

the men in these positions should maintain their ground until properly relieved.

The people should honor their bishops and make their burdens light. Their criticisms should be kept from him, and the greatest respect should be shown him. Men want the position but they sometimes do not want the responsibility of an office like that of a bishop. This is not right.

I believe in home manufacturers, and think that we should seek to make the most capable men and women in the country, of whom God will be proud, out of the children God has given us, many of whom, though of raw material, are good and capable of great things.

AMUSEMENTS.

Our friends from the country will not lack for amusement of the best kind during fair and carnival week. Not only will each theater be open every night, but the tabernacle concert tomorrow evening, and the concert by the famous violinist, Louis Stetler, at the Congregational church tonight, will give a variety which the most exacting tastes can enjoy.

Theater—The great New York success, "The Third Degree," one of the most prominent since "The Lion and the Mouse," opens an engagement at the theater tonight and will run throughout the week.

Orpheum—A new bill of attractive features will be introduced for the week with matines each day.

Cabaret—In "Dreamland" will be the bill at this house for the week with Emmet Devoy in the leading this week.

Bungalow—"The Cowboy and the Lady," one of Nat Goodwin's successes, will be rendered at the Bungalow all this week.

Siegel-Hendricks Concert—The eminent violinist, Mr. Louis Siegel arrived in the city this morning and is being shown around the town by some of the well known men in Europe, among them Prof. Joseph Stannard, Dr. William T. Cannon, Mr. Siegel is a very young man, but has won a high place in the musical world. His selections tonight will include a Grieg sonata, "The Devil's Thrill," by Tartin, and several other numbers, while Miss Pearl Rothchild will accompany some of his selections. The concert commences promptly at 8:15.

The Mission

Of those corpuscles in your blood that have been called "Little Soldiers," is to fight for you against the disease germs that constantly endanger your health. These corpuscles are made healthy and strong by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine effects its wonderful cures, not simply because it contains sarsaparilla but because it combines the utmost remedial values of more than 20 different ingredients, each greatly strengthened and enriched by this peculiar combination. There is no real substitute for it. If urged to buy any preparation said to be "just as good" you may be sure it is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the dealer a larger profit.

COL SQUIRES' STATEMENT.

Says His Office Did Not Mail Copies of Newspapers.

Col. Squires, state insurance commissioner, has issued a statement that his department is not responsible for the fact that papers containing the commissioner's recent warning to unlicensed solicitors have been mailed to a number of insurance agencies. The following explanation is made by the commissioner regarding the license necessary.

"When a license is issued in the name of a firm it authorizes the actual members of the firm to solicit, insure, deliver policies and make collections, and to do any other thing legitimately pertaining to the insurance business. If, however, a firm engages sub-agents, who are not regular members of the firm, each one of such agents must obtain a license for each company represented. The fee for each license is $10.

The same rule holds good where an individual agent engages sub-agents. The sub-agent should not be led to believe that he has authority to do the name or the individual employing him to authorize him to transact business. He is just as amenable to the law as the firm or person employing him.

Parsons says that a section of the insurance code provides that every person soliciting insurance must be licensed. A person as the term is here used may be an individual or a corporation created for the purpose. A license is issued to the corporation covers all persons in the corporation; all other persons soliciting insurance must have individual licenses.

CONFERENCE ON TAXES.

Governor to Call a Meeting of State and County Officials.

In the near future Gov. William Spry will call a meeting of the state auditor, state treasurer, the county auditors and assessors and the state board of equalization to propose a complete revision of the tax laws. About 200 members of these officers attended the third annual international conference on state and local taxation held at Louisville, Ky. There were several matters discussed during the meeting, and a definite proposition was made to call another meeting in a few weeks.

The meeting will be held in Salt Lake City on Oct. 10, at 10 a.m., and the conference will be opened with a discussion of the method of collecting taxes and keeping the books will be established.

WOMEN BEGIN CANVASS.

Will Seek Funds for Orphan's Home and Nursery.

The Orphan's Home and Day Nursery association have planned an active campaign to raise funds for building their new home, and this morning a committee composed of the association officers, led by Mrs. J. G. Gorham, commenced a canvass of the city for contributions. The new structure is to cost $60,000, and only about $5,000 of this is in evidence.

The committee moved to the Teton Valley about 12 years ago where they owned a farm.

While riding a horse Roy, as he was familiarly known, was thrown and sustained a fracture of the skull, which necessitated putting in a silver plate at the fractured point and the plates apparently healed up all right. But for some time past it is thought that trouble was arising from an imperfect operation performed on the skull at the time of his accident. This so affected the brain that within the last few weeks the ailment so developed that death resulted.

He was born in this city Sept. 21, 1883, being 28 years old at the time of his demise. He leaves a wife and three children.

His parents went to his bedside a week ago to decide upon another operation, but conditions were unfavorable for it, as his condition grew rapidly worse. A brother and three sisters left here last evening to be at the funeral which occurs today.

JOHN DERN MENTIONED.

In the event of the conference committee being unable to agree upon either of the candidates now on the head of the respective tickets, it is proposed that a semiannual session be introduced, the name of John Dern being most frequently mentioned in that connection, should this condition develop. Mr. Dern, however, has refused the nomination of two of the parties already. While he may be set against accepting the nomination from any single party, some politicians think that his nomination should come to him in the shape of a request from the citizens united, he would be constrained to accept for the sake of the general cause.

COALITION IS THE MOVE.

Expressions as to the movement for a coalition of forces were this morning made by the various political leaders. The new structure is to cost $60,000, and only about $5,000 of this is in evidence.

The balance can only be raised by subscriptions and the care of the helpless and homeless wife of the community will receive a generous response from all citizens.

Many women from all denominations will join in the good work in addition to the contributions made by the various organizations.

These are: Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Mrs. M. M. Johnson, Mrs. C. R. Pearson, Mrs. Emily Richards, Mrs. George R. Hancock, Mrs. Charles McMahon and Mrs. Rachel Miller.

RUN DOWN BY AN AUTO.

Engineer Charles Williams of Fire Dept. Victim of Careless Chauffeur.

Engineer Charles Williams, stationed at fire department headquarters, was the victim of a painful accident yesterday night when he was run over by an unoccupied automobile for some distance.

The accident was due entirely to the carelessness of a colored man who was driving an automobile for the Bank of Utah company.

Williams was riding a bicycle west on Second South street, and was about 10 feet behind a street car going west. The colored man was driving eastward and Williams could not see the machine. The auto struck Williams, tearing him several feet along the pavement. Williams' left hand was broken and the bicycle reduced to a pile of junk. Dr. Robinson attended the injured man and the doctor made no promise to get out of the way as Williams had no money.

Instead of the automobile crossing the street as it should have done," said Mr. Williams, "the driver cut across at First West and Second South, and as he had no time to stop, he struck me before I had a chance to change to get out of the way as I could not see the machine because the car was in the way." Mr. Williams has not decided whether to sue the man or a company against the colored man or not.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Jesse F. Turner, who has been active in organizing Utah clubs of the Republican league, was presented with a handsome diamond watch chain by the Utah league Saturday.

Mr. Turner leaves tomorrow for the east. Col. George B. Neffles, for the league, made the presentation speech and Mr. Turner made a fitting response.

Watch The Tribune fight fusion.

The only thing The Tribune bunch knows in this campaign is a fusion of the better element of the voters of the city. Witness the trivial and tame of the "American" organ for the alleged "revolt" in the parties over the fusion movement.

It is right to fuse. What is the argument? "American" party is composed of Alleged Democrats and Republicans. Why does The Tribune so strenuously oppose the union of citizens in this election?

What the so-called "Americans" fear is that they will be beaten at their own game, for the probability is that many "Americans" will vote an independent Citizens' ticket.
