AUTO WRECKED.

The 60-horsepower Stearns automo-ble, valued at $5,000, belonging to furroid Laimb, of Salt Lake City, was emashed by an Oregon Short Line train near the Harrisville crossing, sometime after milinight, Thursday incerning. Young Lamb and a party of Ficude started from the springs at niidaiset for Salt Lake. A rain came up and the night became so dark that it was inpossible to see the road. The machine was driven in a cuivert at the first crossing south of the hotel. Finding it impossible to budge the big yar by its own nower, one of the party went back to the hotel and ob-ulated the services of a local machine to extribute it from the ditch. A table had just been attached to the disabled car when the headlight of an approaching train warned the party of dimest. The 60-horsepower Stearns automo
