

B. H. ROBERTS' ELOQUENT TRIBUTE

Masterful Discourse Delivered at Tabernacle Yesterday Afternoon.

PRES. MCKINLEY'S DEATH.

May Accomplish Greater Good Than Hereafter It Will Draw the Hearts of Men Together.

The services in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were presided over by President Angus M. Cannon and were opened by the choir singing the hymn, "Behold the Great Redeemer Die."

The opening prayer was offered by Elder Thomas, of London, England, which was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Oh, My Father."

The speaker was Elder B. H. Roberts, whose discourse was listened to with marked interest. He prefaced his sermon by reading an extract from the letter of Paul to the Corinthians, wherein Paul declares that he had delivered the same Gospel that he had received, viz, that Christ had been crucified, buried, resurrected, and ascended, into heaven, and many, including Paul, testified that they had seen Christ after His resurrection. Paul further declares that if there be no resurrection, then the dead are dead, and the living are as the dead.

Elder Roberts said that we are standing in the shadow of a great national sorrow. And in referring to President McKinley, he said there are no political parties in the assembled multitude of the land, and there are no sectarians. The general text of the nation's sorrow, and it is appropriate that a word of sympathy should ascend from the pulpit of the speaker was occupying. The speaker then made a touching reference to that "good man" upon whom this sorrow most directly falls. "In my soul I pray that the healing virtues of God's Spirit shall fall upon her, and that in this affliction she will be comforted with the thought that God was good to her in giving her an arm so strong on which to lean for these many years."

Elder Roberts went on to say that ten days ago the President stood at the full vigor of manhood and at the heights of a glorious career. Step by step he worked his way up from one position of esteem and confidence in his fellow man until he rose to the pinnacle; surely, his life was a grand success. When such a career is arrested by a bullet from an assassin, it renders it doubly pitiful. Elder Roberts went on to explain the circumstances of the killing of President Lincoln when the times produced abnormal men, but for the killing of President McKinley, there was no excuse. It might cause some to doubt the existence of a Providence that overrules the destinies of men, but the Latter-day Saints should not read such a lesson from the had circumstance. The great central truth of Christianity is the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Christ was sent into the world and died on the cross to teach the world that great truth. Sometimes the politicians forget the brotherhood of man, and when there is a man who can summon together the hearts of his people, it is perhaps better that he should do it even at the sacrifice of his own life. "So I doubt not," continued the speaker, that God could accomplish more in the manner of his taking off, than he could by all his past career." Elder Roberts went on to describe the death scene of the President, and with much effect he read the President's last words, "Good-bye, Good-bye. It is God's way. His will be done." "You will see the works of the unbeliever in vain, exclaimed the speaker, to find anything equal to that."

The Psalm of David was then quoted, wherein the words appear, "What is man that Thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that Thou visitest him." The speaker then went on to quote numerous passages of scripture in which were set forth the truth that man is the offspring of God and also that man existed prior to the creation of the world. The doctrine of the resurrection was then taken up, much stress being laid on the resurrection of Christ. The agnostic who says that life is a narrow bridge with one end resting in mist and the other in darkness, makes a mistake. The revelations of God dispel the darkness and reveals man in his pre-existent state, being taught and developed. They also show what he shall be when he is resurrected to what height man might attain. But to attain to the celestial glory requires obedience to celestial law by every man he being, President of pauper. But the Gospel is everlasting and every man sometime some where shall have an opportunity of coming in touch with it and yielding obedience to it. God is no respecter of persons and every man shall be rewarded for his works. Consequently there will be an infinite number of rewarders and glorifiers given men. The speaker went on to depict the three glories, the celestial, terrestrial and telestial, of which the sun, moon and stars respectively are typical of the glory of even the least surpasses the conception of man. What therefore can be said of the higher glories. The Apostle said it right when he said, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath the heart of man conceived the things which God has in store for those who love Him and keep His commandments." Elder Roberts concluded with an eloquent appeal to the people to order their lives that they will receive the highest degree of exaltation.

MEETS VIOLENT DEATH.

Heber Nielson of Holliday Killed in Mill Creek Canyon.

Heber Nielson, an esteemed young citizen of Holliday, lost his life Saturday in Mill Creek canyon. The exact manner of the fatality will never be known, but Nielson was on a load of wood coming down the canyon. On reaching a dangerous point in the road, called the dugway, it is presumed the brakeman gave way and Nielson jumped to save himself and was caught between the wagon and the bank and was crushed fatally. This theory seems the most plausible because the team went dashing down the dugway at the top of their speed. A teamster named Wadell who had preceded Nielson down the canyon was nearly smashed into by the latter's runaway team. Thinking that Nielson had met with some accident, he went back up the road and found him in a critical though conscious condition. Two more teamsters presently appeared on the scene and with their assistance Wadell conveyed the injured man to the foot of the mountain. Word was sent to Holliday and the doctor and the deceased and Dr. Jones of Murray hastened to the spot, but the injured man expired a few minutes after they arrived.

Seven years ago Joseph Nielson, a brother of the deceased, and his wife, Heber Nielson was 27 years of age, and leaves a wife and one child and aged mother and several brothers and sisters. He was a popular young man whose death is very much regretted. The funeral was held this afternoon at the Big Cottonwood meeting house.

SALT LAKE PLEASES TEXANS

Lone Star Editors Have an Enjoyable
Time—Depart This Evening.

The members of the Texas Press association who have been sojourning in Salt Lake since Saturday, express keen interest in the things they have seen and heard here. Yesterday the visitors boarded the tourist car and went over the city. In the afternoon they attended the services in the Tabernacle, which they said they enjoyed very much. After the services a short program was rendered for their benefit consisting of "The Hallelujah chorus," and "Route, O Ye Mortals," from the opera, "Norma," by the choir, and "The Holy City," by Miss Margie Webber, whose rendition of the famous song was very pleasing.

Later in the afternoon the association got together and drew up resolutions thanking everyone who contributed towards their entertainment. They also agreed to take a trip to Salt Lake City, with its many varied and historic attractions, alone compensates us for our long journey." Then extended D. P. Felt of the Utah Press association, Mrs. Felt, Hoyt Sherman, the Sanitarium, the Salt Pavilion company, R. S. Uzzell of the "Seeing Salt Lake" car, Prof. J. J. McClellan, the Tabernacle organist, Evan Stevens, director of the choir, and Miss Marjorie Webber.

Today the editors under the escort of President D. P. Felt of the Utah Press association, paid a visit to President Snow and left for Denver this evening.

WORK AT OLD UNIVERSITY.

High School Will Not Begin Until Next Week.

Inasmuch as there is yet remaining considerable work to do in the old university building and the general unsettled condition over the death of President McKinley, it is not likely the High school will start on the year's work until next Monday morning.

The Elders who have labored in the Northern States mission will hold their annual conference in the L. D. S. College building, on Friday, Oct. 4th, at 4 p. m. An urgent invitation to be present is extended to all who have labored in the above named mission.

THE ELKS' CARNIVAL POSTPONED.

Executive Committee Takes a Step That Whole State Will Approve—Fair Will Now Open on Friday.

After keeping the wires hot all day Saturday George Jarboe, proprietor of the Jarboe Amusement company, was finally located, with the result that the Elks' carnival committee gave out at 2 o'clock yesterday morning that the carnival would be postponed until after the remains of President McKinley had been laid away at Canton, Ohio. Every member of the executive committee is elated over the success in the arranging for the postponement without the breaking of any contracts. It was feared that this could not be done as the carnival attractions were booked to appear at Pueblo, Colo., at the fair which was to be held there immediately after the Salt Lake carnival. Satisfactory arrangements, however, have been made and the opening date at Pueblo has been changed from September 22nd to one week later.

The performers in the Jarboe company have all arrived on the ground, and will now proceed to rest up until Friday when the fair opens. It means a big expense, but all concerned feel that it is justified under the circumstances. In all there are now about 125 performers in the company now in Salt Lake, ranging from the latest pacos to come to town down to the hoochie-coochie girl. Nine different nationalities are represented in the cosmopolitan throng which embrace Egyptians, Arabians, Japanese, Mexicans, Algerians, Germans, English, Indians and Americans.

The revised program for the festivities now stands as follows:
The carnival and street fair will take place on the following days: September 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th.

Ezra Thompson, Mayor, to Queen Mabelle, with twenty maid of honor; parade at 10 a. m. by the Salt Lake Lodge No. 55, Queen Mabelle and maids of honor, Indians, Jarboe attractions; 1 p. m. opening address by Hon. Heber M. Wells, Governor of the State of Utah; addresses by United States Senator Thomas Kearns and Congressman Sutherland. ## MINISTERS PROMISE ASSISTANCE. LOCATED IN NEW HEADQUARTERS.

Resolve to Co-operate With the Latter-day Saints' Sunday School Committee for Enforcement of Ordinances on the Sabbath Day.

The Salt Lake Ministerial association held its regular meeting this morning and took up the question of the violation of the city ordinances on Sunday, particularly the invitation it had received from the Latter-day Saints' Sunday school committee requesting co-operation in this direction. This the association concluded to give and replied to the committee in a letter couched in the following language:

C. B. Felt and others, Superintendents of L. D. S. Sunday Schools, Salt Lake Stake. Dear Sirs:—We have received your communication calling attention to the action of your association concerning the enforcement of our city ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicants on Sunday, etc., etc., and in reply we would say that we are in full agreement with you in your efforts. You are right in supposing that we are and have been interested in such efforts. We in evidence recall the action taken by our association last summer. Two committees were appointed, one visited the mayor of the city with a view to securing his aid in abating nuisances of the Commercial street class, and the more vigorous execution of our laws against the sale of intoxicants on Sunday and to minors. The other, visited the President of your Church to secure his aid in closing the bar at Saltair. We were received courteously in both instances while we did not secure all we could wish in either case we believe that both Saltair and the city have since then moved up a little not only in obedience to law but in obedience to temperance sentiment. Improvement is yet possible in both quarters.

As regards the more vigorous execution of our city ordinances against Sabbath breaking, gambling, etc., as well as regarding the more vigorous execution of our state statutes, we assure you of our co-operation. We shall be glad to join hands with you and the authorities of your Church in doing what we can to promote the execution of the laws in our city, county and commonwealth.

Respectfully,
PETER A. SIMPKIN,
President.
GEORGE BAILEY,
Secretary.

AGAINST ANARCHY.

Salt Lake Ministers Adopt a Resolution
Denouncing Assassination.

At the meeting of the Salt Lake ministers today, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:
"The Salt Lake Ministerial association desires to express its profound sorrow on the untimely death of our beloved President, Wm. McKinley, resulting from a gunshot wound inflicted by an assassin in the city of Buffalo, New York, on Friday, Sept. 6th, 1901. We tender our sincere sympathy to the frail and tender widow of our late distinguished chief executive and we pray God, the all loving Father, to support her in this awful trial with his sweet ministry of His consoling and abiding peace. We earnestly denounce the public teachings of anarchy either by tongue or pen, inciting men as they do to the commission of crimes and detestable crimes, and further declare such teachings to be worthy of the execution and contempt of all honorable and law-abiding men."

HOLDUP SATURDAY NIGHT.

Music Teacher Accompanied by Two Ladies, Robbed.

During the Elks' carnival the police expect to be more or less busy protecting property and persons from grifters, hold-ups and sure-thing losses. There is sure to be a sprinkling of criminals here, and they have already begun to make their presence felt. E. C. Heffley, a music teacher, was held up on Saturday night at 8 o'clock, while walking to work, and was accompanied by two ladies. As they were walking up the corner of the street, suddenly confronted them and commanded Heffley to throw up his hands. Heffley said he struck at one of the men, but was warned if he did it again he would probably be sent upon a cloud exploring expedition. The robbers then cooly relieved him of $15 and some small articles. He did not offer to resist, but the ladies, and after compelling Heffley to walk down to the corner, disappeared down the street. The police were at once notified and made an effort to locate the hold-ups but without success.

WILL CLAWSON BETTER.

Spencer Clawson last night received the following telegram from his father, President D. P. Felt of the Utah Press association, who has been ill for some time at his home in San Francisco:
"Talked with Will today. Decidedly better. Dr. Anderson much encouraged."

SCALDED TO DEATH.

Terrible Death of A. V. Taylor's
Three-Year Old Son.

The little three-year-old son of the Hon. A. V. Taylor died at the family home today as the result of falling into a bucket of hot water. The accident occurred yesterday afternoon. The servant girl had taken a bucket of hot water onto the porch preparatory to scrubbing the latter. After she had put the water on the porch, the child was attracted elsewhere the little boy was running against the bucket. He was upset and fell into the water head first. He was rescued very quickly but not in time to prevent fatal injuries being inflicted. The agony the little fellow suffered was most pitiful to behold. Dr. Richards, a brother-in-law of Taylor, was summoned and remained with the child all night, but he was beyond human assistance.

BACK FROM THE EAST.

Receiver George A. Smith Heard Shots
Fired at McKinley.

George A. Smith, receiver at the federal land office, returned today from a most interesting trip through the East except that the latter part of it was rendered sorrowful because of the death of President McKinley. He was sitting on the steps of the Temple of Music when the President was shot. He heard the reports but it was twenty minutes before he knew what had occurred. The people seemed to be stunned by it. Mr. Smith visited all the leading cities in the East, including Washington, D. C. He also visited the historic spots of the church. He returns in good health but considerably cast down over the national tragedy.

BUSINESS NOTES.

Local dealers in stocks who have been watching the market anxiously since the death of President McKinley, were relieved to find today that the demand for the old dividend stock kept up as strongly as ever. Indeed, it may be said that the market opened today without a ripple. Twenty shares of Deseret National bank were sold at $27 a share, the highest price ever reached in the history of that stock. Broker Cutler reports that Ogden Sugar could be sold at $185 to $190 a ton, in spite of the fact that it is in fine condition, and the plants at Ogden are still in the hands of the enemy. Home Fire remains in demand at $130, its highest point.

The board of directors of the Utah Sugar company met this morning. President Snow presiding. Manager Cutler made a report of the condition of the beet fields, which, he said, were in fine condition, and the plants at Lehi, Springville and Bingham Junction were all in readiness for the crop. Work at these three points would be in full swing, and the plants at Ogden, Provo and Panguitch had been made for handling with expedition, the greatest crop in the history of the company.

The regular dividend of 3 per cent was declared, payable on Sept. 30th.

The statement in a morning paper that 12,000 shares of Utah Sugar sold during last week was, of course, a typographical error. The amount should have been 1,500. The stock in fact was sold at $16 per share. The purpose of raising funds to buy his partner, Mr. A. Keyser's interest in the Fisher brewery, the consideration was $50,000 for the last interest.

The Consolidated Railway & Power company will receive $21,653 in fire insurance as the result of the burning of its car shed, Monday, the 6th inst.

Today's clearings amounted to $568, 734.45, as compared with $565,425.18 for the corresponding date last year. For the first time in several months have the day's clearings been exceeded by those for the corresponding day of last year.

Spencer Clawson, who is now located at 121 south Temple street, announces that Lawrence H. Young, representing the Phoenix Insurance company, through Wm. C. Corcoran, agents, and F. H. Young, adjuster, has paid that company's policy of $1,500 in full, on stock consumed by last week's fire. The policy was issued in disagreement of any kind and payment was promptly made after the adjuster had finished his work.

The Southworth Consolidated Mining and Milling company today incorporated with a capital stock of 30,000 in 10 cent shares. The directors of the company are: D. P. Felt, president; J. E. Felt, secretary and treasurer; H. W. Southworth and R. T. Southworth.

AFTERNOON MINING CALL.

Pieces on the Up Grade—Eagle & Blue Bell Stronger.

Prices were generally strong on the mining exchange this afternoon. Eagle and Blue Bell released some of their shares at prices ranging between $10 and $11, while Bess Tweed jumped up to $3. Daily was also much stronger, selling up to $1. Richmond Amador was in great demand at $3.25. Tensora jumped to $4. Daily was also much stronger, selling up to $1. Richmond Amador was in great demand at $3.25. Tensora jumped to $4. Daily was also much stronger, selling up to $1. Richmond Amador was in great demand at $3.25. Tensora jumped to $4.

LATE LOCALS.

Orders were received at Fort Douglas this morning to fire a salute of thirteen guns, followed by a gun every thirty minutes until midnight. The orders further direct that on Thursday all operations are to be suspended at Fort Douglas and a salute of twenty-one guns will be fired at night.

Senator Kearns accompanied by Hon. David Keith, left this morning for Washington to attend the funeral of President McKinley. As the funeral will be held in Washington on Tuesday instead of on Wednesday, as was announced with the wishes of Mr. McKinley, the senator will probably go direct to Canton.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Theater tonight "A Texas Steer" will begin an engagement of three nights. The play is so well known that it needs no words of commendation.

At the Grand "The Kirwin Company" begins another week of vaudeville and burlesque.
At the Theater no one could be found who knew whether or not the house would be closed on Thursday, the day of President McKinley's funeral. The "Floradora" engagement opens that night, and the company, which is in Denver, is now being communicated with.

At the Grand it was stated that no performance will be given.

Auditor's Department Moves Into High School Building.

MORE FOLLOW WEDNESDAY.

By the End of Week All Departments
Expect to Be Located in New Home
For Next Six Months.

No time has been lost in once more concentrating the general offices of the Oregon Short Line under one roof. The initial step in this direction was made this morning when the auditor's department moved into the assembly hall on the second floor of the vacated High school building behind the Dooly block. The rest of the offices will be in full operation on the first floor of the same building by about Wednesday or Thursday.

A veritable army of carpenters is at work fitting up the various class rooms for their occupants and within the next few days the classic atmosphere of the structure with all its sacred memories of learned dissertations on the on frontis and the glib recitation of Latin verse and French prose will be shattered by the sound of a strong man in his agony as he wrestles with the furniture and equipment of the new quarters. The local treasurer, mail room and car accountant. In the other hall will be the offices of Traffic Manager Schumacher, Assistant General Freight Agent Reeves, Chief Clerk Rogers, and two rooms for the freight clerks. Immediately opposite will be the quarters of the general passenger department and the various offices attached, the telegraph room being the first one in the hallway.

While these offices will only be temporary, Purchasing Agent L. O. Rhodes is spending about $10,000 in new furniture and equipment for the new quarters. The lease on the building signed last Friday is for the term of six months, and after March 1 the Oregon Short Line general headquarters will be permanently located in an up-to-date fire-proof building.

RECORD SHIPMENT.

Burlington Secures 130 Cars of Lamb for Shipment to Chicago.

General Agent Neslen of the Burlington is completing a huge shipment today owing to the fact that he has "scoped" all competitors to the tune of a single shipment of 130 cars of lambs. The young muttons are now being loaded at Speed, Idaho, and commencing today there will be a trainload of them leave every four days until the entire lot has been cleaned up. This big bunch is a part of a purchase made by those two well-known river town shepherds, Charles Danie and George F. Beckstead, from the J. D. Woods Livestock company.

CLARK AND HILL.

President of San Pedro Goes East
With Head of Burlington.

After returning to Butte from the meeting in this city Senator W. A. Clark boarded a special train and went to San Pedro, where he will meet with the great northern. This action will undoubtedly have the effect of starting up all the rumors that have been current for some time past to the effect that Senator Clark and J. J. Hill are now together with the San Pedro road as soon as it is completed. As the Great Northern Pacific and the Burlington interests are practically merged, and the same is true of that they are virtually consolidated, the stock of the three companies being controlled by J. J. Hill and his associates, the fact that Senator Clark and J. J. Hill are now together will start a lot of rumors in railroad circles. That Senator Clark's visit to this city and subsequent conference with the Burlington representatives was merely for the postponement of the pending cases in Carson City seems to be hardly in keeping with the multi-millionaire's general policy of a broad smile today in this city is that Senator Clark would not have come to Salt Lake to settle a point that could easily have been arrived at by the lawyers who are looking after the estate, and that his presence in this city last week had more significance than was given out at the time.

LARIMER RESIGNS.

E. N. Botsford Appointed Acting
Chief Dispatcher of Utah Division.

Effective today E. N. Botsford has been advanced to the important position of acting chief dispatcher of the Utah Division, Oregon Short Line. The appointment has been made under the resignation of W. F. Larimer the chief dispatcher who enters the employ of the Utah Pacific at Denver.

FOR BETTER ROADWAY.

County Commissioners Send Letter to City Council.

At the meeting of the county commissioners this morning County Treasurer Dale's appointment of Miss Adelle Dunbar as a clerk in his office at a salary of $60 a month, was confirmed.

Rebates of licenses were allowed as follows: Utah Liquor company, doing business at Saltair, $157.25 out of $187.50, paid on August 30th; L. W. Dittman, Calder's Park, $100.00 out of $125.00, paid on August 30th; L. Nickum, merchant doing business at Calder's Park, $3.20 out of a fee of $5.25 paid on August 30th; Saltair Beach company, license for the sale of soda water, candy, popcorn, etc., $5.15 out of $6.25 paid on August 30th.

A communication was received from the city recorder calling attention to a letter received from Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield on the 11th inst., and referred to the county commissioners. The county clerk was directed to return to the council Mr. Westerfield's letter with the following respectful suggestions:

"Gentlemen—I am directed by the board of county commissioners of Salt Lake county to return to the communication of Land and Water Commissioner S. B. Westerfield with the following respectful suggestions:

"That the stock road up Emigration and over Little Mountain and near Big Mountain is not now, and never has been, a county road.

"That it is a road which Salt Lake City assumed to provide for the driving of stock in lieu of the county road up Parley's canyon.

"That Salt Lake City, having been deprived, by ordinance, the people of Salt Lake county, of a good and necessary roadway through the mountains to Summit county, is bound in justice to provide a good road in place of the one taken. That up to the present time the road provided is not a good substitute for the one closed up, and in consequence, the stock owners of Salt Lake county are being dealt with unjustly by Salt Lake City.

"That the reference to the board of county commissioners of Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield's communication to the City Council is entirely uncalled for, it being the duty of Salt Lake City to deal honorably and justly with the people affected by its action."

REPORT OF THE AUTOPSY.

Bullet Which Struck the Breast Bone Did Little Harm.

Other Passed Through Both Walls of Stomach—Death Resulted From Gangrene.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The physicians decided this morning to hold the autopsy on the body of President McKinley at 11 o'clock. The time was fixed at that late hour on account of the physicians being quite fatigued from last night's work. The autopsy was performed by Dr. Gaylord and Dr. Mattinger of the New York state laboratory connected with the University of Buffalo, in the presence of the entire staff of consulting physicians, and District Attorney Penney in his official capacity. Stenographer Storey of the district attorney's office took the notes as they were dictated.

The following report of the autopsy upon the remains of President McKinley was issued at 5 o'clock:

The bullet which struck over the breast bone did not pass through the skin and did little harm. The other bullet passed through both walls of the stomach near its lower border. Both holes were found to be perfectly closed by the stitches, but the tissue around each hole had become gangrenous.

After passing through the stomach, the bullet passed into the back wall of the abdomen, hitting and tearing the upper end of the kidney. This portion of the bullet's track was also gangrenous, the gangrene involving the pancreas. The bullet has not yet been found.

There was no sign of peritonitis or disease of other organs. The heart walls were very thin.

There was no evidence of any attempt at repair on the part of nature, which affected the stomach around the bullet wounds, as well as the tissues around the further course of the bullet. Death was unavoidable by any surgical or medical treatment, and was
