Mrs. Elmer A. Vail, the woman who recovered her little child in such a dra-matic manner at Ogden the other day, intends instituting divorce proceedings against her husband. The case, involving, as it does, the custody of the child, promises to be an interesting one.

The money for the payment of the semi-annual interest of $30,000 on the Church bonds is now on hand at the Deseret National bank. The interest is not due until January first, but the money is ready, and holders of the bonds can receive their interest any bonds can receive their interest any time after today. The price of butter and eggs is getting up to very near where it was two years ago, and that was the highest record for years. The cost of feed is one of the chief factors in increasing the cost of butter, and the failure of hens to lay, after a long warm season, auses the rise in eggs.

Albert Richardson, a baker, left his an across the street from the police tation last night, untied. Patrol relyer Armstrong took possession of he team, and when Richardson showed p he was placed under arest. After utting up $2 for his appearance in ourt he was allowed to go home.

James Melville, a miner who has been mployed at the Daly-West mine, died of consumption at the Holy Cross hos-dial yesterday afternoon. He was 54 pithi years of age and was a veteran of the civil war. His remains will be kept by Undertaker O'Donnell until rela-tives in the east can be heard from.

How the "smallpox" quarantine goes is shown by an incident that occurred on Sunday, in the neighborhood of the incoln school. One little hoy afflicted, ith the disease came out to the fence. while another little fellow, more curi-ous than wise, came along, chatted with him, and felt of the pustules with his finger, to learn how they felt.

At the regular meeting of the Salt ake County Medical society last night, br. L. A. Hosmer read a learned paper on "Lenkaemia," a disease of the blood, which is generally fatal. The paper was ably discussed, the debate includ-ing the subject of tubercular peritonitis. Hosmer was tendered a vote of thanks.

El Progreso, published at Neuva Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, Mexico, says of the recent shooting of Indiaus near Pacheco, and detailed in the "News" on Monday evening: "It is -18 considered almost certain that these were the same Indians that murdered family of A. H. Tompson near Cave valley some years ago.'

Not only in Utah, but in Idaho and Washington, is there the complaint of a coal famine. The same cause is assigned in all places-the scarcity cars on which to haul coal, the rail-ways having to use the cars in other business, the pressure being so great. Truly the railways are not "mere streaks of rust" nowadays.

Mammoth Record, Nov. 24: At o'clock yesterday evening the cage at the Mammoth, while being lowered to the 1.900 level with twelve men, struck the chairs which had been carelessly left out on the 800 and shook the men up considerably. Fortunately the cage was running slowly and Engineer Hor-ton was able to stop it promptly. Dan Knotts received the severest injuries.

Robert L. King, the convicted murderer of Godfrey Prowse, still insists that he is the original E. L. King of Los Angeles. He also insists that he is an Elk and declares that unless his lodge admitted his membership he would on Sunday next prove his connection with the order by giving away its signs and secret from beginning to end

In a Second West street store last evening, while the room was fairly filled with people, one youngster, a boy filled with people, one youngster, a boy of about ten years, was waiting to be served, and was talking with a com-panion. All at once he bluried out, in a voice heard all over the store. "We've got "smallpox" at our house, but there ain't no flag up!" The way the people scattered was a caution, and there was a "flag up" within balf an hour. The attending physician was in the act of reporting the case when the store incl-dent occurred. dent occurred.

The program given in the Second ward meeting house Sunday night under the auspices of the Sunday school was very interesting. A number of the Sunday school teachers discussed topics Sunday school teachers discussed optes that were presented at the late con-vention. The speerb's were inter-spersed with songs from Miss Luella Ferron, Seymour B. Young, Jr., and Miss Rose Graham. A little daughter Powers, the company's attorney, C Baker, general superintendent o construction at Chicago, will be asked to forward an estimate of the cost of the work of the Utah company. The line to Butte from this city will be begun soon. Theodore L. Cuyler was appointed eastern financial agent for the company.

William Cole, who lives on the corner of J and Sixth streets, got on a rampage ast night and threatened to do several etcible things to his family. He was going to demolish a chair against his wife's skuil, and then amputate her head with a razor. Such is Mrs. Cole's story. She says her husband has been under the influence of whisky for three four days, and upon returning home last night proceeded to tear things up The police were sent for, but when they arrived Cole had disappeared. The officers are looking for him.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The district court is in session at Farmington.

Logan City is making sharp com-plaints of coal famine there. The quarterly conference of Onelda Stake, Idaho, meets at Preston Sunday The snow in Park City has disap-peared almost entirely. The hills are still covered, however. The State board of health has received a report of six new cases of "smallpox" at Kaysville and three at Kamas.

The number of "smallpox" cases in Davis county is decreasing rapidly, and the disease seems likely to disappear from there very soon.

There will be a general closing up of the business houses on Thanksgiving. They will, however, remain open on Wednesday night until a late hour.

The funeral of Mrs. Albert Swain, who died of heart failure on Saturday last, was held from the Thirteenth ward meeting house this afternoon.

St. George Falcon: The mails have been considerably delayed during the week by the continuous rains which have been general over Southern Utah.

J. H. Bennett, Esq., and family, who have been renting at 969 east South Temple street, are moving today to 367 Third street, where they will reside hereafter.

The stockholders of the South Jor dan Canal company met yesterday af-ternoon, but as a majority of the stock was not represented, no business was transacted.

The committee appointed to effect a permanent organization for the cham-ber of commerce was not ready to re-port last night, and was therefore granted an extension of time.

The funeral of Mrs. Albert Swain was held from the Thirteenth ward meeting house yesterday afternoon. Bishop Em-pey presided. Between the hours of 11 a. m, and 1:30 p. m. a large ) of friends viewed the remains. a large number

Last night Carlton Riley, Alf Kupfer and Amil Morlando, three boys who re-side near the cement works, were caught purioining junk from the works. They were promptly arrested and hauled to the city jall.

Desk Sergeant Livingston of the police force has returned from Foun-tain Green, whither he went to attend the funeral of his brother William. During his absence Sergeant Burbidge held down the desk.

Mammoth Record; C. S. Work, who was injured some fine ago while in the employ of the Annie Laurie Mining Co., received a check for $325 from the company on Thursday as payment for time while he has been disabled for daty. duty.

The saloon men will not reap a har-vest on Thanksgiving turkey raifling this year, at least not in Salt Lake, for Chief of Police Hilton has pro-hibited it. The chief is of the apinion that raffling is not good for the saloon men; hence the edict.

Green & Maddison, real estate dealers, state that their small classified ad-vertisement in the Saturday "News" brought them a number of responses, among others letters of inquiry from noon, to make one more chort to raise funds sufficient to purchase a home. The ladies have met with great disap-pointment in the failure of the public to assist them financially in their benevolent undertaking, but they do not yet feel like giving up. Beaver Observer: Last Sunday night and all Monday, Beaver was visited with the finest snowstorm that it has with the infest showstoria that it has had for three years. The ground was warm and a good rain storm preceded the falling of the snow and much of the snow melted as it fell, but on Tuesday morning it lay upon the ground nine inches deep by actual measurement measurement

The Century collection of original drawings, and other works of art, are now on their way to this city, to be displayed at the art exhibit, which will probably be opened the second week in December. The prize paintings at the recent State Art Institute at Logan will also be exhibited in connection with many other things. On each afternoon or evening that the ladies club has charge of the exhibit, an interesting program will be given.

Mr. C. L. Knight, who was called to take a position in NewMexico.has decid-ed that Sait Lake is too good a place to leave just now, and will remain here, branching out for himself in his pro-fession of civil engineer. Mr. Knight has a host of friends who will applaud his decision, and wish him success in his vocation. Edward B. Linnen, his successor in the surveyor-general's ofssor in the surveyor-general's office, has arrived in the city in company

John Handsforth, who left Mellor, Derbyshire, England, in 1860, is wanted by his niece, Mrs. Harriet Lake, 813 Boston street, Lynn, Mass. His wife Harriet is the daughter of the late Isaac and Mary Higginbotham, of Mellor. Mrs. Lake says the last ad-dress she had was White Cloud, White Haven, Salt Lake City. As there is no such address here, she probably has made a mistake. If Mr. Mandsforth or any of his relatives are in Utah, or see this notice, they will confer a favor by writing to Mrs. Lake, at the address given, or to Wm. Crome, 27 O'Meara block, Salt Lake City. Mrs. Lake has written to Mr. Crome, asking information regarding her uncle.
