

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fred Wey and their daughter, Mrs. Vaughn Paul, will return the last of the week from the Yellowstone park.

Mrs. W. S. Jensen has as her guest Mrs. T. W. Odell of Topeka, Kan., who will spend a month or six weeks here.

Mrs. H. L. Charles and small son have returned from southern California, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Belfuss and son, Milton, have returned from spending the summer in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Starley have returned from a trip to Portland, Seattle and the Pacific northwest.

Miss Emily Curtis, who has spent a part of the summer with friends in Santa Monica, will be home in Friday of this week.

Miss Gladys Sears of Boston is here, the guest of Miss Stella Fabian, for several weeks.

Miss Halloran and her guest, Miss Macey of Chicago, spent Tuesday in Provo canyon.

Miss Theresa Murrell of Kansas City spent Tuesday here with Miss Ione Morrison.

Mrs. Halverson of Idaho is here spending a few weeks with Mrs. E. Bonemort.

Madame Worms and her little daughter, Alice, have just returned from San Francisco, where they have been spending the summer, and are now at home at 166 north State street.

Mrs. George M. Mathews arrived yesterday from Stanford and will spend a week with Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey on her way through to Vassar.

Mrs. H. C. Bellinger and her daughter, Miss Reta Bellinger, and Miss Dorothy Rookledge, who have spent the summer at Spokane, Wash., will be back Sept. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blyth and their daughter, Miss Belle Blyth, sailed this week from New York on the Mauritania for a year's trip around the world.

Mrs. I. Clark and daughter, Mildred, left Tuesday for Denver and the east to visit relatives and friends. They will be away about two months.

Miss Mary Dysart has returned after spending the summer in Seattle, and is again at home at 606 Seventh avenue.

Gordon Bettles, Norman Lyne and Earl Harvey will leave Sept. 16 for Pennsylvania, where they will enter the Pennsylvania military college.

Mrs. H. J. Schultz will leave Sunday for Dawson, N. M., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Lambkin, and her sister, Mrs. E. L. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Middleton, who have recently come here from Los Angeles, are at home at No. 31 Bransford apartments.

Wayne Hamphill of Omaha, Neb., will be here next week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hamphill.

Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers are back from a fortnight's trip to British Columbia.

Mrs. R. L. Tracy and her son, Russell, will return today after spending the past month in southern California.

Mrs. F. S. Richards has returned from three months' stay in Europe.

Miss Alice Tomlinson, who has spent the summer in Los Angeles, will be home this week.

Judge W. C. Hall is back after a month's stay with his family in Los Angeles. Miss Ferguson will return the last of the week with Mrs. David Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter have returned from a stay of several weeks in Provo canyon.

Miss Hattie Partridge is home after a summer spent with friends in Los Angeles and the beaches.

Miss Lucy Van Cott and her mother have returned after spending a few weeks at Brighton.

Miss Frances Cowan leaves on Tuesday for the east to enter Vassar.

Mrs. Byron Cummings will be home early in the week, accompanied by her son Malcolm, after spending the past three months in the east.

Mrs. E. Meyers has returned from Washington, D. C., where she has been spending a number of months.

Miss Rose Bergerman and Miss Nellie Williams gave a card party at Lagoon yesterday in honor of Misses Winnifred Irish, Emma Dixon, and the Misses Tachowsky of Denver, about 30 girls being present during the afternoon, and a number of young men joining them in the evening. The card game was played in the Japanese tea room at Lagoon, and later supper was enjoyed, and the time spent in the various pastimes of the place, including boat rides, dancing, etc.

Miss Gwendolyn Tripp gave an afternoon party on Thursday for Miss Edna Jennings, the amusement being 50c, and five tables played. Prizes were awarded Miss Jennings and Miss Hazel Oswald. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Tripp and Mrs. Sam Fenton.

Mrs. A. T. Moon was one of Thursday's hostesses, entertaining at a tea for her cousin, Miss Darling of Elkhart, Ind. The rooms were prettily decorated, and among the pleasant features were a guessing game and delightful musical numbers by Miss Esther Allen, Miss Florence Hall, Miss Edna Evans, Miss Ivy Evans and Miss Leonore Morse.

A unique affair of Thursday was the country dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Judge at "The Cobble," where about 40 of their friends gathered, most of them in country costume, sun bonnets and aprons, and enjoyed an old-fashioned time. Country flowers and candles were everywhere evident, and a country dance in costume was among the features.

Mrs. George A. Steiner entertained at a pretty luncheon at the Country club on Thursday for her sister, Mrs. Frank Bether of Minneapolis, the table being decorated with pink asters held in an artistic Indian basket, and covers laid for about 20 guests.

Another luncheon of Thursday given at the Commercial club was that at which Miss Marie Odell was hostess, her guests of honor being Miss Winnifred Irish and Miss Marian Oberdorfer, who leave shortly to enter an eastern school. The table was bright with pink and white asters, and covers laid for about a dozen guests.

Miss Josephine Brown, whose marriage takes place in the near future, was guest of honor at Thursday at a china shower party, given by Mrs. Candland and Mrs. Harvey, the rooms being decorated in yellow, with a profusion of sunflowers, goldenrod, and nasturtiums, and the following being present: Misses Myrtle Jack, Zella Gallacher, Mildred Brown, Minnie Lambourn, Minnie Paine, Eva Lind, Tillie Larson, Myrtle and Rachel Snow, Alice Mackey and Hattie Grow.

Miss Nellie Davis gave an Orpheum party yesterday for Miss Frances Cowan, who leaves shortly for the east.

Mrs. J. B. Risque entertained on Wednesday at a luncheon in honor of May Robson, the rooms being decorated in autumn flowers and covers laid for the following besides the guest of honor, Mrs. J. B. Risque, Mrs. Arthur H. S. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Hunt, Miss Gore, Mrs. George S. Gannett and Miss Ruthrauff.

Mrs. H. Wallenstein was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday at the Wilson hotel followed by a box-party at the

MRS. WADE H. ELLIS.

Mrs. Wade H. Ellis, the wife of the Ohio lawyer, who has recently been offered a position as assistant to Attorney General Bonaparte, is a charming woman whose tact and taste have done much to aid the progress of her brilliant husband up the ladder of public success. Mrs. Ellis was Miss Bessie Corwin Chase and she married Mr. Ellis at Covington, Ky., on October 3, 1894. She makes her home in Cincinnati, where she is a notable figure in the social and intellectual life of that city.

Orpheum in honor of Miss Lydia Well of Carthage, Mo., who is the guest of Mrs. Fuller at Whitehall. The table was decorated in lavender, sweet peas, and covers laid for the following: Miss Well, Misses Adele Scott of California, Martha Johnson, Mesdames C. E. Fuller, Willey, R. H. Peale, M. Marien-thal and Weppin.

About 30 guests were entertained at a dinner on Wednesday at the Country club, in honor of Miss Edna Macey of Chicago, the table being prettily decorated in the autumn flowers. The chapersons were Mrs. J. H. McChrystal and Mrs. C. C. Crismon.

Mrs. W. M. McCrea entertained her Sewing club on Thursday.

Miss May Kervin entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday for Mrs. J. J. Campbell and Miss Trask of Denver, the affair taking place at the Country club, where covers were laid for 30 guests. The decorations were in gold, emerald and ferns, and the place bore the monogram of the hostess in gold. A few games of bridge followed the luncheon.

Another pretty luncheon which took place at the Country club on Wednesday was that given by Mrs. W. P. Kiser for Miss Eva F. Madden. The table was effectively decorated in nasturtiums and fruit, and covers were laid for Mrs. Keyes, Mrs. David R. Bray, Mrs. Andrew S. Rowan of Fort Douglas, Mrs. Russell Schuler, Mrs. H. Vance Lane, Miss Mayne Noble, Miss Gertrude McGrath and Miss Louise Sullivan.

A lake party was given Tuesday evening for Mr. Earl Higginbotham, who leaves shortly for the Samoan islands, the guests present being Miss Lillian Malquist, Miss Maud Hodgson, Miss Martha Perry, Miss Anita Eardley, Mrs. Terrie Raaband, Miss Ireta Higginbotham, Miss Florence Powell, Miss Bella Zengst, Irene Maycock, Miss Beatrice Garrett, Miss Elsie Garrett, Miss Eva Johnson, Harry Gosteman, A. C. Christenson, Ed. Malquist, Ben Thompson, T. J. Thomas, John Margetts, Len Whipple, George Romney.

The Undine club girls met Thursday evening with the Misses Enid and June Edmonds. The evening was pleasantly passed in social chat and music, and dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

WEDDING BELLS

A number of interesting weddings have taken place during the week, and more will follow in the remaining autumn season. Among those scheduled for next week is that of Miss Lulu Fullmer and F. A. Ackerson, Sept. 9, the marriage to be solemnized in the temple. The marriage of Miss Bertha Hansen and Abraham H. Cannon will also take place in the temple on the 9th.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Emily Barnes of Kayaville and Clarence Cannon of this city, the marriage being solemnized in the temple in the morning and breakfast following at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Mina Cannon. Ellis, in the evening a large reception was held in Kayaville at the home of the bride's parents, over 500 invitations being issued, and the affair being a most elaborate one.

News was received this week of the marriage in New York of Miss Emily Curtis, formerly of this city, and George Moran, the event having taken place in July.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pickering announce the engagement of their daughter, Jennie, to J. Fred Evans, the wedding to take place in the early part of November.

Mrs. Elizabeth Searle announces the engagement of her daughter, Annie, to John G. Shields, the marriage to take place Sept. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Barnes announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth B., to Lawrence C. Blood, the marriage to take place on Wednesday, Sept. 23.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Hazel Wimmer and Fred Bonnon, which took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday night, with Judge W. H. King performing the ceremony in the presence of the near relatives and friends, and a large reception following. A number of the young girl friends of the bride assisted. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnon left for Provo, where they will make their home.

Miss Alice Wolfgang and Oscar E. Kellar of Chicago were among Wednesday's bridal couples, being married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McNitt, with Rev. W. A. Paden officiating and a number of friends assisting. Mr. and Mrs. Kellar left later for a trip to Rockport, Ill., to reside.

On Wednesday night, Miss Ivy L. Sorenson and Clarence L. Schettler were married, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's Proutz, returned Wednesday evening from their cottage at Brighton.

Mrs. J. L. Franko will leave today for Denver, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. George Nye. Mr. Franko will stop there on his way home from the East.

Miss Adah Harris of Des Moines, Ia., who has been visiting for the past three weeks with her father, Thomas Harris, 821 Palm avenue, will leave for her home on Wednesday next.

Mrs. J. G. Roberts of Chicago is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Sears, and her sister, Mrs. C. W. Buckholtz.

Mrs. Elias Smith and her sister, Miss Pearl Weller, left on Wednesday for New York, whence they sail for a six months' stay in Paris.

Miss Katherine Judge and Mrs. A. V. Calaghan are at Brighton, guests of Mrs. Edward S. Ferry for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cohn and their two daughters, Edna and Sylvia, will sail for home about the last of October.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Torrens of Chicago, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Dinwiddie, left yesterday for their home.

Mrs. F. D. Bickford returned Saturday from spending the summer in the East. She attended the Woman's Federation that met in Boston early in June.

Miss Ella Dukes returned Thursday evening from spending the summer in Oxford, England. She is at home for the winter at the Fifth East hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wilcox of Seattle left Monday for Chicago, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sowles.

Mrs. Hord of Denver has returned to her home, after spending several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Hooper.

Miss Edith Snow is back from the coast, after visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Stephens, in San Diego and Coronado.

Col. and Mrs. T. G. Webber and Miss Webber have returned from an extended eastern trip, which included Quebec, the Thousand Islands, Alexandria Bay and other eastern summer resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Holman will be back Friday morning, after a summer spent in the northwest.

Miss Winnifred Dyer will leave the latter part of next week to re-enter Smith college, at Northampton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Irish have returned from a trip through Yellowstone park. Their daughter, Miss Winnifred Irish, will leave next week for New York, where she will resume her study of art.

The week has been an exception ally busy one for many of the women, every day having had its weddings, teas, luncheons or card parties. A brilliant social, as well as musical affair, was the wedding of the Thorpe on Wednesday night given by Miss Emma Lucy Gates and Miss Sybilla Clayton, the boxes, stalls, loges and many rows of seats being filled with parties. Today a similar gathering greets the Home Opera company at their initial performances of "The Girl and the Governor."

Monday night was the lightest day in the way of entertainments which were limited to one or two informal affairs. Mrs. W. R. Butler entertained for Miss Butler at her home in the way of a bridge tea, the decorations being in pink and white asters and Mrs. Louis Cates and Miss Helen Daugherty assisting.

Besides this were a number of smaller affairs, a few of the seasons card and sewing clubs meeting at the homes of members.

Mrs. George Airis was hostess at an elaborate bridge party at the Country club on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. W. S. Jensen, the rooms being beautifully decorated in yellow and 10 tables played. Prizes were awarded at each table. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Fred Dern and the Misses Bartch.

Miss Vesta Williams entertained on Tuesday for Miss Sue Clark, one of the week's brides, the feature of the afternoon being a guessing game, in which the prize was won by Miss Erna Smithberg. Assisting was Mrs. E. Z. Smith and Mrs. Holliday.

The Governor's club gave a delightful lawn and dancing party on Tuesday night, the lawn east of the club being prettily decorated with lanterns in the club colors, green and gold, and many other details carrying out these hues. The feature of the evening was a musical program given by Miss Sylvia Clayton, Miss Druehl, Miss Lor-

COMING AND GOING

Miss Edna Dunn entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday at the Country club in honor of Miss Gladys Sears of Boston, the table being decorated in gold and covers laid for 12. Bridge followed the luncheon. Those to meet the guest of honor were Mrs. Charles Crismon, Miss Lorine Leary, Miss Mary Kervin, Miss Stella Fabian, Miss Mary Smedley, Miss Ione Morrison, Miss Sarah Terry, Miss Edna Day and Miss Theresa Murrell of Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dern, Mrs. George Dern, and Mrs. William H. Cunningham arrived in Salt Lake Tuesday evening after spending the summer abroad.

Judge and Mrs. C. B. Diehl and children, have come home from a three weeks' outing in Idaho.

Mrs. Reed Smoot and daughter, Miss Chloe Smoot, have returned to their home in Provo, after spending some time at the Eldredge home on east First South street.

Miss Ada Murphy has returned from a month's stay in Brighton.

Mrs. Raymond S. Masson and her small daughter, have arrived from Prescott, Ariz., and will spend some time with the McMillan family.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes has resumed her duties at the Amos and Anna Palace, and will receive during the autumn months.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harris and family and Mrs. Harris' mother, Mrs.

A Skin of Beauty Is a Joy Forever

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

GIVES A FASCINATING AND REFINED COMPLEXION

It is the duty of every woman to preserve her beauty, and even the most beautiful must protect their complexion. A faultless complexion, sweet, pure, and wholesome is something every woman desires and which can be readily obtained by using GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM. This well known preparation has been highly recommended by physicians, actresses, singers, and women of fashion for over half a century. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet, leaving it clear and healthy.

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM cures Skin Diseases, relieves irritation, soothes and invigorates the skin, beautifies and improves the complexion and cannot be surpassed when preparing for evening attire.

FOR SALE BY DRUGGISTS AND FANCY GOODS DEALERS
FERD. T. HOPKINS, Proprietor, 37 Great Jones Street, New York

ralne, Miss Claude Holt and Jack Farrell and Will Alworth. Later a buffet supper was served, followed by dancing.

Mrs. Karl Schiele entertained on Tuesday for her niece Miss Adelaide Woodruff who leaves shortly for the east. The feature of the afternoon was a luncheon followed by games, and about a dozen were present.

A delightful affair of the week was the musical recital given by the Misses Allen at the Holmes Art studio on Wednesday morning, through the courtesy of Mrs. E. F. Holmes, who professed the hall for the occasion. An interesting program was rendered, with violin, cello and piano by the talented young artists and about 50 guests were present to enjoy the event.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Miss Emma Coutts has gone to Goldfield, Nevada, to visit her sister, Mrs. F. M. Pluke for a few weeks.

Miss L. Riddle has arrived from San Francisco and has accepted a position at the Southern Pacific hospital in this city.

Arthur Shreve and Leo Madison have returned to Chicago, where they will attend the Armour Institution of Technology.

Col. Hunt of Atlanta, Georgia, is the guest of his brother-in-law, Resident Engineer A. Q. Campbell of the Hariman system.

Wilford Bramwell and Guy Clark have returned from a 10 days' outing in Strawberry valley.

Miss Lydia McKinnon has returned from her vacation in the east.

L. B. Spencer has gone to Nevada, on a two weeks' trip.

N. J. Mitchell and wife of Oakley, Idaho, were Ogden visitors during the week.

Mrs. A. G. Horn entertained Wednesday afternoon at the Virginia, at bridge.

Mrs. George Lockhead, Jr., has returned from a month's visit with relatives in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Hess and family were visitors to the Yellowstone park during the past week.

Miss Gertrude Biddell has returned from a two months' trip in California.

Mrs. W. E. Sackett has gone to Pierr, S. D., for a six weeks' visit with her sister.

George Ferguson and Miss Stella Burrup were married in Salt Lake on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack De Motte and daughter have arrived in the city from Denver, and will reside here in the future.

The engagement of Dorothea Layne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Layne, and William Fife is announced.

the marriage to take place in Salt Lake temple on Sept. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lewis have returned from a trip through the Yellowstone park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Perkins of Butte, Mont., were Ogden visitors during the past week, renewing acquaintances.

Judge John D. Murphy of the police court has gone to Morengo, Iowa, on a two weeks' visit to his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frost, of Los Angeles, visited in Ogden for a few days while en route home from the Yellowstone park.

Rudolph Kuchler and wife were Salt Lake visitors during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. George McCabe and family have returned from the Hermitage, where they have been spending the summer. Mr. and Mrs. McCabe will leave for their home in Washington, D. C., within a few days.

Theodore Kuchler has returned from an extensive eastern trip.

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gray announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Tillie, to Joseph P. Sylva, of San Pedro, Cal. Marriage to take place September 17, 1908, at St. Pedro.

Postmaster Cleave and Cashier J. T. Farrer went to Ogden, Friday in the interest of the Federal building.

Miss Grace Paxman entertained the members of the Pricilla club at her home Friday evening. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Joseph Farrer is visiting relatives and friends in American Fork this week.

Mrs. Reed Smoot and daughter Miss Chloe have returned from a very pleasant visit in Salt Lake City.

Dr. C. H. Heinemann was the recipient of a delightful surprise party at his home Wednesday evening. Mrs. Heinemann was ably assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Phil Speckart and Mrs. Clara Henry. The beauty of the rooms were greatly aided by the use of roses and asters. Festoons of ferns and butternuts reached from the center of the room to the four corners. An elaborate lunch was served. New and entertaining guessing games were introduced and the prizes awarded to Miss Francisella Adams.

Mrs. Jacob Evans is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Miller of American Fork, Utah.

Miss Fern Holdaway, Miss Della Teasdale, David Hutton and Jack Teasdale spent Sunday at Castella.

Archie Thurman returned home Monday from Chicago where he has been attending summer school.

Mrs. John E. Bott entertained at a lawn party at her home Monday afternoon in honor of her daughter Helen. About 30 little folks enjoyed an afternoon of games and various amusements. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAdam en-

THE DIRECTOIRE MODE IN VELVET.

Small full length sash and high girdle are features which stamp this black velvet toilette as one of the newer models. A new treatment of the Directoire revers is seen in the plaited fronts which fasten in double-breasted fashion above the high girdle. A jabot of real lace finishes the front of the high incroyable collar. It is to be noted that the sleeves are almost tight fitting being set into a small armhole with scarcely any gathers.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER

AN IDEAL, ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toilet powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and toilet. It keeps the complexion clear and preserves the velvety texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathing, giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

Prepared by Ferd. T. HOPKINS, N. Y. CITY.

Proprietor of GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM

For sale by WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.

No. 8 Main St., by the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY.

Health—how many would give fortunes to enjoy the greatest of nature's gifts and to be able to give

A Smile All the While

Ailing tots cause pity—fretful young people cause wonderment—irritable men and women cause surprise. To enjoy perfect health the body must be built up and the mind invigorated by perfect food.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is the perfect food drink—its use will bring quiet to breaking nerves—strength to the weak—and contentment to the strong—besides it is delicious and appetizing.

30 cups of a delicious drink

25c

