DEATH OF MRS. COOLEY.

A telegram received in Ogden yesterday from Isaac Cooley, of the Ogden Furniture & Carpet company, an-nounced the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Catharine Sanford Cooley, wife of Martin H. Cooley, at Cohocton, Steuben county, New York, and the body will be brought to Og-den, arriving here Sunday morning for burial. Mr. Cooley received word that his mother was seriously ill, and he immediately went to her bedside and re-mained with her to the end. Mrs. Cooley was born in New York Sept.

23, 1831, and has lived there all her life. She has been a faithful member of the Latter-day Saints Church for many years, and the Cooley home has always been an open house to the missionaries, many of whom will learn with regret of her demise. She is survived by her husband and seven children, three of whom live here; they are Mrs. James Ward of North Ogden, Isaac and Myron Cooley. The funeral services over her remains will be held Sunday after-
