MY RIGHTS.

BY SUSAN CALDWELL.

Yes, God has made me a woman,

And I am content to be

Just what He meant, not reaching out

For other things, since He

Who knows me best and loves me best has Ordered this for me.

A woman to live my life out

In quiet, womanly ways,

Hearing the face of battle

Seeing as through a haze

The crowding, struggling world of men

Lighting their way day by day.

I am not strong or valiant,

I would not join the fight,

Or jostle with men in the highway.

Or stain my garments white;

But I have rights as a woman, and here I

Claim my right.

The right of a rose to bloom

In its own sweet, separate way,

With none to question the perfume pink,

And none to utter a nay,

That it reaches a root or puts a thorn, as even a rose-tree may.

The right of the lady-bird to grow—

To grow as the heart shall please,

By sowing a sturdy oak rebuked,

Denied nor sun nor breeze;

For all its plant slenderness, kin to the stronger tree.

The right to a life of my own:

Not merely a casual bit

Of somebody else's life flung out,

That, taking hold of it,

Lies and as a spider does after a numeral writ.

The right to gather and glean

What food I need and can

From the garnered stores of knowledge

Which shall have helped for man,

Taking with those who freely and after an ordered plan.

The right—oh! best and sweetest—

To stand all undismayed

Wherever pain or sorrow or sin

Call for a woman's aid.

With none to censure or misnomer, by never a look gained.

I do not beg for a battle,

Though very life were at stake;

I would beg for the nobler, juster way—

That men, for manhood's sake,

Should give ungrudging, and not withhold till I must fight and take.

The fleet foot and the feeble foot

Both seek the selfsame goal:

The sweetest soldier's name is writ

On the mighty army-roll;

And God, who made man's body strong,

made also the woman's soul.

"Alabama" Claims Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, 4.—In the court of commissioners of the Alabama claims, to-day, the following California claims were disposed of: Crone & Brigham, judgment for $300,741, with interest on $109,912 from April 17, 1862, and on $20,000 from May 15, 1863, and on $423 from April 27; Rosenbaum & Friedman, judgment, with interest on $241,000.

A Talk With Indians—Valuable Lessons Captured.

At the Indian conference, to-day, Spotted Tail said that the Great Spirit told him never to steal any body's country without paying for it. The secretary replied that he had not accused him or his people of stealing and he did not want Spotted Tail to accuse the United States of stealing from him. Spotted Tail wanted to talk about agency matters before he went home, and he wanted to go tomorrow. The secretary left, saying they might talk all night with the commissioners if they wished to.

Captain Rogers, agent of the Fort Belknap, captured, in this city, to-day, a white lace dress valued at $10,000, a white lace shawl and other laces valued at $5,000, at a pawnshop, where they had been pawned. The dress and laces formerly belonged to the Empress Eugenie, and were among the richest in the world. They were sold at the sale of her diamonds and jewelry in England, and were smuggled into this country by Joseph Horne, in Oct., 1873.

Killed.

SORANTON, Pa., 4.—Daniel Harris and Mr. Wagonmaster were killed by a boiler explosion near Goldboro to-day; several others were seriously wounded.

Harder in the First Degree.

Boston, 4.—George W. Pemberton, who has been on trial several days for killing Mrs. Blincoe, in East Boston, on the 22nd of March; was to-day found guilty of murder in the first degree.

Prisoners Arrived.

HAVANA, 2, via Key West, 4.—The Argentine transport Ping, with twenty-two political prisoners, arrived here on Sunday, from Montevideo; the prisoners comprise the implicated in the case of the "Argentine Republic." Among them are two sons of Flores and several persons who had been banished from Cuba in former years as enemies of Spain. The government is anxious to allow them to land, the reason being the information of the ship's papers, the Ping being a Spanish vessel. The government is anxious to allow them to land, the reason being the information of the ship's papers, the Ping being a Spanish vessel.

WALKER BROTHERS

offer left for California to-day, to arrest and return here, for trial, H. R. Rich, charged with embezzling $7,000 to $8,000 of the funds of the Baltimore & Ohio Railway while serving as freight agent at this point.

Verdict Rendered.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., 4.—The coroner's jury in the Holyoke disaster rendered a verdict this evening; they found that no blame could be attached to any person in connection with the disaster, but they can not too strongly condemn the almost criminal carelessness in the construction of the galleries and the means of egress therefrom; and declare that the parties who built such a death trap should receive the unmeasured censure of the community; they find the cause of fire from the use of trimmings, laces, paper, etc., and to the fact that the building was sheathed with pine instead of being plastered.

Arrested.

NEW YORK, 4.—Robert Wise Hart, charged with being one of the grange who, some time ago, negotiated some five million dollars worth of stolen altered U. S. bonds, and who, having been treated on a regulation by Governor Tilden and brought to this city to-day, was brought before Judge Brady on a writ of habeas corpus. The return to the writ sets up that his arrest was under the regulation of Governor Tilden, on a charge of forgery, and that he is now held in custody under due process of law; the traverse, in return, sets forth that the prisoner is not the person known to have been arrested on the regulation paper, that he has never been a resident of Penal, and that the requisition proceedings are illegal. The judge allowed the District Attorney till Tuesday to produce proofs of identity.

Will Erect a Monument.

ELMIRA, N. Y., 4.—A committee was formed here, to-day, to make arrangements for the erection of a monument to the Confederate dead, 3,000 of whom were buried in Woodlake Cemetery here.

WESTERN.

$70,000 Fire—Failed.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4.—The old penitentiary building at Salem, Ogn., with several adjoining shops, was burned this afternoon. Loss $20,000. Treadwell & Co., agricultural implement dealers, have suspended payment; their liabilities are over half a million. It is thought in business circles that they may pull through if granted an extension.
