DESERET EVENING NEWS

Vol. I

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

SALT LAKE CITY, TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 5, 1888.

No. 141.

BREVITIES.

The London Times cleared over $3,000,000 last year.

The worst wheel of a cart makes the most noise.

The new letter boxes of Boston are to be made of glass.

An egg to-day is worth more than a hen to-morrow.

Pleasure is like a heron—generally ends with a sting.

A false friend and a shadow attend only while the sun shines.

The New York printer contributed $1,000 to the Artemus Ward monument.

Beware of little expenses; a small leak will sink a ship.

Women often kiss each other when they had rather bite off each other's noses.

Never be ashamed of honest labor. Pride is a curse—a hateful vice.

Why are authors like cattle? Because they are accustomed to pens.

Ladies' rubber forms are now manufactured in Springfield, Mass.

Some of the ladies of Syracuse are about to put on the Turkish costume.

It was a Dutchman who said a pig had no ear marks except a short tail.

Avoid all the vices and aim at usefulness. This is the road to respectability.

Profane swearing is abominable and vulgar language is disgusting.

It was a Scotch woman who said that the butcher of her town only killed half a beast at a time.

What is the difference between a fiery individual and a salve of bacon? One is rash and the other is rasher.

An autograph letter of Mozart, asking the loan of three florins, is for sale in Paris.

On a single acre, near Rochester, New York, 1,656 pounds of hops were raised the first year after planting, and sold for $975.

New Orleans, it is claimed, possesses more miles of street railroad than any city of its size in the world.

Moral Chicago is petitioning the City Council to prohibit the running of street cars on Sunday.

The Duke of Beaufort's racing stud, recently brought to the hammer in London, realized £16,000.

A learned book-black, who has been arrested for a petty crime in London, speaks English, French and German.

The celebrated "All England Eleven" cricketers are expected to visit Canada and Detroit during the coming summer.

If a man is without enemies, I would not give ten cents for all his friends. The man who can please everybody, hasn't got sense enough to please anybody.

"Tommy, my son," said a fond mother, "do you say your prayers night and morning?" "Yes—that is at night, but any smart boy can take care of himself in the daytime."

A recent New Orleans suicide left the following written explanation: "I have seen enough of this world, and am curious to see what there is in the other one."

An excited orator is reported to have said: "I guess there ain't a man, woman or child in this house that has arrived at the age of fifty years but what has felt this great truth thundering through his or her mind for centuries."

A Canadian sportsman writes that hunters from New York are constantly shooting deer in Canada out of season, thereby hastening the period when that animal shall become extinct. He knows of five hundred head of deer sent from the Ottawa country alone to the American market.

Here is a fact worth a year's subscription to a paper: To a pint of water add thirty drops (about half a teaspoonful) of liquid chloride of lime. Wash in this two and a half pounds of rancid butter. When every particle of the butter has come in contact with the water, let it stand an hour or two; then wash the butter well again in pure water. The butter is then left without any odor, and has the sweetness of fresh butter. These preparations of lime have nothing injurious in them.

Captain Howard, an American at Liverpool, recently heard a man in a singing saloon singing "The Bonnie Blue Flag," said to be a confederate song, and ordered him to desist. The singer refused to shut up and kept on singing, on which Captain Howard smashed his head with a water bottle. He was carried off insensible and died in a few hours. Captain Howard will be tried by a mixed jury for manslaughter, if not for murder.

Thousands of men breathe, move and live, pass off the stage of life, and are heard of no more. Why? They did not do a particle of good in the world, and none were blessed by them as instruments of their redemption; not a word they spoke could be recalled, and so they perished, and their light went out in darkness, and they were not remembered more than the insects of yesterday. Will you live thus and die, O man immortal? Live for something. Do good, and leave behind you a monument of virtue that time can never destroy. Write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of thousands you come in contact with, year by year, and you will never be forgotten. No; your name, your deeds will be as legible on the hearts you leave behind, as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds will shine as brightly on earth as the stars of heaven.
