

the company say the suit was brought by F. J. Bradley, who says he is the holder of common stock and is of no importance. He asks that the company be enjoined from issuing bonds or making mortgages until Congress consents. This consent was given long ago, and Bradley has no standing. He had 200 shares of common stock transferred to him on Saturday in order to bring the suit.

LONDON, 22.—Lord Rosemore, as Grand Master of Orangemen of Monaghan, has written to a newspaper calling attention to the serious state of affairs in Ulster. He says henceforth the self-restraint of Orangemen cannot be reckoned upon; that only the utmost efforts of himself and other leaders prevented the Orangemen from storming the hill at Rosslea during the recent Parnellite meeting. If the government, he adds, allows such disloyal meetings to continue in Ulster there will be bloodshed and perhaps civil war.

A National League demonstration, followed by a banquet, was held at Wexford on Sunday. Davitt denounced landlordism, and said he regretted to observe the National League did not present the solid front it possessed three years ago. He asked the manhood of the country to push forward the organization until victory should crown or defeat overcome its efforts. Healy maintained that the rate of interest under the laborers' act was too high. He warned the people against land grabbing. At the banquet Healy was presented with a purse of $500 from residents of County Wexford.

Gen. Pryor, O'Donnell's American counsel, said he was satisfied O'Donnell killed Carey in self-defense. It would be proved that O'Donnell went to Africa with no design of killing Carey, and was unaware of the latter's presence on the steamer when he embarked. Carey finding himself discovered, provoked a quarrel in order to anticipate the blow which he expected O'Donnell would strike. Manslaughter was the most O'Donnell could be found guilty of. Every effort is being made to bring witnesses from Cape Town to England. "I believe," Pryor said, "O'Donnell will have a fair trial. I find there is no prejudice against him. I do not expect to take a public part in the trial, but simply to help other counsel by consultation. I will remain in London until the trial is finished. I have seen O'Donnell, and he impresses me as a simple minded, ingenious Irishman; anything but an assassin." The trial will occur the middle of November, and last two or three days.

Paris, 22.—Gaulois says Prince Jerome Napoleon will publish a manifesto.

The wife of John Russell Young died this morning.

General Cameron, minister of war, says he will devote all his energy to the reform of the system for mobilizing the army. The prospect of a war with Germany will be uppermost in his mind.

The situation in Tonquin is most serious. If the French attack Bachnin, war with China will be inevitable.

Newspapers state that the French have discovered that the forts at Bachnin are mounted with Krupp guns and are too strong to be taken by assault.

Tonquin generally is in a state of anarchy. The radius of French rule does not extend beyond the French line of sentries.

Shanghai, 22.—The Chinese Admiral has arrived here with eight gunboats. Sir George F. Brown, English Governor of Hong Kong, left Peking for Hong Kong after a satisfactory interview with the Chinese Minister of Foreign Affairs.

St. Petersburg, 22.—The first number of a Socialist paper, Will of the People, which is printed abroad, has reached the city. It contains a letter from the Nihilist prisoner Netschajeff to the Czar. Netschajeff was condemned ten years ago, and was supposed to be dead. The writer complains of the inhumanity of the prison officials, and the terrible treatment to which he and his fellow-prisoners are subjected. He says he has recently been deprived of the little light hitherto allowed him. The journal adds that the letter was originally written in blood on a printed piece of paper, and a great portion, therefore, is illegible. The letter created great excitement among the Nihilists at St. Petersburg.

Constantinople, 22.—Later details confirm the statement that the first accounts of the earthquake in Anatolia were greatly exaggerated.

At Vourla, near Smyrna, where 200 huts were wrecked, only two persons were killed and seven injured. One thousand inhabitants are quartered in long tents outside the ruins of the village. Ten hamlets near Cheame suffered more or less. Altogether 57 were killed and 150 injured in that district. The foregoing number of persons killed represents the total loss of life. Although 14,687 persons were rendered homeless, all are being fed by the authorities in obedience to the Sultan's orders. The sick are being placed under shelter, and attended by doctors.

At Cheame 20 houses sustained damage, but in most cases slight. A fresh shock of earthquake was felt to-day at Tchese, causing great damage.

Admiral Hay telegraphed Lord Dufferin, British ambassador, "Help is urgently needed."

BERLIN, 23.—After a trial which caused much excitement, two Jews were convicted at Coshin, Pomerania, of setting fire to a synagogue in order to obtain the insurance. They were sentenced to four years imprisonment. Others implicated were sentenced to shorter terms. The crime was originally attributed to Christians.

Paris, 23.—The Yellow Book recounts the operations of the French forces at Tonquin, and says their position has materially improved. They can now move freely to all the ports of the Red River delta and hold all the strategic points of that territory. The mandarins who resist French authority will be removed by envoys of the King of Anam, and the people are regaining confidence. The Anamite troops have disbanded and the Black Flags retreated. The French army now only awaits reinforcements to complete the pacification of the country. The book also gives details of negotiations with China, which have been conducted, it says, in good temper on both sides. France is firm in demanding the non-interference of China in Tonquin affairs, and the withdrawal of her troops from that country, and China is indicating her willingness to come to some arrangement, but declines to accede to the full demands of the French.

PARIS, 23.—In the course of the negotiations, which were thrice broken off, Lacour observed that the presence of Chinese troops in Tonquin, whatever might be the motive, encouraged and assisted the enemies of France, and begged Tseng to call the serious attention of the government of China to the consequences, and to the danger from a conflict between France and China. The government of China submitted proposals involving the evacuation of Tonquin by the French troops, the maintenance of the sovereignty of China over the territory, and the opening of certain towns to the benefit of trade. These proposals were rejected by France, and counter proposals submitted by France on the 18th of September, for a neutral zone between China and Tonquin. This proposition was declined by China, the 15th of October, that government declaring that she would accept a neutral zone only on the southern instead of the northern frontier of Tonquin; while it was stated that she was also willing to make arrangements for the opening of the river delta to trade.

The Yellow Book concludes as follows: "Thus China demands the whole of northern Anam and the French evacuation thereof, allowing us only the southern provinces. No doubt the arrival of the reinforcement expedition will promptly facilitate the work begun at Tonquin. France is still ready to negotiate with China in a friendly spirit, and hopes accomplished facts will induce her to take a more just view of the matter, especially when she sees the moderate, but still resolute, policy of the French Government, supported by the Chambers and the country."

Captain Drevier, who left Dover on Monday in a miniature paddle boat to attempt to cross the Channel, met with a gale when part way over, and has not since been heard from. It is feared he has been drowned.

At a meeting of Royalist Deputies it was unanimously agreed to remain steadfastly united, and to issue an appeal to the adherents of the party to remain devoted to the cause.

Havre, 23.—The General Trans-Atlantic Company's steamer Normandie, from New York, collided with and sank a schooner. The Normandie sustained much damage.

Strasbourg, 23.—A great sensation is caused here by two mysterious murders, one victim being an apothecary's assistant, whose body was found fearfully mangled; the other a military sentinel, found on the ground near his post, with his head crushed in. The motive for the commission of the murders is unknown. No arrests have been made.

St. Petersburg, 23.—A new treaty of delineation of the Russo-Chinese frontier was officially signed at Schugachuk on the 19th inst.

Madrid, 23.—The cabinet has resolved to summon the Cortes to meet Dec. 1st.

A royal decree has been issued providing that henceforth general officers shall hold staff appointments for only three years. The enforcement of the decree will involve the resignation of the captain general, seven lieutenant generals, five field marshals, and forty brigadiers. This is the first step in the new scheme for the reform of the army.

Constantinople, 23.—Three shocks of earthquake were felt to-day at Tchese and on the Island of Chios. Great alarm was created, but no damage done. Another severe shock was felt at Smyrna at 9 p. m. The telegraph office was damaged, but not badly.

Alexandria, 23.—The Egyptians have completely routed El Mahdi, the false prophet.

San Francisco, 23.—The City of Tokio brings Yokohama advices to October 6th, Hong Kong to September 29th.

From Hong Kong the Catholic Register announces the death of Father Lewis Martinetti, who during 48 years labored in the interior of China, without having a single leave to go home.

Among the passengers on the Tokio from Hong Kong, who have arrived here, are Duke Albright, of Mecklenburg Schwerin, grandson of the Emperor of Germany, Count Stersteroff and Baron Von Tiele. They remain here several days, then go east.
