EDITORIAL NOTES.

.....The South is prospering in home manufactures. One of the largest cotton factories in the world is now nearly ready for operation at Atlanta, Georgia. It will contain 21,500 spindles and 50 looms, and will give employment to over 600 operatives. The Baltimore Sun notes the circumstance that despite the fact that in the northern manufacturing districts many of the cotton mills are at a stand still, the southern factories are working on full time, whilst new factories are rapidly springing up.
.....The Boston Commercial Bulletin says, "No more trouble with those university young men who want to be journalists." When they come in now with specimens of their handwriting and composition, the managing editor tells them there is a vacancy as correspondent with Crook on the plains, and then they conclude they will prefer the retail dry goods business."
.....One of the Chicago Journals having spoken of the Bohemians of that city as thieves and brutes, they have held a mass indignation meeting, and passed resolutions affirming that they number 23,000, and furnish less than their proportion of criminals, while very few are not able to read and write, half are property holders, and none are "tax-fighters."
.....The Chicago Courier says, "The extraordinary vigor of the French nation was never more aptly illustrated than in the subscription to the loan for the improvement and beautifying of the French capital. Twenty-four millions of dollars was the sum required, and the Government received offers of seventy times the amount. There is evidently something in a nation being able to trust its rulers. Would we could do so."

HONESTY AND DISHONESTY.

The American Architect and Building News has the following to say concerning the honesty of American workmen and mechanics:
"Honest men need no watching, and I would here avail myself of the opportunity to say a word in favor of the American workmen. For many years I have been in constant intercourse with the employed hundreds in all the different branches connected with the building trade; and although there are shrewd and lazy ones in every community, as well as those who are dishonest and half taught, they are the exception and not the rule. The many are honest and honest. This matter of honesty has often been tested. In the course of a long practice I have frequently had to make extensive repairs in furnished houses, unoccupied for the time, and which of necessity had to be open to the workmen, with no one ever there but the foreman—houses in which books are left on the shelves, bric-a-brac on the mantels, and glass and china in the parlor—and I take pleasure in saying that I have never known the confidence reposed in the mechanic abused."
Now the secret is revealed. There has been of late years so much dishonesty, amounting to absolute swindling and thievery, among the politicians and office holders in these United States, that the people had begun to wonder where all the honesty had gone. It was not generally known that the workmen and mechanics had monopolized it. But according to the above extract, it seems that they possess in abundance what the politicians and officeholders so woefully lack. Well, let us rejoice that the honesty of human nature has not gone clean out of the country.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.
CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.
WASHINGTON, 14.—Spencer submitted a concurrent resolution providing for the appointment of a joint committee to consist of three Senators and three members of the House to prepare a suitable form of government for the District of Columbia, to report at the next session of Congress. It also authorizes the committee to sit during recess; passed.
Harvey called up the House bill for the sale of saline lands. Several amendments were agreed to and the bill passed.
The House moved to take up the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the appropriation of money for the support of sectarian schools; agreed to—yeas 23, nays 13.
A discussion then took place, which lasted until the expiration of the morning hour, when the Senate proceeded to consider the unfinished business, the bill to carry the Hawaiian treaty into effect.
Norwood continued his remarks in opposition to the bill.
The Senate by a vote of yeas 29, nays 12, passed the bill to carry into effect the Hawaiian treaty. It passed without amendment.

HOUSE.
WASHINGTON, 14.—The House met at 10 o'clock in continuation of Saturday's session.
On motion of Parker the Senate bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to use the surplus of certain moneys heretofore appropriated for public buildings at Harrisburg, Pa., was taken from the Speaker's table, and after explanation by him, passed.
Singleton addressed the House on the condition of public affairs in Mississippi. He gave an emphatic denial to the statements made in the House and Senate that there had been frauds committed in the recent election in that State, and said that no such thing had been charged on the part of the Government of Mississippi or of the election judges.
The Senate concurrent resolution authorizing the House committee on enrolled bills to make certain corrections in the enrollment on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, was agreed to.
Henry Waterson, member elect from Kentucky, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Parsons, presented himself and took the oath of office modified.
The Senate bills for the printing of the report of the Belknap impeachment trial and for the appointment of a joint committee to frame a government for the District of Columbia were passed.
Scheider made a speech in advocacy of the silver bill. His speech closed the legislative session of Saturday last, and that of today began under the call of the states.
A few private bills were introduced and referred.
Randall submitted a report of the committee of conference on the Indian appropriation bill, which was agreed to without discussion.
He then proceeded to make a general remarks on the several appropriations.

EASTERN.

WASHINGTON, 14.—The bill passed by the Senate on Friday night, providing for the fast mail trains and restoring the franking privileges, has been referred to the House committee on post offices and post roads, and will not be brought to the floor until the next session.
This will end the scheme for restoring or granting the privilege of franking to the friends of all combine and force a continuance of the session, which some threaten.
Grant at the Capitol.—The Post Office Committee.
President Grant came to the Capitol at noon to-day, accompanied by the Attorney General, Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of the Interior and his private secretary. They will remain in the President's room during the day for the examination and approval or disapproval of bills.
The House committee on post offices and post roads took no action to-day on the bill which was referred to that committee on Saturday. The bill was amended in the Senate by adding the fast mail and franking privilege to it, and it is understood that the House will not concur in the amendment. This is indicated by the action of the House in referring the bill to this committee, which will not be called again this session to report, and a single objection will prevent them from reporting outside of the regular bill.

The Squaw Story Doubtful.
By inquiry at the army headquarters to-day, it is ascertained that nothing whatever has been received confirmatory of the report of the Sioux squaw that a terrible battle had taken place between Gen. Crook and the Sioux Indians, and that the latter had been almost annihilated; while hopes are expressed that the report may prove to be true, the story is considered doubtful.

The Final Adjustment Not Settled Yet.

There is some talk among a few prominent senators of endeavoring to amend the House resolution so as to provide for a final adjournment at 12 o'clock to-night, but it is not probable the majority will be known to fix the date to-morrow, or possibly Wednesday.
Disaster to the Steamship "City of Chester."
New York, 14.—The Times has the following:
"The steamship City of Chester, of the Inman line, went ashore off Owsheish, Long Island, about 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, and last night lay eight feet deep in mud, all efforts to get her off having failed. The cabin passengers and the baggage and mails were taken off yesterday afternoon, but the steamer passengers and their effects remain on board. The steamer is not known to be injured, and it is expected when she has been relieved of her cargo she will get off in good condition."
The City of Chester.
The Sun has the following about the City of Chester disaster:
"As the steamer Plymouth Rock was passing through the narrows on her morning return trip from Rockaway, she discovered the City of Chester ashore. A signal gun was fired by the excursion vessel, to which the other responded by lowering her yawl boat with a heavy anchor and cable. A signal gun was fired by the Plymouth Rock, and made fast to the stern chock, and the word to go ahead given. The tug, however, was obliged to give up the task. 'How much for the effort,' cried the Captain of the City of Chester. 'Nothing,' answered Captain Martin of the Plymouth Rock. Then the colors of the ocean steamer were dipped and the British ensign was run up to the fore of the Plymouth Rock. The crews then cheered, and so the Yankee and Englishman parted company."

Arrival of English Miners.

About fifty English miners arrived at this port in the City of Chester from the mining districts in Westmoreland and Cornwall, England. They leave to-night for Virginia City, Nev., under contract with some English mine owners.

The First Wire Stretched.

The first wire of the East River Bridge was stretched across the river this morning. About 5,000 people were present, and considerable enthusiasm was manifested.

More About the Indians.

CHICAGO, 14.—R. Williams, assistant general at Omaha telegraphed to Gen. Sheridan's headquarters here that the following has just been received by him.
"Fort Laramie, Wyo., Aug. 14.
"The report of Gen. Terry's fight with Sitting Bull is confirmed through Indians coming in to the Spotted Tail agency. They report a heavy engagement, and the defeat of the Indians with great loss, and Sitting Bull was killed."

It is proper to say that the accuracy of the information contained in this dispatch, coming as it does from such a source, is discredited.

CANADA.

Killed at Niagara.

CLIFTON HORSE, Ont., 14.—Herman Weigel, while walking on the bank of the Niagara River just below the Horse Shoe falls, fell over and was instantly killed.

WESTERN.

Wants to Secede.

SAN FRANCISCO, 14.—A dispatch from Victoria says at a public meeting on Friday evening, called by the mayor at the request of the citizens, an address to Governor-General Dufferin was adopted, which, after stating the grounds of complaint against the Dominion government on the part of the colony, closed with the statement that the ultimatum of the province is a request to Her Gracious Majesty, through his lordship, to be permitted to secede from the Dominion, or that the Dominion terms be carried out in their entirety.

FOREIGN.

WAR NEWS.

LONDON, 14.—The Ottoman embassy of this city officially denies that the Imperial troops burned Serbian villages or carried property for that purpose, as has been charged. The embassy alleges that the ultimatum of the province is a request to Her Gracious Majesty, through his lordship, to be permitted to secede from the Dominion, or that the Dominion terms be carried out in their entirety.
