city council to grant him a franchise to construct and maintain a steam or electric railway, with all switches, side-tracts, etc., that are desired by his company, along Tenth street, from south to north of said street. The franchise asked for is so sweeping that it does not only ask for the normal t does not only ask for the uncoudltional use of Tenth street, but is so worded that it would give him the use of all other streets. The council, how-ever, did not grant the franchise as asked for by Mr. Bamberger, and has taken the matter under advisement. The citizens are now wondering what privileges will be granted Mr but we hope it will not be to the extent of allowing him the use of a street for switch yards and a freight depot site.
