THE EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, ... June 8, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—Last evening the beautiful Irish drama of "Kate Kearney" was presented, and the very excellent manner in which it was performed by the Howsons gave additional evidence of their ability as artists. Miss Emma performed the part of "Kate Kearney" with the grace that usually characterizes her acting, and in the personation of "Rose" Miss Clelia was excellent. The characters of "Ned" and "Lanty," by Messrs. Jerome and Hardy were also well performed. Mr. Margetts as "Cornelius O'Lynch" contributed largely to the amusement of the audience.

The performance concluded with the "Eton Boy," in which the characters were sustained with a success fully equal to that which marked the previous representation of this piece.

To-night, by special request, the greatest success of the age, "La Grand Duchesse," will be presented for positively the last time. To those who have not witnessed this opera we would say do not fail to attend this evening. The singing of the "Sabre of my sire," by Miss Emma Howson, is worth double the price of admission, and the opera is replete with solos, duetts and choruses.

ADVERTISEMENTS. — We should have scarcely thought it necessary to mention that the fact of an advertisement appearing in our columns, does not necessarily carry with it our endorsement, had we not been told that some folks regard the advertisements as much the work of the editor as the leading article. We imagined it was everywhere understood, that when a merchant or any other person purchases a certain portion of the paper to specify his wants, or draw attention to his wares, that he has the right to do so in his own language, providing there be nothing contrary to morality and decency. That portion of the paper is his as long as he continues to pay for it. If any persons regard the Advertisements or Notices in the NEWS in any other light we wish to disabuse their minds of the error, and state we are not responsible, if in the never-ending search for bargains that so constantly fills some people's lives and takes up so much of their time, they get taken in because they have read some attractive notice of selling "below cost" or of "enormous sacrifices." A word to the wise is sufficient, etc.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.—Yesterday the children of the Sunday Schools of the Third and Fourth Wards, with their parents and friends, had a very pleasant trip to Calder's Farm and pleasure grounds. What with the boats, the dancing, singing swinging, and other amusements the boys and girls, both great and small, spent a very happy day.

POLICE.—John G. Johnson and D. W. Greig, charged with stealing a watch and a gun, both plead guilty and were fined $80 each.

BIRMINGHAM.—We have just received the programme of a concert which took place at Birmingham, England on the 10th ult. Judging from the excellent and varied assortment of sentimental and comic songs, instrumental performances, recitations, dialogues, &c., and the talent of the performers, it would doubtless be a success. We notice by the programme, that the Birmingham semi-annual Conference of the Saints was held on the day previous, (the 9th). Birmingham, ever since the introduction of the gospel to that city, has been a nursery of the Saints. The branch numbers at present in the vicinity of 500 members; until lately there were two branches of the church there, the Oxford Street and Hockley branches; last fall, however, the two branches were consolidated under the presidency of Elder Charles Napper, who is well known to many of the Latter-day Saints as a staunch champion of the truth. The many friends of brother Napper in this Territory will be pleased to learn that himself and family expect to emigrate this coming fall.

THE ST. GEORGE HORSE THIEVES.—The Rio Virgen Times gives the following details of the movements of the horse thieves who escaped from St. George, the particulars of which appeared in the NEWS a few evenings since:

"We learn, from the mail carrier, that the three thieves, referred to in our last issue, went to Callville, wrenched four folding doors from their hinges, with which they formed a raft, left their horses and surplus luggage, and launched out upon the waters of the mad Colorado, but whether they were drowned, or crossed the river to travel hundreds of miles through the country of Westiti Indians to Prescott, or whether they will follow down and try to reach Hardyville, it is not known. Two of the doors, a part of their raft, floated past Eldorado Kanyon. If they escape water, famine, hostile Indians and the perils of an unknown desert, they will turn up somewhere and should be taken care of.

There is reason to believe that they gave their animals little rest or time to feed on the route between here and Callville, and as the horses were jaded and no chance to steal fresh ones, and they, in fear of their lives as all cowardly thieves are, made the desperate resolve to try and cross the Colorado on a frail raft, thus making pursuit about impossible.

Died:

At Nephi, on the 21st of May, 1869, of scarlet fever, Annette Elizabeth, daughter of David and Caroline Webb, aged 8 years and 15 days.

In Farmington, Davis county, June 5, 1869, of teething and inflammation, Joseph Henry, son of D. and Josephine Oviatte, aged 9 months and 3 weeks.

In Provo City, on the 5th ult., Nathaniel Riggs, of neuralgia of the bowels.

Deceased was born at Newport, Cammell county, Kentucky, August 5, 1797. He was baptized Jan. 17, 1834, in Monroe county, Missouri, and soon after made a visit to Kirtland, Ohio, where he met with the Prophet Joseph, and made arrangements to go up to Jackson county. He then returned home and when the Camp of Zion came along he joined it, on Salt River, Miss. He accompanied the Camp to Jackson county, and afterwards shared with it the trials of the return journey, during which, through exposure and privation, he contracted disease which he carried to his grave. He came with the Church from Missouri and settled in Nauvoo; from thence to the Bluffs, in Iowa, and from the latter place to Salt Lake City in 1849. He moved to Provo City in 1851. He was taken sick December 1, 1868, and has endured a great deal of pain and misery for the last five months. He went to sleep rejoicing in the new and everlasting Covenant.—COM.
