LOCAL BRIEFS.

The City Council meets tonight.

Night days more and the Legislature will be in session.

The board of education may now elect a new superintendent.

The cold winds of last evening and yesterday created havoc with sleighing and skating.

The handsome white stone residence of Hon. John Kearns will probably not be completed before spring.

These are days when every member of the Legislature is being overwhelmed by constituents for diverse places of trust.

Monday evening next Dr. Orson Howard of the University faculty will be in the Auditorium giving an lecture on "Facts and Pleasures in Natural History."

German residents of the city in the number of from 200 to 300 gathered at the German Club on Saturday evening last evening and enjoyed themselves with music, schaumkraut and social conversations.

A very enjoyable social was given in the First Ward meeting room of the Sunday school on Saturday evening of the Sunday school, with the Rev. Wm. W. Woodard as master of ceremonies. Wm. W. Woodard was succeeded by Wm. C. Johnson, who had the pleasure of introducing the Rev. Wm. W. Woodard.

A man who witnessed the sinking of Cerro Gordo's fleet in San Francisco spent yesterday in Salt Lake City en route to San Francisco. He was Thomas Holt, sailor on the U. S. S. "Baltimore" in 1861, and whose name he may have spent thirteen years in the service.

The board of control of the Utah Historical Society will meet this week to make arrangements for the inauguration of the new building which is to be erected at the annual gathering address will be delivered by Governor Wells, Gen. Maj. Gen. Frank Maynard.

The Italian sailing fleet yesterday was a big affair. A large number of Salt Lake sportsmen made the run over the short lane, leaving here at 6 a.m. and returning at 1 p.m. The race took two hours and a half later. In all 125 boats were slaughtered and brought to the city on the evening train and distributed among the public.

Walter D. Smith of the State Audit and State Board of Corrections has filed his financial report, together with statistics and reports of the various departments, for the year ending December 31, 1898. The document is an interesting one. It shows that there were in confinement December 31, 1898, 125 male and female inmates, 100 of whom were discharged during 1898, received 99 discharges, etc. There are now confined 110 male and 100 female persons.
The total value of personal property, which in round figures is $13,000, the improvements made for the year, the cost of food and clothing and recommendations for certain improvements.

The Young Men's Christian Association gave a most pleasant and interesting evening of its regular meetings yesterday at the First Ward church building last evening and yesterday afternoon.
The rooms were very prettily decorated with evergreens and white, Christmas music, general fraternizing and social converse characterized the meeting. The experiences of the members enriched those present by wheelbarrows, canes and other raves, while a number of handbills and posters in by Wm. M. Carter, McCar-ter, Putnam and others, counting in the two latter on a score of 150, were distributed throughout the city.
Wm. Jackson, Wm. Gethers and Prof. Augustus gave an outstanding performance in the shape of high kicking, horizontal and parallel bar work.

ter, Putnam & Co., was in town yesterday.

A. G. Glazier, Eng., of the board of education, who has been severely ill for some time past, has improved so that he was able to be in his office a short time today.

George O'Neill, general manager of the Utah Wagon & Machine company, arrived from the East yesterday, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Mary O'Neill, wife of the firm. He says he met with less than favorable fortune, and everywhere found them working over time. In fact, he says, he outlasted the men in the office, and when he left, they were the record breakers for 1898.
