

the basement and it was this that started the fire.

LOSS AND INSURANCE.

The fire is a most severe loss to the company. The contents were worth between $25,000 and $27,000, covered by $25,000 insurance. The damage done to the building may reach $10,000. The loss of $1,000, covered by $1,000 insurance. It was only recently that the Carstensen & Anson company shipped in a carload of the piano and other musical instruments. All of them were destroyed.

Young and Fowler, local representatives of eastern companies, carry the bulk of the insurance, namely $14,000. Another policy for $2,000 was written by Smedley & Wakeling and still another $3,000 policy was written by Alma L. Vincent. The insurance on the building was with the Home Fire Insurance company, and amounted to only $1,000.

WILL RESUME BUSINESS.

Mr. Carstensen stated this morning that, while the fire was a terrible loss to them, they would resume business immediately. He said they were now looking for a suitable location and as soon as one was found, and as soon as the books could be taken from the safe, they would open a new store and conduct their business on a broader and larger scale than ever.

OLD-TIMER AT REST.

Alfred Nethercott Laid in the Grave by Former Associates.

At the first ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon, funeral services were held over the remains of Alfred Nethercott, an old-time resident of that ward, but of late a resident of William, Wyoming. The obsequies were conducted by Bishop Joseph Warburton, who, with his counselors, John T. Thorpe and Nels Rasmussen and Elder John Smith, eulogized the life and career of the departed veteran and pioneer.

Mr. Nethercott had had a very interesting career. He was a native of Shillington, England, where he was born in December, 1812. The names of his parents being James and Rachel James Nethercott. Young Alfred entered the British army, and rose to the rank of captain. He was at one time an officer in the celebrated Queen's regiment.

Having joined the church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he came to Utah in 1841, making his home in Salt Lake City. For the next five years he spent much of his time visiting the various bodies of militia throughout the territory, instructing the members in sword craft, in which art he was an adept. He was actively engaged in the Red Canyon campaign and in various Indian wars.

Mr. Nethercott made his home for several years in California, but always retained his love for Utah and her people, and was ever firm and true to the Gospel. For some years he had resided at Wilson, Wyo., but passed away in Salt Lake, while he was en route to visit his children on the Pacific coast. His aged wife, Charlotte Pearson Nethercott, survives him, and five children, namely Alfred Alexander, Joseph H., George H., Charles J., and Charlotte Rachel.

BODIES NOT RECOVERED.

Rescue Party, However, Within Six Feet of Deadly "Cave-in."

Bingham, Oct. 24.—The bodies of the five miners killed in a cave-in at the Highland boy mine Saturday, are not yet recovered, although the parties at work removing the debris are within six feet of the place where they expect to find them. The work is being carried forward by means of a new drift, which it is necessary to reinforce, as it is lengthened. It is now believed that the men were crushed to death by the cave-in and will be found to be badly mutilated when they are recovered. The bodies will probably be reached by 6 o'clock tonight.

WANTS THE PROPERTY.

Kate E. Farrell, a Los Angeles Branch of Con tract in Business Deal.

Kate E. Farrell today filed suit in the district court against Mary J. Rider and Thomas J. Wanek to recover possession of 2 1/2 by 10 rods of ground in lot 7, block 4, plat A, Salt Lake City survey. It is alleged that plaintiff agreed to sell said property to defendant, Mary J. Rider, for $2,000, of which amount $500 was paid when the contract was signed and possession of the property given to her. The remainder of the purchase price was to be paid at the rate of $50 per month. The property was subject to foreclosure by Wanek. It is claimed that the payments for August and September were not made and that plaintiff refused to foreclose on the property, but as yet defendant has failed to surrender it. Judgment is asked for possession, $100 damages for withholding the possession of the same, and for the value of the rents for the two months.

House Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion, and I suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. I found Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to those with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. price 50c."

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Theater tonight the noted musical comedy "The Girl from Kaya" will have its first production in Salt Lake. It is billed as a good, clean, wholesome comedy with musical trimmings, and is interpreted by a big New York company.

The Lyric is presenting a merry bill this week and drawing large crowds.

Last night was a busy one in the various leading theaters throughout the country. In Washington, the new house owned by the Independent theater managers, led by David Blasco, the Schubert, and Harrison Gray Tuck, was opened by Blanche Bates in "The Girl of the Golden West." A brilliant audience was in attendance, including many of the cabinet, foreign ambassadors, Admiral Dewey, and the Japanese minister. Mr. Blasco was called on for a speech in which he appealed to the audience to stand by the Independents as against the trust.

Washington saw another opening in Ciga. Nethercott, who appeared after an absence of three years in a new play called "The Ladybirds." In Chicago Charles Dalton made his bow in the new musical play "The Nazarene." "Nat Goodwin produced in Philadelphia the new musical play entitled "W. I. Yanna," which was given its first presentation at the Manhattan theater by Bertha Kalish.

Commercial Club Perfects Plans for Interstate Conference on Division of Tourist Travel.

HEBER M. WELLS IS CHAIRMAN

Denver and Colorado Enthusiastic in The Matter—Other States Also Interested.

The special committee of the Commercial club appointed to consider a program for the proposed conference on the diversion of eastern travel toward the west instead of toward Europe, met last evening in the club parlors, when the following program was agreed upon.

Thursday, Jan. 18, 1906—

2 p. m.—Representatives of 20 western states meet and consider Commercial club plans for diversion of European travel.

Friday, Jan. 19—

10 a. m.—Conference resumes and concludes consideration of plan.

3 p. m.—Banquet to delegates.

The place of the meeting in Salt Lake City must be determined after the size of the conference is ascertained. Unless otherwise fixed, it will be the Commercial club.

Invitations to be issued today for the conference will include the governor of all the states west of the Mississippi, the general passenger agents of all the roads in these states, representatives of commercial clubs and chambers of commerce, and mayors of cities. It is believed that some 300 persons will be in attendance.
