LOCAL BRIEFS.

Louis Goldsmith, a traveling man and member of the local lodge of Elks in Denver yesterday, it is said, of hemorrhage.
 Miss Tillie Moore is recovering nicely from the operation for appendicitis, which she underwent at St. Mark's hospital on Thursday.
 James Farrell, the piano polisher, died at the county infirmary yesterday of intestinal typhoid. He was once a well known citizen of Boston, where it is said, he now has a family.
 Harry Adams, a miner of Hales, Idaho, who has been suffering with an injured leg at St. Mark's hospital for several weeks, had the affected limb amputated yesterday afternoon by Drs. Pinkerton and Worthington.
 Rabbi Reynolds addressed an interesting audience at the Jewish synagogue last evening on the theme, "Jesus of Nazareth: His Life and Personality." Next Friday evening the subject will be continued with "His Philosophy and Teachings."
 W. F. Arnold, attorney, 71 Central street, Lowell, Mass., is desirous of hearing from Charles and Jefferson Hale, or their descendants, sons of Mrs. Charles Hale, who are understood to have emigrated from Kenosha, Wisconsin, to Utah in 1858.
 1. Lepelt, a well known peddler, who operated in the county district, died suddenly of heart disease at St. Mark's hospital yesterday afternoon. He was a native of Russia and was born about 38 years ago. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge, under whose auspices he was buried from Watson's undertaking parlors, the time to be given later.
 Wasatch Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. M., held its annual election of officers last night. George H. Davis was chosen as worshipful master; Robert S. Connor, senior warden; Arthur Brown, junior warden; Herman Hill, treasurer; Arthur A. Love, secretary; Charles W. Morse, trustee for three years. On Friday evening there will be installation conducted by the officers of the grand lodge.
 The absolute fireproof character of the Deseret News building is well attested by the fact that the upper floors, which are not yet quite closed in, the men have open fires to work by. There is no possibility of danger from the fires as there is no wood in the building for it to be consumed by.
 The lower parts of the building are already heated by steam. The force of plasterers is now at work enclosing the court or light well, and in a few days the entire building will be closed up and rendered secure from any visitation of frost.

 The hack drivers, teamsters, leather makers and horse shoers' unions were admitted last night to membership in the Utah Federation of Labor. The federation now includes twenty trades' organizations, with over 2,000 men. The federation last night passed resolutions asking President Roosevelt to use his good offices in bringing to an end the war in South Africa, and thanking him for his efforts to have the Chinese immigration restricted. Letters were read from Senator Kearns and Congressman Sutherland nominating their support of the effort to have all United States navy vessels built at home navy yards, also a letter from the secretary of the navy acknowledging the receipt of a letter from the federation urging this policy.

SHOOTING SCRAPE AT PARK CITY.

Domestic Quarrel Terminates in Wounding Peace Maker.

DOYLE WAS BEATING WIFE.

Struggle Later for Possession of Gun—Pattoggin Shot Twice and Doyle's Wrist Shattered.

(Special to the "News.")
 Park City, Dec. 14.—In a scuffle for the possession of a revolver, which was held by Joe Doyle yesterday afternoon, three shots were fired, two bullets taking effect in the body of Pat Goggin, and the other wounding Joe Doyle in the wrist. Goggin is badly hurt, but will recover. After the shooting Doyle walked into Park City and gave himself up to the authorities.
 The trouble arose from the fact that on Thursday Doyle, who is the proprietor of the Half Way boarding house near the Anchor mine, on Thursday he said to have been beating his wife when the children rushed out to get help. Several of the boarders came to the rescue, and Doyle then went into the house, and taking some of his wife's money, went down to Park City and got drunk and then bought a gun and returned yesterday to hunt for the man who had interfered with the domestic quarrel. He seemed to have a particular grudge against Pat Goggin, who he had met at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. When he arrived Doyle said that he wanted to see him outside. Goggin, however, stated that he had no secrets from anyone and told Doyle that he could talk right in the house. At this Doyle said that he would talk all right, and proceeded to draw a gun. Goggin jumped in and grabbed the pistol the first shot cutting him in the chest, the second in the back, the bullet finally lodging in his arm. During the struggle Doyle was shot in the wrist, and then he sent a bullet into Goggin's hip. He then ran out of the house and made his way here where he gave himself up to the officers.
 The doctors who are attending Goggin say that unless blood poisoning sets in he will be around again in a few weeks.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Mutual Improvement choir of the Seventh ward have invitations out for a dance to be given in that ward next Thursday night. They have secured Christmas carols, and will put the floor in excellent condition and expect to have a most enjoyable time.

The entertainment given in the Twentieth ward last evening, the proceeds of which are to be used in pursuance of a card of appeal for the poor of that ward, proved to be very successful from every standpoint. The large hall was almost inadequate to accommodate those who came out to assist in the laudable undertaking. The evening's program consisted of musical numbers and a farce in which Phil Margretts, Mrs. Margaret Romney and several other well known local actors participated. A Kasperoo court was also one of the features of the evening. The swelling the proceeds of the affair in hand committee worked hard for the success of the entertainment and their efforts were rewarded. A handsome sum was turned over to the Bishop to be used by him for charitable purposes.

TEMPLE NOTICES.
