Modoc War Claims, &c.

WASHINGTON, 25.—Lane's bill for the payment of the Modoc Indian war expenses, as reported from the House committee, provides only $70,000 for the Oregon claims and $4,400 for California.

The Senate bill for the relinquishment of the U. S. title to lands in San Francisco, reported favorably upon by the House committee, is the bill relating to the wedge-shaped portion of the Presidio, to be cut off by the proposed extension of Lyons street.

Evidence About Post Tradership.

Gordon Daniels testified before the war expenditure committee that in looking out for business he had his attention called to the tradership at Fort Stanton, N. M. Goods to the amount of $125,000 were being sold there annually. He was instrumental in having Murphy, the trader there, removed, and a man named Bliss appointed in his place. The way he procured the appointment was this: He went to a man named Alexander F. Gray, a clerk in the Attorney General's office, who was a friend of Senator Carpenter, and told him that Bliss had agreed to make witness an equal partner with himself, and give $10,000 for the position. He promised Grey, if he could obtain the place, that he would see that $15,000 were paid to him. Accordingly Grey saw Carpenter, who had the appointment made as a personal favor to Grey, the latter so represented to witness. The commission was sent to Bliss, but Bliss repudiated the arrangement, and the witness had him removed in consequence. Then Charles Tracey said he would give witness $3,000 if he would procure the place for him; witness applied to a lobbyist named Closs to transact the business for him; Closs said he could operate through Senator Sawyer, as Sawyer was his personal friend. Witness promised Closs $500 if he should succeed. Tracy's bargain with witness was to give him $3,000, $500 of which only he paid, and Closs lost his fee. When Tracy went back on witness, the latter said Tracy must go, and he did go, through the influence of Sawyer with the Secretary of war. Witness held the post tradership, and what he had above stated was all he ever had to do with them. Witness testified that traders for were procured from time to time for money, and a trader at Fort Bascom informed him that he had given $1,000 for his place. He had heard that John Dent, brother-in-law of the President, controlled four or five such appointments. Witness was asked by Danforth whether he thought such business was honorable; witness replied he thought his business with Bliss was honorable, as he never looked on post traderships in a political light.

Two other witnesses were examined—G. W. Welt and S. Cheney, who testified that they had paid nothing whatever for their post traderships; the latter said that when he was the trader at Fort Davis he paid $1000 for political purposes to Senator Harlan.

The Ku-Klux Raids.

Ex-Attorney General Williams and ex-Comptroller Broadhead were before the sub-committee of the House judiciary committee to-day, and examined in regard to certain expenditures made by the Department of Justice during what were called the Ku-Klux raids.

No War Material to Sell—More About Postal Matters.

No action has been taken by the authorities here regarding the request from the Mexican Government for the purchase of arms from this Government; persons officially connected with the War Department do not think this Government has material to spare.

The House committee on post offices and post roads, to-day, examined J. D. Chidestar, a mail contractor of Arkansas. He testified that he deposited in the contract office last spring a bid from Dallas, Tex., to Jacksboro; that the contract was awarded to some one else, and that when he called for his bid, and the security check attached to it, they were handed to him by the second assistant P. M. General with the remark that the bid had never been registered nor considered. The witness did not know whether it was the lowest bid or not; it was, however, just after the time when the discoveries were made that Chantael, Floyd and Tweed department clerks, had suppressed and abstracted a number of bids.

Total Eclipse of the Sun.

NEW YORK, 25. — An almost tropical rain storm, with fog, lasting throughout the day, made a total eclipse of the sun here instead of a partial eclipse by the moon, which the astronomers announced; in the neighborhood a rain and snow storm prevailed, and floods are threatened. Trains on the Hudson railroads and elsewhere are blocked by snow drifts, in some places 15 or 20 feet deep.

Mexican News.

GALVESTON, Tex., 25.—A Brownsville special to the News says that the commander of the gunboat Rio Bravo has loaned General Labarra six bags of powder, about 150 lbs. It is reported that this loan was made at the suggestion of the American consul at Matamoras, Mr. Wilson, and that General Potter considered it a violation of the orders received from Washington. The loan was effected day before yesterday. On Thursday evening General Labarra visited the gunboat Rio Bravo; he crossed the river in a small boat sent from the Rio Bravo; he did not call upon General Potter. General Labarra is constructing a fort at the lower edge of Matamoras.

Don Antonio Tergari has been released upon a promise to pay $5,000 to the forced loan.

It is re ported that Diaz will attack Matamoras to-night.

Several days since a U. S. soldier was found dead near Ringgold barracks; it is now reported that some Mexicans were arrested and imprisoned on suspicion, and that last night the soldiers forced the jail of Starr county and killed one of the Mexicans and wounded two others.

Chance was now the favorite, at five hundred, Golden Gate one hundred and fifty-five, Revenue seventy, Hock Hocking thirty-seven and a half. In the second heat Revenue dropped out at the first half mile with a sprained ankle, Chance winning by six lengths in 3.46¾, Hock Hocking second, Golden Gate a poor third.

A New Mining Bill—Postal Change in Utah.

WASHINGTON, 25.—Congressman Baker, of Indiana, has introduced a bill, providing that any mining claim located after May 10, 1872, or sets of claims located together, and not exceeding 1,500 feet in all, may be held by an annual payment into the county fund for school purposes of a blank number of dollars, instead of by the annual expenditures for labor and improvements now required; the bill is before the House mining committee.

Frederick G. Willis is appointed postmaster at York, Juab county, Utah.

Conclusive Evidence Against Belknap.

The members of the House judiciary committee, including the republicans, say that the testimony given by Marsh before that committee is stronger than his testimony before the committee on expenditures in the War Department, and that it is so conclusive of General Belknap's guilt that he cannot escape; it is believed the judiciary committe will formally present their articles of impeachment this week.

Great Damage by Storm and Flood.

NEW YORK, 26.—The steamship Great Western, from Mediterranean ports, went ashore near Amityville, Long Island, late on Saturday night, and is likely to become a total wreck; the crew were saved. No passengers. The vessel carried a general cargo.

Yesterday's storm raged over the whole of New England, with disastrous effect. Railroad travel was interrupted seriously. There are fears of a dangerous freshet in the Merrimack river, also of loss by the breakage of dams. The destruction of bridges, mills, dwellings, and by inundation where the property was not swept away, is immense, and cannot be accurately estimated. At Danielsonville, Conn. Gainsborough's mill was undermined and is likely to be carried away. The loss is already estimated at $20,000. Four persons crossing a pond at Norwich were drowned. A VALUABLE MEDICINE,

From New and Rare Medicinal Plants recently discovered in the Rocky Mountains!

FIFTEEN years of earnest botanical research among those mountains and valleys have resulted in the discovery and use of many new varieties of plants, but of few among some of which have proved so far beyond our expectations in the combination of curative properties contained specimens of their virtues have become known—and these from extracts of these newly discovered plants are these pills compounded.

As a purifier, used daily, they will drive every impure, poisonous matter from the system, and are unequalled in the cure of DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINTS, INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE, and all cases of BILIOUSNESS, NERVOUSNESS, and KINDRED DISORDERED STOMACH.
