NETTIE'S RECORD.

Antecedents of the Woman Whose Shadow Fell on Vanderbilt.

LEOPATRA FROM A NEVADA TOWN.

Shed in the Art of Breaking the Hearts of Fools and Making Fortunes Thereby.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Nettie Neuter, the young woman who is said to be the cause of the family trouble of W. K. Vanderbilt, is well known here, and is a native of Nevada, was educated at Mills seminary, Alameda county, and for a number of years in San Francisco and the University of California. She was born about thirty years ago in Nevada, where her father, then called, kept a clothing store and became wealthy, she returned to Nevada from the country where she was eighteen years old and was the belle of the town. Pretty, witty, graceful and vivacious, she possessed all the requisites for the making of a fortune.

Her first victim was the nephew of a well-known capitalist, and her hands with him created such a scandal that her parents sent her to the care of relatives in San Francisco. The change failed to make the desired impression, and she soon found her way back to Nevada, where she continued to live until she fell in love with a young man named Henry Hamilton. Her parents, however, were opposed to the match, and she was forced to leave him. She then went to New York to live with her father, but he died shortly after she arrived. She then went to New York to live with her mother, but she died shortly after she arrived. She then went to New York to live with her father, but he died shortly after she arrived.

SPORTING GOODS.

When you buy a bicycle, you should buy a good one. A bicycle is a machine, and like any other machine, it should be made of good materials and by a skilled craftsman. A good bicycle will last for many years and will give you a great deal of pleasure. A bad bicycle will last for a few months and will give you a great deal of trouble.
