

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Territorial Convention.—The People's Territorial Convention will meet at the City Hall on Thursday evening next, at 6 o'clock, to nominate a Delegate for the 47th Congress.

Wrong Name.—In our account of the Tabernacle Choir Excursion to Astoria, the name of David Williams was given. Brother Williams is an old and well known member of the choir.

Firemen's Attention.—There will be a meeting of the Wasatch Firemen on the 12th Ward, on Tuesday evening, October 5th, at 7:30. All members and others will be welcome. By order of the Association.

"Naturalty."—On Saturday evening the case of the People vs. N. V. Jones came to an end. The jury returned a verdict of guilty after a deliberation of ten hours. The case against Mr. Jones was based on account of his shooting and killing a tramp, who was attempting to escape from custody, after being a policeman at the time.

Fatal Occurrence.—Mr. L. Geo. Williams, of the 2d dist., was killed last night while working on the mill in this place. Mr. Williams had 15 years of experience in the mill. He was killed by the falling of a log. The log was being moved by a cable, and it slipped and fell on him. He was killed instantly. His death was a great loss to the family.

The Pipe Creek Shooting.—Mr. J. W. Warner, of Moab, Emery county, is in town. He informs us that the boy Wilson, son of Alfred Wilson, who was shot by Indians in Pipe Creek Canyon several weeks ago, is now recovering from his wounds. He was shot through the nose and the left foot. The Indians were captured and the shooting was stopped. Mr. Warner says that the boy is doing well and is expected to be discharged in a few days.

Cold Blooded Murder.—The following case was received this afternoon:

Silver Lake, Oct. 4th, 1880.

Yesterday morning, as Michael J. Carson, his way to work, he was stopped near the Buckeye board by a miner named Tom Carson, who had a revolver in his hand. When the latter got within a few feet of Carson, he immediately drew a knife and plunged it into Carson's side, inflicting a frightful wound, from which he died last evening about five o'clock. It was a deliberate and cold blooded murder. For the reasons expressed his intention to kill Carson, because Carson was a quiet, peaceable man, and universally respected throughout the camp. He was an estimable family man, and his death was a great loss to the community.

Federal Services.—The funeral services over the remains of the late James Pitt were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the 17th Ward Assembly Hall. The hall was densely filled, and besides the family relations, a large number of friends and associates, including the officers and employees of the Utah Central and Utah Southern Railroads. The services were under the direction of Bishop John Henry Smith. There were also present, Elder Joseph E. Taylor, of the Stake Presidency, Bishop John Sharp, and other prominent men. The coffin, which had been carried from the residence of the deceased to the Methodist church by a number of the railroad hands, fellow workmen of the deceased, was literally covered with flowers, and around it sat his family members and nearest friends. The opening address was made by Bishop John Sharp, followed by remarks from Elders Joseph E. Taylor, S. H. Hill and Bishop John H. Smith. Their words were of a very interesting and comforting character. Previous to the death, the deceased had made known his desire to be ordained to the Priesthood, which was accordingly done. This and his last words, when he expressed his satisfaction at having always been faithful to his duties and the performance of his duties at the railroad, were mentioned by some of the speakers, all of whom spoke in high terms of the deceased, corroborating his own claim to fidelity and honesty, and dwelling upon his kind and generous character. A concourse of between 50 and 60 carriages followed the corpse to the last resting place.

Tabernacle Services.—The services at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were well attended. The congregation was first addressed by Elder George C. Ferguson. He began with the statement that the religion of Jesus Christ was one of love. He then read the 1st chapter of the Gospel of John, and explained the meaning of the Father's love for the world. He then read the 1st chapter of the Gospel of John, and explained the meaning of the Father's love for the world.

Fraternal.—We had a call this morning from Mr. W. H. Kenner, of the Millford Sentinel, who is in Salt Lake for a few days on business connected with his paper. He is a brother to Mr. S. A. Kenner, of Ogden.

McKenzie Reform Club.—The McKenzie Reform Club hold some interesting exercises at Temperance Hall to-night at half past seven. Rev. W. M. Barrows will deliver a speech. Prof. Radcliffe will officiate at the piano.

Tabernacle Choir.—The members of the Tabernacle choir are respectfully requested to meet for practice to night and to-morrow night at the Tabernacle at 7 o'clock. E. ARNOLD, Assistant conductor.

Get Your Credentials.—The delegates elected at Saturday's convention, to attend the Territorial Convention, on Thursday, may get their credentials of Dr. S. B. Young, Secretary of the County Convention, at the office of the City Assessor, to-morrow evening, between five and six o'clock.

Returned.—Elder B. S. Young, son of Apostle Brigham Young, returned on Saturday evening from a mission to Great Britain. He was absent from home 22 months, lacking one day. He has changed somewhat from his former self, but the change is what naturally takes place when the boy becomes the man. His old schoolmates will, however, easily recognize in him the same old "Bid" as ever. We are pleased to extend him a hearty welcome home.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AXER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ.

Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home.

No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.

A STRANGE PEOPLE.

You know that there are strange people in our community—we say strange, because they seem to prefer to suffer and pass their days miserably made so with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, indigestion, Constipation, and General Debility.

When SHILOH'S VITALIZER is guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Department, wholesale and retail, Salt Lake City, Utah.
