BEGINNING OF THE BIG RACE

How the Placky Twenty-Four Hour Men Started Off Last Night.

At two minutes past 10 o'clock last night, the twenty-four hour three-cor-nered motor paced race between John Lawson, Charles Tuhville and W. F. King began under the most favorable circumstances. The sky was clear and the air cool and bracing. There was a good sized crowd on hand to see the start, and many remained all night. The big event was preceded by sprint races for professionals and amateurs. The half mile open professional was won by Waine in 1:03 flat, with Gib-son second, and Gus Lawson third. Hume won the mile handicap ama-teur, Hopper, second and Jimmy Smith, third. The time was 2:01 2-5. On the start of the twenty-four hour race, Lawson got the pole but Turville soon took the lead and maintained it through the night. King followed soon took the lead and maintained it through the night. King followed closely, and the two set a terrific pace which they kept up all night. About midnight Turville gained a lap on King but could get no more. Lawson rode steadily and even all the time, but gradually lost ground, ow-ing to the increased speed of his oppo-ments. Up to five o'clock this morn-ing King appeared to be the stronger of the two, and at times was heard to hum softly to bimself, and again he hum softly to himself, and again he would laugh and "josh" with the trainers and pace-makers. His riding was admired by everybody at the track.

Turville rode with bull dog determin-ation and kept the pace he began with, King remained with him. Along about one o'clock the riders began to take re freshments which were handed to them bottles by their trainers. All the pacing machines worked beautifully all night, so there could be no disappointment on that score

About 4 o'clock, Lawson made the first dismount but returned to his wheel in a few minutes. Up to five o'clock, Turville had cov ered 200 miles and King was still only one lap behind him. Lawson had trav-eled only 184 miles. ered

DRUNKS HELD OVER. Headache

There was an air of mourning in the dingy old police court upstairs in the city hall this afternoon. Judge Timmony was absent. The liftle knot of crepe on the back of the chair he had occupied for the past four years, and the subducd voices of those within the court room before Justice Dana T.

Smith took his seat, bore testimony to the loss that had been sustained by citizen and sinner allke.

this afternoon. The plain and compli-cated drunks behind the bars of the city cated drumks behind the bars of the city jail were not brought out to receive their sentences. They will face the new justice tomorrow. In the meantime there are some ten petty offenders be-hind the bars, some of whom have been confined in the jail without a hearing since Saturday. As they are not con-versant with the mysteries of habeas comme proceedings they will under the edly remain there until tomorrow. The two state cases arraigned this afternoon were those of young Ruben Littleford and James Kennedy, both charged with burglary. The cases were respectively heard by Justice Smith and Justice Lochrie. Reuben Littleford promptly pleaded guilty to the charge of entering the store of Brown & Lee 794 west First South, and stealing therefrom a quantity of tobacco and candy. He was held in bonds of $100, in default of which he was handed over to the keeping of the sheriff.

James Kennedy, the man who was arrested by Officer Pack last night with a gripful of clothing in his possession, did not want to plead to anything. Af-ter a painful pause he said he was not guilty and would like the preliminary hearing postponed for two months as he wanted to communicate with his friends in St. Louis. By way of a compromise his case was set for hearing at 2 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 12. Kennedy is said to have broken into the store of J P. Gardiner last night and when arrested was carrying a telescope con-taining $82 worth of clothing, all of which, including the grip, has been ionified by Mr. Gardiner as being his property. He was remanded into the custody of Sheriff Naylor.

Prominent Democrats to Meet.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 2 .- Considerable significance is thought to attach to the acceptance of an invitation of the Jacksonian club of this city to speak St its annual picnic, September 21st, by Governors Guiberson of Texas and Me-Millan of Tennessee. William J. Bryan has also signified his willingness to address the Democrats of Nebraska at that time, which is said to add to the significance of the occasion,

It is not known what steps, if any will be taken toward outlining future policies and discussing probable Democratic candidates, but one or two party leaders have intimated that these ers will come up.

The club had partially decided to extend the invitation to David ... Hill to present and deliver an address, but for reasons which were not made public this was not done. Several notable Decoctatic leaders will be present other than those mentioned, however, and elaborate arrangements are being made fo: their entertainmen',

THE BELLE OF THE COUNTRY

San Juan, Porto Rico, Aug. 28 .- (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)-The coffee question is still agitating the entire island, and town councils are one by one following the example set by the large seaports and are declaring a $125 tax on every 1,000 bilos of coffee. It has been discovered that Brazillian cof fee has been used in Porto Rico since last March by the army. One reason given for its use is that the United States government would not pay price put upon other coffee by the islad dealers

It is said that the dealers asked fanc prices for the coffee and that they had a sliding scale. The government declined to buy at such rates and gave the trade to other places.

The "beauty contest" started here three months ago has closed. Miss Ana Maria Hernandez of Ponce was de lared the prettiest girl in Porto Rico, ing a majority of the 175,137 votes Miss Hernandez preferred the JEST. ash prize, and at once gave it to char-

Civil Governor Taft said today that the ceremony does not fully complete the government the president intends but sufficient has been done to show the nature of the policy to be followed. Municipal governments have been generally formed of a substantial-ly autonomous character. Their officers are entirely natives. The provincial governments are partly American and partly Filipino. Now the Philippine commission is partly American and partly Filipino, it being the purpose of the President, to form a government in which the native element will be able to voice the desires of the people, their local aspirations and necessities and give the Filipinos an example of American institutions and the customs and laws prevailing in the United States. Dr. de Tavera said that hardly had the people begun to apreciate the work of pacification than they were accorded the institutions of peace. The enemy of the evening before began the next morning to aid their adversaries in building roads and houses and introducing acts of peace. The day was not far distant when the Filipinos would enter a legislative body for the islands, elected by the people. Conditions prevent the elections at present. The Fil-ipinos consider it today to be solemn and grand, because it is the first time they have been given part in the supreme government. They believe that the day is coming when the American Constitution, as a whole, without am-putations, will be planted there, as the flag now is.

Dutch are Divided.

London, Sept. 3 .- A dispatch from Middelburg to the Times says the approach of mid-September has had the effect of drawing a sharp line between the two parties among the Cape Colony Dutch. A few of them have joined the fighting burghers in consequence of exampration at loss of exasperation at Lord Kitchener's latest proclamation, but others have thrown in their lot with the British. Last week the British authorities re ceived two offers on the part of the Dutch inhabitants of Cape Colony to raise a special corps to hunt for Boef rebels

New York, Sept. 3 .- A dispatch from

Brussels to the Times says that no credence is given in that city to the rumor that President Kruger would be received by the czar in the course of his majesty's visit to France, though the pro-Boer organs consider such destrable. step

The leading papers understand that Emperor Nicholas has refused to receive the Boer ex-president, and that this decision indicates the attitude of France and Russia to be the same as that of Germany. It is believed that neither of the three powers will consider intervention.
