Ogden, Feb. 26 .--- The Weber county board of commissioners held an all-day session yesterday, discussing at length various matters pertaining to the welfare of the county,

County Clerk Mattson submitted a communication calling attention to the fact that according to the reports of road supervisors of the county for 1906, there were no delinquent poll taxes, when as a matter of fact there are many. In one district alone, Mr. Mattson said, he had been able to check up 16 who did not pay poll tax. The com-16 who did not pay poll tax. The com-missioners came to the conclusion that if other districts were in like propor-tion failing to pay poll tax, the county is losing a large sum of money that should be collected and expended for the betterment of the roads. Mr. Matt-son, in his communication, recommend-ed that the county assessor be requir-ed to furnish a list of all the male per-news between the ages of 21 and 59 ed that the county assessed to all the male per-ed to furnish a list of all the male per-sons between the ages of 21 and 50 years in each road district of the coun-ty, so that he might have a check on the road supervisors, pertaining to their reports concerning the payment of poll tax. This can be done by the assessor without much additional labor as now it is his duty to furnish a list of all male persons between the ages is and by gens who are subject to of all male persons between the ages of 15 and 45 years who are subject to military service, which list is filed in the county cierk's office. THRILLING RUNAWAY.

THRILLING RUNAWAY. Mrs. Wilford Rasmussen had a thrilling and what might have been a serious run-away experience recently. She was driv-ing a single rig en route to her sister's residence, north of 'Mt Pleasant, having with her her little boy and baby. The horse became unmanageble and ran away. In crossing a ditch Mrs. Rasmus-sen was thrown upon the dashboard and the baby fell to the ground. In a moment more she was also thrown to the ground through her skirts catching in the wheel. She was dragged some little distance, and then her little boy fell out. Strange to say all three were uniqued save for slight by a gentleman before any damaged was done. quently got busy, closing the joints himself. The concert which was given Friday evening by the Latter-day Saint choir was well attended, and a neat sum was realized. A fine program was rendered. Robert C.
