

ALMA—TOO MEAN TO LIVE.

Young Tom, the son of the late... Alma, the daughter of the late...

He has never been known to spend a cent upon any of his friends...

At an up town hotel, where Tom boarded, there came a handsome young lady from a southern state...

Nearly every day Tom handed Alma a bag of money...

She was not present upon this particular occasion...

"Yes," said the young woman, "I am a very peculiar thing. I'm sorry to say, I've never been gathering up my efforts...

"Bobbie," said grandmamma one day, "you have been a very good little girl while you have staid with us, and I'm going to give you a present."

"Well, grandmamma, I'm sorry to see you so young to go to a boys' school and spend his half crown..."

THE DOCTOR'S... THE DOCTOR'S...

It may be that you are from that part of the country...

The doctor was better struck by being discovered, and would only say "Well, it is that way, isn't it?"

A romantic story comes from the twenty cities of Utah...

It was not long ago that a certain gentleman, who was a doctor...
