The Latest Discovery.

Of more value than any silver mine in Colorado, is GERMAN CATARRH CURE—a remedy prepared especially for the cure of Catarrh and severe cases in the head, that invariably lead to catarrh, which are so common in this climate. Reason why that catarrh, if not checked promptly, goes to the lungs and ends in consumption. Each day's delay lessens the chance of cure. Price only 50 cents. For sale by the manufacturers, Brown Medicine and Manufacturing Company, Leavenworth, Kansas, and all wholesale and retail druggists in the west.

Solid Merit will Tell.

For all the bitter opposition of calous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kasper's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kasper, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

The discovery of the circulation of the blood was an important event in the history of medicine; but if the blood be full of impurities, its circulation, which providence intended as a blessing, proves a curse. Hence we should cleanse the blood with Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. d1296 1f

In the Whole History of Medicine No preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation as AYER'S CURE FOR CATARRH, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it, never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PREPARATION extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedies, and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all dealers. d1296 2d

EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, December 31, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Benefit.—The Sisters of the Hospital of the Holy Cross acknowledge the receipt of a gift of $50, from Hon. Wm. Jennings, for the benefit of that hospital.

Collision of Sleighs.—Who saw the "amash-up" on the street today? The more somber delights of sleigh-riding, were pictured with power and precision.

Look to It.—Last day of the year. Now young man, to-morrow, when you write a note of invitation for your lady love to attend the Carolee concert on Monday, first put down 1879, then say, "pshaw!" and make it 1880.

Not So.—The Junction, in clipping our notice of the Utah Eastern Railroad, makes us responsible for the statement that each of the subscribers to the articles of association had taken 50 shares, each, of the capital stock. Closer examination will show a slight error for our contemporary, as two of the subscribers took but five shares each.

New Year's Holiday.—To-morrow begins the New Year, 1880. A day for good resolutions, forgiveness of injuries, reconciliations and deeds of charity. It is also a day of rest and rejoicing. The News will appropriately celebrate it by remaining at home, instead of coming to work. Our next issue will appear Friday evening.

Orchestral Concert.—At length, arrangements are completed for the presentation of a series of vocal and instrumental concerts, by the Carolee Orchestra. The first of these will be given in the Theatre next Monday evening, January 5th, 1880. In addition to the grand orchestra, under the leadership of Professor George Carolee, the following artists will appear: Mr. Willard Welles, the talented young violinist, Mrs. Joseph Selgel, the popular soprano, and Mr. G. E. Batho, clarinet, of the Fourteenth Infantry band. The valuable services of Misses Belle Anderson, Edith Clawson and Mattie Horne, and Messrs. H. Gardner, H. G. Whitney, B. F. Chandler, vocalists, with Prof. Pederson, accompanist, have been secured, and the Carolee Brass Band will also perform several pieces. The whole is under the direction of Prof. Carolee. This is the greatest local attraction, of its kind, ever offered to the Salt Lake public. It should be, and we hope it will be, well patronized.

City Council.—Proceedings at the City Council on Tuesday evening, December 30th, 1879, Mayor Little presiding:

A petition, signed by Orson Rogers and 13 other residents and taxpayers of the 11th Ward, was presented, which asked that a certain walk on Third South Street, between Seventh and Eighth East Streets, be repaired, as said walk was in a slippery and unsafe condition, and so cut into by the old canal as to render it extremely difficult of access. Referred to the street supervisor, with instructions to make such repairs as will render the public thoroughfare passable.

An appropriation of $3,000 was made to the Salt Lake City and Jordan Canal to pay on account for the work of excavation.

The committee on finance were instructed to devise the best means for obtaining the necessary funds for prosecuting the work on the canal, and report at the next meeting.

Adjourned to next Tuesday evening at the usual hour.

The "Contributor."—The January number of this magazine, and an extra good one too, which we have received in advance of general publication, will be ready for distribution on Friday. Following is the table of contents: Confidence, IV, Moses Thatcher; Pressure of the Atmosphere, Quebec; Character Sketches, III, Alonzo De Galba, K. G. M.; The First Flag of Freedom, B.; Aristocracy, An Epigram, O. F. Whitney; Editorial: Educated Labor, Fear of the Waste Basket, Compliments of the Season; The Standing Monument; Christmas and the Holidays, Amethyst; Think for Yourself, Lucille; Bits of Travel, The Vienna Exposition, De Vallibus; Home, the Site and Place, John H. Howe, Jr.; A "Live Mormon" in Boston, B. F. Cummings, Jr.; Power of Example, W. W. Taylor; Self-Government, B. H. Roberts; Correspondence, Letter from Geo. R. Hill; Association Intelligence.

Violent Fits.—The Junction gives an account of an unfortunate gentleman, named Summers, of St. Johns, New Brunswick, who, stopping in Ogden while on his way to visit his brother in Reno, last Sunday, was attacked with violent fits, during which he bled terribly at the nose and mouth. He was picked up several times from the street, where he had fallen, in a helpless condition, and much needed assistance was repeatedly rendered by the passers by. He says he had been in the hospital at St. Johns previous to undertaking the journey west, which he hoped would benefit his health. We trust his hopes will be realized.

Selling Books.—Mr. J. A. Trimble, the genial and enterprising agent for the valuable publications noticed in our columns some time ago, entitled the History of the Sea, and the History of the World, is around delivering the books to those who subscribed for them before and taking fresh orders from all who wish to procure these works. He designs soon to make the tour of the Territory, for the purpose of selling his books, and will establish sub-agencies for their sale in all the principal settlements. He promises agents a liberal commission on sales, and solicits applications at once.

Married.—On the 24th inst., at the residence of H. P. McLane, Parley's Park, Mr. Jesse Chapman and Miss Elizabeth McLane, were united in the bonds of wedlock, by Bishop H. Standley. A very happy time was enjoyed by the assembled guests, many many good wishes expressed for the future of the young married couple. The bride is the daughter of Judge McLane, an old pioneer, and the groom, a young man also native to the Territory.

Badly Frozen.—We learn from a friend at Corinne that Theodore Lee and Jules Toponce left that place on the 24th to go to Mr. Toponce's ranch, 23 miles distant. On their arrival at the ranch, they found their feet and hands badly frozen. Lee was brought to Corinne yesterday. He will probably lose some of his toes. Toponce was so badly frozen that it was considered dangerous to move him, and his physician will go to the ranch to treat his case, which will likely result in the loss of several of his toes and fingers.—Dispatch.

From the North.—Brother Josiah Tuff, of Meadowville, Boat Lake, called in this morning. He states that the weather up his way is as cold as might be expected. On last Tuesday, the coach from Evanston to Paris, on account of the deep snow, was eight hours going a distance of eight miles. Thermometer 25 degrees below zero. Health of the settlement good.

Dancing Parties.—The fourth party of the Frolic series, will be held to-morrow evening in Firemen's Hall.

A ball will also be given in the 14th Ward Hall, this evening, likewise one of the series of the season.

A Success.—The complimentary performance tendered to Mr. J. H. Feign, in Ogden, last night, is reported to be an artistic success, but not so well attended as it "might have been." But Mr. Feign, no doubt, is well pleased that the community, in which he was arrested for a criminal offense, has done so much to make reparation for what it now evidently believes was an unjust accusation.

Funeral Services.—The funeral of Grace Groo was held at the residence of the parents, Ninth Ward, as announced, at noon to-day, and was largely attended by the family, relatives and other sympathizing friends. President D. H. Wells delivered a consoling and instructive address, and was followed briefly by Bishop O. F. Whitney, of the 15th Ward, a relative of the deceased, and Bishop S. A. Wooley, of the 9th Ward. The services then closed, and the remains were followed to the Cemetery, where they were consigned to their final resting place.

Forgery and False Pretense.—A young man named John H. Hougau was arrested this morning on the above charge, and now lies in jail awaiting his examination. From the verison of Mr. Dahl, proprietor of the California Stables and the complainant in the case, it appears that in November, 1878, young Hougau borrowed $100 of him, and gave, as a security, a mortgage on a piece of property, which he (Hougau) represented as his own, but which in reality belonged to his father. Also, instead of putting his own name to the mortgage, he signed his father's. Mr. Dahl let him have the money, and supposed all was proper and correct. A day or two ago, the former became acquainted with the real nature of the affair and of the worthlessness of the security which he held. The matter being made known to the police, Officer Alex. Bart was dispatched this morning in quest of the culprit, and finding him at his mother's home, a mile or two beyond Taylorville, arrested and brought him to the city. He was given until Friday to answer the charge, and the privilege of release on a $500 bond. This amount he was unable to procure, and consequently still remains in custody. The examination will be held on Friday.
