perfect and complete systems of manufacture in the whole country, where the lumber and raw materials are taken in at one door, in building No. 1, passing through in regular order, until they come out at building No. 4, a most beautiful musical instrument — one which challenges uncompromising trial and criticism. A more delicious combination of sweetness, purity and power of tone can scarcely be conceived. The wonderful Vox Humana Tremolo touches the heart with an almost human instinct. The Vox Jubilante is a stop most effective and enchanting. The Sub Bass, Harmonic Attachment, and other improvements, are scientifically arranged into one grand whole. We might continue, but the truth is, the ESTEY ORGANS sing their own praises far more eloquently than any words of ours.—Vermont and Reflector.

We Direct attention to Mr. C. W. Stayner's advertisement in to-day's paper. He represents the Estey Organ, which is a well known, reliable instrument, and stands well recommended by a large number of patrons, among which are some of the most talented musicians in the United States. d20 1t
