NEWS OF THE DAY.

——There was a lively time in the U. S. House of Representatives yesterday, over efforts to amend the rules, finally a recess was taken until this morning.

——The latest official thief unearthed is the cashier of the People's Savings Bank, at St. Louis; the amount stolen is from forty to sixty thousand dollars.

——The gold value of silk and silk manufactures imported into the United States, last month, was nearly seventeen hundred thousand dollars.

——Last night's dispatches contained a lengthy synopsis of the evidence of Tilton, exposing the alleged immorality of his own wife and Brooklyn's famous preacher. Our readers will see that but a very small portion of the sensational stuff appears in our columns. It is not to be supposed that such pabulum is desired by, any more than it is fit for the perusal of, decent people.

——Great Britain will not send a representative to the International Code Conference, to be held shortly at St. Petersburg.

—The Council of State of the German Empire has authorized Bismarck to negotiate an extradition treaty with the United States.

——It is announced that Mr. Forster has withdrawn from the candidacy for the leadership of the British liberals.

——There was an important debate on the constitutional bill in the French Assembly yesterday. It seems probable that under the constitution now forming, power to dissolve the National Assembly will be conferred upon the President of the Republic.

——The Spanish army is advancing towards Pampeluna; and it is said that the Carlists are retreating without resistence.

——A petition was presented in the U. S. Senate to-day, from Mr. Jas. Brooks, of Arkansas, claiming to be the legal governor of that State, and asking to be restored to and protected in that position.

——In the House this morning the skirmishing was renewed on the amendment of the rules.

——A strike has commenced among the weavers of Fall River, Mass., and one thousand of them are going back to England.

——Mr. Henry Reed, of Bureau County, Ills., was shot dead by his brother, during a quarrel last Sunday night.

——An extraordinary scene is reported to have taken place in the Pennsylvania Legislature yesterday: one of the republican members, coming in conflict with the Speaker during debate, the Speaker ordered him under arrest; the whole of the republican members then came to the assistance of their colleague and forcibly rescued him from the custody of the Sergeant-at-arms.

NEWS NOTES.

Ex-Senator Nye's "softening of the brain" is contradicted.

A California man pounded his wife, was fined $90, and he sold her silk dress to pay the fine.

A Methodist woman of 35, at Highland, Ohio, eloped with the husband of her eldest daughter.

The London Times has a libel suit, for the first time in twenty-one years.

Niccolini is Rome's favorite tenor. He reaches high C with a full, round tone.

Last year in Dundee, Scotland, 502 women were punished for drunkenness, and 816 for crimes produced by drunkenness.

Boston and Brooklyn are both alarmed about a water famine, as their sources of supply are gradually diminishing.

Lancashire lads fight with their feet, armed with wooden clogs, and Lancashire lasses fight with their hands, armed with iron hairpins.

The Diritto says the Pope has taken up a project which he formed many years ago of placing twelve statues around the cupola of St. Peter's, in accordance with the idea of Michael Angelo.

"Lion eaters," nearly all editors and artists, assembled at a Paris restaurant to try the meat of the monarch of beasts. The steaks were sent from Africa, but were not greatly liked.

Ernst's magnificent violin, a "Stradivarius" of the great period, and in perfect preservation, has recently been purchased by Madame Norman-Neruda, from Mr. David Laurie of Glasgow, for $2,500.

Mrs. Resor, a wealthy lady of Clifton, one of the suburbs of Cincinnati, fifty-five years of age, died a few days ago of gangrene, resulting from a bruise of one of her fingers with a tack hammer two or three months since.

Dr. Magnan, who was prosecuted recently at Norwich, England, for inserting absinthe in the veins of dogs, has been awarded a prize of $500 by the French Academy of Sciences for the same experiments, showing the effect of alcohol on quadrupeds.

Miss Lewis is said to be the lady Mr. James Gordon Bennett has gone to Europe to marry. Her father is a manufacturer in Manchester, and reputed to be very rich. The gossips have decided that the wedding will take place next month.

In a shop window in Paris is the following announcement: "A fine human skin, taken off whole and tanned in that condition. It is the skin of Aissa, who was the most lovely of the slaves of the Emperor of Morocco. She was only twenty when she died, and her skin was milk white."

The Washington Star thinks the Beecher trial thus far a war between wits and lawyers, and an attempt to break down testimony on one side and repel that attempt on the other. "Altogether, the animosities between the lawyers on the two sides seems likely to get even more bitter than those between their principals."

A Cincinnati family, whose two year old child, a much beloved little girl, died over a year ago, managed to preserve the body of the child almost perfectly by an embalming process, and have kept it in their house ever since. Daily the parents have viewed the form of the little one, almost as fresh as when in life, and the effect has been very deleterious upon the mother's health, insomuch that the burial of the child is now probably rendered necessary.

The sheriffs of London recently applied for the privilege of driving, especially on State occasions, through St. James' and Green Parks, in order to shorten the distance between their private residences and the city. The answer they received was a polite expression of regret that an investigation of precedents by the authorities of the Home Office had resulted in the information that the rules of exclusion had not relaxed in favor of the city officials.

THE SENATE.

THE Missouri Democrat estimates that the Senate, after impending elections, will have 44 Republican members (of whom 5 will be independents), 29 Democrats, and one vacancy, or, with the admission of Pinchbeck, the Republicans will have 45, a majority of 16 as against the Democracy.

The Republicans confidently expect to hold the Senate against the Democrats for at least two years from March 4th, 1877. Of the 26 Senators whose terms expire on that date, 18 are Republican, most if not all of whose constituencies will return Republicans again to the Senate. This and other calculations will leave the Democrats at that time with 32 Senators out of 74.

The Democrat thinks there is no possibility of a democratic Senate earlier than March 4, 1879, unless a very serious change of public opinion occurs in the interim. In that year 10 Republican Senators go out, whose constituencies have recently gone over to the opposition. The conclusion is drawn, therefore, that this decidedly Republican complexion of the Senate for another four years will have a great influence in the matters of the possible impeachment of the President, the public appointments during that time, the determining of the next Presidential election, and the character of the congressional legislation for the next two Congresses, or four sessions of that body.

SCIENCE IN SIAM.—The King of Siam, through Bhasharawonge, "His Serene Majesty's Private Secretary," sends to the Royal Astronomical Society and the Royal Society, London, an invitation to appoint men of science to observe the total eclipse of the sun in April next in Siam, and promises to make them his private guests, take upon himself their entertainment, provide transport for themselves and their instruments to and fro between Bangkok and such station as they may select, erect the temporary buildings for themselves and their assistants, and furnish them scientific assistants if they wish.

The Royal Society has sent out a committee to go and make a specific series of observations of the sun such as has never been attempted before.

Sunday School Festival — Material Progress.

MENDON, Jan. 24, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

We had a grand time yesterday with the members of our Sunday school, a day which I think will be long remembered by them. The programme of the performances was as follows:

At twelve o'clock, m., the teachers and children, to the number of about 150, assembled at the meeting house, where we enjoyed ourselves in a grand picnic, after which we commenced drawing for the prizes, which had been purchased for the occasion, and which consisted of apples, candy, penholders, pencils, handkerchiefs, babies' stockings, etc., which were hung in a small pine tree, situated in the centre of the hall. Each prize was numbered. Then there were other numbers placed in a small box, which corresponded with the numbers on the prizes, and as each drew his number I can truly say it was a pleasing sight to see them wending their way to the little pine tree. They were all much delighted with this part of the programme. I will here state that there were just as many prizes as there were scholars present, so that it was no blanks, unlike most of the lotteries of the day.

After we had enjoyed ourselves in this style for two or three hours, we all retired to our homes, to do our chores and prepare ourselves for the dance, which commenced precisely at six o'clock, p.m. and it was amusing to see the little urchins "trip the light fantastic toe." In this delightful amusement we enjoyed ourselves until about eleven o'clock, when we retired to our homes, each perfectly satisfied with the amusements of the day, and with a fixed determination that this shall not be the last day of the kind.

I am pleased to tell you we have a good thriving Sunday school, under the able management of Elder John Donaldson, superintendent, Isaac Sorensen, assistant supt., and a good troupe of teachers.

The United Order is progressing favorably. The majority of the people here are determined to carry it out. Some of the brethren have been off to the kanyons, getting out lumber, to build a dairy which I think will be in operation sometime next summer, with brother Andrew Andersen superintendent.

ALFRED GARDNER,
Cor. Secretary.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

CONCRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Credentials Presented—Petition, Etc.

WASHINGTON, 2.—Cameron presented the credentials of Wm. A. Wallace, senator elect from Pennsylvania.

Clayton presented a petition from Jas. Brooks, claiming to be the legal governor of Arkansas, and praying that the office now withheld from him by force and fraud be restored by the action of Congress, and that he be protected therein; ordered printed and referred.

Sherman submitted a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire into the existing legislation in the District of Columbia, and learn if there is any to suppress gambling establishments in the District, and if there is no such legislation, to report a bill to confer such power; adopted.

It was announced that Sargent, who was to address the Senate on Louisiana matters to-day, had been taken suddenly ill and could not speak to day, and on motion of Ingalls the committee on Indian affairs was allowed till 2 p.m. for the disposition of the bills on the calendar from that committee.

HOUSE.

Skirmishing Continued.

The House met at 10 a. m. in continuation of Monday's session, when after some preliminary skirmishing Butler, of Mass., moved to suspend the rules so as to give the committee on rules the privilege of reporting forthwith; the motion was rejected, yeas 177, nays 93, less than two-thirds affirmative.

After considerable filibustering the majority finally succeeded, by one vote, in suspending the rules, and the committee on rules reported the Garfield rule to prevent filibustering, and a discussion ensued.

EASTERN.

The Beecher Trial.

NEW YORK, 2.—In the Beecher trial, this morning, Tilton continued his evidence on the same subject as yesterday.

An Extraordinary Scene.

A Harrisburg dispatch gives an account of a disgraceful scene in the Pennsylvania house of representatives yesterday. During a parliamentary contest over a petition in reference to a contested election case, Wolff, a republican member, came in conflict with the speaker, who finally ordered him to be put under arrest, when the republican members rallied to his defense, and forcibly took him from the sergent-at-arms.

Fratricide.

CHICAGO, 2.—At Sheffield, Bureau Co., Ills., on Sunday night, Samuel Reed shot his brother Henry dead, in a quarrel about some family matters. Henry, who was a powerful man, six feet eight inches tall, was going up stairs in his father's house, with the avowed intention of whipping him, when the latter fired at him from the top of the stairs, the ball entering his heart. The family is wealthy and respected.

Weavers Going Back to England.

FALL RIVER, Mass., 2.—The Granite and Crescent mills closed yesterday, and the merchants, today, owing to dissatisfaction about the wages of the weavers expressed last night, resolved that one thousand of their number shall go back to England, half fare to be advanced to each. It is held that this will be much more economical than keeping them in the funds of the Union. The spinners working will be assessed $1 per week each while the difficulty continues. The weavers say they are ready to submit their differences to arbitration.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Bright Will Preside.

LONDON, 2.—John Bright has consented to preside at the caucus of the liberal party to-day.

SPAIN.

The Army Advancing.

MADRID, 1.—The army of the north continues to advance, and has taken Monreal and Lerge, and the relief of Pampeluna is considered certain. The Carlists are abandoning the route without resistance.

PRUSSIA.

Ultramontane Candidate.

BERLIN, 2.—The ultramontanes have resolved to make Bishop Paderborn a candidate for Parliament from Breton, Westphalia.
