Gilman, the Forger.

NEW YORK, 11.—It is reported to-day, on good authority, that the case of William C. Gilman, insurance scrip forger, has been laid before the grand jury. The best informed persons think Gilman is still in the city.

The World says that Gilman, the forger, has written to the court promising to give himself up to-day. His friends informed the judge that they would see that he kept his word. He has made a full confession and will be indicted.

Adulterated Milk.

Daniel Schrumpf, convicted of selling adulterated milk, and under this conviction locked up in the Tombs, on the following morning was found insane from the shock.

Adams' Benefit.

The sale of boxes and seats for Adams' benefit has reached $7,000.

The Paris Exposition.

A meeting was held this afternoon of prominent merchants, bankers, manufacturers and representative men from nearly every State interested in the Paris Exposition. M. Condert presided, and expressed the hope that everything would be done on this side to exhibit the industries of the great west in Paris. A national executive committee of representative men throughout the country was appointed.

The Chair was authorized to appoint a committee to go to Washington and urge upon the President an acceptance of the invitation of France to take part in the International Exhibition, and to make proper provision for Americans represented there.

The Speakership of the House.

WASHINGTON, 11.—The following has been issued:

A caucus of democratic members elect to the Forty-fifth Congress will be held according to usage in the hall of the House of Representatives on Saturday evening, October 13th, at 8 o'clock, to nominate candidates for Speaker and other offices of the House, and to transact such further business as may be necessary.

(Signed) HIESTER CLYMER,
Chairman of the National Congressional Committee.

Raid on Illicit Distilleries.

Collector Mott of the Sixth North California district sends to the commissioner of internal revedte a report of a raid in Burke county, with five revenue officers. They seized in South Mountains three distilleries, sixty barrels of whisky and two barrels of brandy, and captured N. and A. Yorke. The property and persons were taken to Morgantown. While the revenue officers were descending the mountain with their booty they were constantly assailed by a party armed with rifles, and all but one were wounded, deputy collector Gillespie seriously. The same officers, about two weeks before, were shot at by concealed persons.

Willing to Go.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has advices from Red Cloud Agency that the Sioux, since the return of the chiefs from Washington, express a willingness to go to the Missouri River.

Murdered by Disguised Men.

Deputy Collector Hughes telegraphs from Columbia, Tenn., that Williams, who acted as guide for him on a recent raid against illicit distillers in Lawrence, was taken from his house on Monday night by disguised men and murdered.

Central Pacific Railroad.

The Central Pacific Railroad is before the United States Supreme Court in an action against the United States to recover the freightage on government property. The railroad company contend that under the decision in the Union Pacific Railroad Company vs. the United States, these companies are not required to pay interest which has been paid by government on its bonds before maturity of the principal of the bonds, and hence government has no present claim against them which can be subject to offset against their claim for freight charges.

Convention of Rivermen.

ST. PAUL, 11.—The rivermen's convention, to-day, was largely attended. After three hours' work the committee on resolutions submitted a series, urging upon Congress the necessity of an appropriation sufficient to secure good navigation from the falls of St. Anthony to the Gulf, indicating five feet from St. Louis to St. Paul, eight feet thence to Cairo and ten thence to New Orleans, as the proper depth; urging that improvement to be made most prominent in all appropriations for internal works. The executive committee appointed to memorialize Congress for building levees by the general government was endorsed. Government was asked to publish the maps and surveys of General Warren.

The Indian Delegation.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, 11.—The Indian delegation arrived safely this evening, reporting their visit to Washington satisfactory. The Indians at the Agency were patiently awaiting the report from the chiefs. No trouble is anticipated. The official count given by the military authorities at Camp Robinson show during the year the surrender of 900 warriors, and forty went away without permission.

President Hayes and Party Visit the Fair Grounds.

FREDERICK, Md., 11—The President, Secretary McCrary, Attorney General Devens and W. W. Corcoran arrived in a special car provided by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. On the way to Frederick the band aboard played patriotic airs. The distinguished party arrived at 11 and were immediately driven to the fair grounds. They were conducted to the main stand in full view of thousands of persons from Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia. The President having been introduced to the multitude and received with enthusiastic cheers, John Ritchie delivered an address of welcome. The orator assured the President that the masses of his countrymen would award the verdict of "Well done" for having used the opportunity of his great office to bring back peace and unity to this long distracted land.

The President after thanking him, said the interests to be promoted by an institution like this is the most important single interest in our country. If the farmer or planter is prosperous it is almost certain the country will be prosperous. Every other interest finds its advantage in whatever promotes agricultural interest, and if to-day we may with reason rejoice at the prospect of reviving prosperity in our country, it is very largely because the agriculture of the country is prosperous. Good crops and good prices for agricultural product make good times (applause). All avenues of trade find their gains in the transportation of agricultural products. We come, then, to take part in your fair because it largely represents to the country the agricultural interest of your own county of Frederick, as we l as that throughout the United States. And now, in conclusion, I wish to say I was formerly treated so well in the city of Frederick that I shall always remember with affection and gratitude to your citizens the days I spent here (applause). Permit me to introduce to you the attorney general of the United States.

The Attorney General having expressed the pleasure it gave him to be present, made a few general remarks.

Secretary McCrary was then introduced. He said he came from the fertile region of the northwest, where almost the only industry is agriculture. If he might utter a word of advice to young men here assembled, it would be to ask them not to turn their course toward the great cities, but to look toward the great agricultural sources of prosperity. The old States were too full, and the agricultural lands there were all taken. He would not, as Horace Greeley did, advise them to go west, but as an Iowa man, ask them to come west. There were broad acres of cheap and fertile lands to encourage honorable industry, and when the surplus industry shall be turned in that direction you will see fewer idle men roaming the country in quest of work.

Numerous persons crowded to the stand and shook hands with the President, Secretary McCrary and the Attorney General. The party were then escorted through the fair grounds, the display being large in all departments, and afterwards to the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, and the cemetery, containing both Union and Confederate soldiers. The party dined at the City Hotel as the guests of the Agricultural Association.

On the way to the cars, as on the arrival in the morning, the streets were crowded with people to see the distinguished visitors. The reception was everywhere general, and the President expressed the great pleasure that the trip had afforded. All returned to Washington at half-past seven.

WESTERN.

Pioneer Bank Creditors.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—A number of creditors of the Pioneer Bank are trying to force the concern into bankruptcy. It is ascertained that Duncan, president, recently affected an insurance of his life in various companies to amounts aggregating $90,000, which leads many to suspect that he suicided.

$100,000 Fire.

Almost the entire business portion of Vacaville, Solane County, together with a number of residences, burnt this morning. The loss aggregates upwards of $100,000; insurance over $50,000, distributed in sums among local, eastern and foreign companies. Incendiary.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Fatal Colliery Explosion.

LONDON, 11.—An explosion took place to-day in a colliery at Pemberton, Lancashire. Of over forty miners in the pit only five have so far been rescued. Three of the rescuers were suffocated.

Marquis of Salisbury and the War.

The Marquis of Salisbury, in a speech at Bradford, said, the war was not likely to be abandoned until either of the belligerents was strikingly defeated or utterly exhausted. England, he said, was not at present in a position, without departing from her neutrality, to offer anything but mere general pacific advice.

Eastern War News.

An official newspaper, Romanul, says a large number of Hungarians have entered Little Wallachia. The Roumanian general has taken precautionary measures.

Russian has undertaken to pay Servia 1,000,000 roubles monthly from the time the Servian army is sent to the frontier.

Mehemet Ali and Ashmet Eyoub Pashas have arrived at Constantinople to attend the council of war.

Mukhtar Pasha's official dispatches explain that the battle fought on Tuesday, near Aladja Dagh, was caused by an attempt by Russians to surprise a corps of observation posted at Koshan to cover the concentration of his forces at Aladja Dagh. Mukhtar claims that he repulsed the Russians with a loss of 1,200 men.

A Russian official dispatch says the Turks destroyed their bridge at Silistria. The same dispatch claims that on the 9th instant a Turkish three-masted monitor struck a torpedo near Salina and blew up.

Cold rain and lack of winter clothing are causing great mortality in the Russo-Roumanian army. The number of deaths in the last twenty days are, of the army before Plevna, 4,000; of the Czarowitch, 4,800; in the Dobrudscha, 3,000; and at Tirnova and Schipka, 2,000. Russians in Bulgaria, including reinforcements, number only 230,000 combatants.

The Times says at St. Petersburg the rate of exchange is 23 pence, the lowest rate since the Crimean war. There seems to have been a kind of panic there yesterday, due to the great depreciation of paper currency, which depreciation threatens temporarily to engulf the nation in bankruptcy.

FRANCE.

McMahon's Second Manifesto, etc.

PARIS, 11.—The second manifesto has been issued by President McMahon. He denies that the republican constitution is in danger of Government under clerical influences, or that he is inclined to a policy which might endanger peace, and appeals to the electors not to plunge the country into an unknown future of crisis and conflicts by returning opposition candidates. The manifesto lays great stress on the fact that duty forbids the marshal to forsake his post, and concludes: I answer for order and peace.

The bureau of the senatorial left have issued a counter manifesto asking the people to disbelieve those who declare republican institutions are not in peril and that government do not obey clerical influences. Official candidates are enemies of the republic.

The Bien Public says United States Minister Noyes had an interview with Duke de Cazes, today, relative to the case of Benel, the American, who claims that he was expelled from France without any assigned reason.
