Masked Men Hold Up the Westbound Burlington & Missouri Train Near St. Joseph, Mo.

THEY DYNAMITED THE SAFE.

Everything in it Was Taken, Reports Varying as to the Amount it Contained.

Joseph, Mo., Sept. 22.-Four masked men at 10 o'clock tonight held up the westbound Burlington & Missouri River train No. 41, five miles north of this city.

The safe in the express car was dynamited and the car wrecked. Officials or the road say that the safe contained but little money. Other reports say that it contained from $5,000 to $10,000 in money. Everything in the safe was taken and the men escaped in the darkness with horses.

A posse was organized and is in pur-the bandits. Not a single shot was fired. The train was stopped by means of a red light. The engine and express car were uncoupled from the balance of the train and backed half a mile further on, where it was dynamited.

The train was in charge of Conductor Harvey, who hurried to the city and gave the alarm. The officers lost no time in organizing and making a start. It was necessary for the entire train to be brought back to the city and a new be brought back to the city and a new train made up, which left at 1 o'clock. According to meager reports received from the scene of the hold-up at mid-night, the instant the train was stopped two of the robbers climbed into the enrine and, with drawn weapons, com-pelled the engineer and fireman to obey

CURTIS JETT GUILTY. The Jury Fixes the Punishment At Death.

Cynthiana, Ky., Sept. 22 .- After a Cynthiana. Ky., Sept. 22.—After a trial lasting eight days the jury in the case of Curtis Jett, charged with the murder of Town Marshal Cockrill at Jackson, Ky., July 21, 1962, this evening rendered a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at death.

The jury retired at 2:44 p. m. When the jury entered the courtroom at 5:10 p. m. after agreeing on a verdict, quiet

m. after agreeing on a yerdict, quiet reigned for a few moments. Jett' mother had gone away earlier, unde the impression that no verdict would be reached, and the verdict of death, coming about we hours after the jury was out, was a surprise to every one in the courtroom. The reading of the verdict did not affect Jett, but his brother was very much distressed. Elljah McKinney served as foreman of the jury, and after the delivery of the verdict to the court the jury was polled. The death sentence was then read to Jett by Clerk T. J. Robinson, after which he was given over to the custody of the deputy sheriffs. Col. Blanton, Jett's lawyer, will file a motion for a new trial temorrow.

This has been the second trial of Curtis Jett on the charge of murder. In his first trial for the murder of J. B. Marcum at Jackson, Ky., Jett and Thomas White were sentenced to life jurors agreed among themselves The juriors agreed among themselves not to divulge the proceedings in the juryroom. One juror, however, stated that for four ballots 11 jurors voted for the death penalty and one for a life sentence. All agreed on the fifth ballot.

WANTED TO SEE ROOSEVELT.

Suspecious Looking Swede Held Up by Officers at Sagamore Hill.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 22.—A suspicious character giving his name as samuel Swenyon, was held up by the ceret service officers at Sagamore Hill late this afternoon while making an effort to see the president. He was turned back to the village, shadowed, alopped in Oyster Bay, searched, and later placed on a train for New York. He was unarmed and appearel to be a harmless crank, possibly a religious function.

Swenyon, who is a slightly built man of about 35 years, with a reddishbrown beard and mustache, blue eyes and a strongly foreign cast of countenance, walked up to the roadway leading to Sagamere Hill about 4:30 this aftermoon. He was shabblly attired, his clothes being badly torn in several places. He was stopped by a secret service officer.

The Price of Pleasure.

It is hard for a lovely woman to forego the pleasures of the life which she was created to enjoy and adorn. She may have to be busy all day in office or in store, yet she cannot deny herself the social pleasures which are offered her.

But the fatigue is often too great for her, and she suf-fers from headache and backache as a consequence of over-exertion.

Women who are tired and worn out will find a perfect tonic and pervine in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures headache, backache and the other aches and pains to which vomen are subject. t establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weak ness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

sick women well.

"I am so pleased with your instructions, I hardly know what thanks to give you for your kind favors," writes Mrs Milo Bryant, of Lota. Thomas Co., Ga. "I suffered so much with great so much with great pains in my back and the lower part of my stomach and palpitation of the heart, that at times I could hardly lie down. Could hardly get up in the morning, but after using three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two viats of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, I am like a new woman."

Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are in-vited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The man was turned back by the officer, who told him the president was not at home. Swenyon, who said he was a gardner, looked curiously about the grounds, and then started on his return to the village. He was followed by another officer in one of the president's road wagons.

Swenyon asked a passing driver for a ride, and rode into the village with him. He had scarcely arrived in Oysnim. He had scarrely arrived in Oyster Bay when he was taken from the wagon by two secret service officers, and examined. Swenyon had nothing in his pockets except about four dollars in money and a Swedish religious newspaper. On a sheet of paper he wrote his name and address in a perfectly legible hand.

wrote his name and address in a perfectly legible hand.

His only object in coming to Oyster Bay, he said, was to see Sagamore Hill and the president, about whom he had heard and read a great deal. He arrived here on the 3.19 train this afternoon, but did not have a return ticket to New York. After examining him thoroughly the officers were convinced that he was neither an anarchist nor a sohe was neither an anarchist nor a so-

He readily acceded to the suggestion of the officers that he leave the village, They accompanied him to the station, and he bought his own ticket to New York. He left on the 6:07 train, shak-ing hands with the officers before he ing hands with the officers before he entered the car. At no time did he appear to be excited except when one of the officers at Sagamore Hill told him that if he returned he was liable to be shot. He left the hill in a hurry, He answered all questions in a frank and straightforward manner, and bore every evidence of being an unsorbistic. every evidence of being an unsophisti-cated foreigner, touched slightly, per-haps, with religious fanaticism, who had been induced to come here merely by his curiosity.

PRINCE FERDINAND, THE AMBITIOUS RULER OF BULGARIA

Prince Ferdinand, the ruler of Bulgaria, is about forty-two years old and has not yet accomplished his long cherished purpose of emulating the example of his predecessor, Prince Alexander, by adding to the territory of his little state. A war with Turkey, the prince is inclined to think, might have the effect of giving the Bulgarians entire independence instead of the Turkish autonomy under which they have been struggling since the treaty of Berlin. Incidentally, it might also give him Macedonia, whose people would not be averse to this termination of their troubles. Ferdinand, however, has many enemies in Bulgaria and is in constant fear of assassination, a fear which appears to be well founded, inasmuch as several plots to kill him have been circumvented only through fortunate accidents. Prince Ferdinand's heir is Prince Boris, a handsome little fellow about ten years of age.
