

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

DEATH OF MISS ANNIE LOCKHART.—It is with extreme regret that we are called upon to record the demise of Miss Annie Lockhart, who for several months past has appeared prominently before the public of this city as an actress at the Salt Lake Theatre. She has been indisposed for a considerable time past, but not so as to cause alarm in the minds of her friends. Shortly after her arrival in this city she had an attack of Mountain Fever, and has never been so well since as before; but her health has been sufficiently good to permit her to attend to her professional duties. On the morning of Monday last, while at rehearsal, she was taken suddenly ill, and was unable to appear on Monday evening, as announced, inflammation of the bowels having set in. Medical assistance was procured for her, but it proved unavailing, and she gradually sank and died at 5 o'clock this morning.

Although Miss Lockhart has played at the Salt Lake Theatre, and was on terms of intimacy and friendship with the ladies gentlemen of the establishment, yet little that is authentic is known of her early life or history. She is supposed to have been born in Derbyshire, England, but spent a great part of her life in London, emigrating from there to Australia about ten years ago. While in Australia she adopted the stage as a profession, and rapidly attained a high degree of proficiency. In 1885 she left Australia and came to San Francisco, playing at Maguire's Opera House, the Metropolitan and other theatres in California.

She came to this city on the 8th of last February and made her first appearance on the 10th as "Parthenia" in "Ingomar." Since that period she has occupied the position of leading lady in the Stock Company, and appeared for the last time on the evening of Saturday last as "Jeanne Pujol" in "Clande Marcel, or the Idiot of the Mountain."

Her funeral obsequies will take place at the 13th Ward Meeting House at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

THEATRICAL.—The lovers of heavy tragedy, who honored the Theatre with their presence last night, had a feast of fat things in witnessing Kate Denin's impersonation of that most notorious of poisoners, "Lucretia Borgia"; her rendition of the character was very artistic, and it is doubtful whether it has ever been surpassed on the Salt Lake stage. She was well supported by the company, and the performance throughout elicited frequent and hearty manifestations of approval. In tragedy we think Kate Denin appears to greater advantage than in comedy or melo-drama.

The farce, "Too Much for Good Nature," was well played, as might be expected with the leading characters in the hands of such capable actors as Graham, Margolis, Lindsay and Annie Ward.

MONK'S CIRQUE.—The Morning Call, San Francisco, of last Sunday, says that Monk's circus has been drawing immensely in that city for the past few days. The entire troupe consists of Signor Manageri, Signor Grindero, leader of the orchestra,—consisting of a hand organ,—and Signor Monk. They perform on any convenient spot in the streets, and though they do not make so much show as "Castejo's" circus, they draw well and do a good business.

THE CHURCH LANGUISHING IN DENVER.—The Colorado Tribune, of last Sunday (Nov. 14), publishes a feeling appeal to the citizens of Denver, to be more liberal in support of the Christian Churches and pastors in that city. It says that Denver has 6000 inhabitants, prides itself on being civilized, claims to be the centre of talent, commerce, religion, beauty, literature, enterprise, etc., and yet it, the Tribune, doubts if, with all these pretensions, there are above 400 out of the 6000 inhabitants who regularly attend any place of worship. Half of these, at least, never contribute to the support of the churches; they attend, except occasionally dropping a torn ten-cent coin-plate into the contribution box when it is put under their noses and they cannot help themselves.

The Tribune thinks every woman in Denver ought to be interested in rendering aid for the support of the churches, and that it is disgraceful that any of the Protestant churches there should have to ask aid from the headquarters of their churches in the East.

These remarks of the Tribune are not very flattering to the status of the citizens of Denver as Christians, and for their own credit they had better give heed to its well-tempered suggestions.

A NEW DRUG STORE.—Zion's Wholesale Co-operative Mercantile Institution will open, in a few days, another branch of their establishment for the sale of drugs, perfumery, and everything in that line. They have purchased the stock of the Messrs. Bauman, which, in addition to that they have imported, will make the largest and best assortment in the Territory. The drug store will be in the building one door south of the Overland Telegraph Office, East Temple street.

HORSE STEALING.—We have received the following per Deseret Telegraph line: BEAVER, Nov. 16, '90.

Ed. Deseret News:—On Friday, the 12th inst., Wm. Allred, of this place, found that one of his horses had disappeared from the east field. After searching some time he got on the horse's track, leading over the mountains to the Sevier. On Saturday morning he started on foot from Beaver, armed with a double barreled shot-gun and a revolver, and having with him three days' provisions. He followed the trail, and on Sunday morning, about 8 o'clock, came in sight of his horse, which was grazing in an open space about forty miles from Beaver, on the east side of the mountains, between Circleville and Marysville. He then took a circuit around, got ahead of the trail and ambushed himself behind some rocks close to the trail, knowing that an Indian had the horse as he had seen his foot prints and camp fires. In a short time the Indian came along mounted on the horse, and when within about twenty or twenty-five yards from bro. Allred, the latter fired one barrel of his shot-gun, loaded with five revolver bullets, which settled the account with Mr. Indian. He was a strange Indian and wore a Navajo blanket. Bro. Allred took his horse with the Indian's saddle and bridle rope and came home, arriving here on Sunday evening at 9 p.m. The Indian had marked his trail all along, and is very likely one of the Navajos that have been raiding South lately.

CHALLENGE TO SEWING MACHINE MEN.

LOUISVILLE, KY., August 21, 1890.
Agents for all Sewing Machines, Louisville, Ky.—Gentlemen: We hereby challenge you to exhibit your Sewing Machine for premium at the Kentucky State Fair, commencing September 14, 1890.

The absence of any Sewing Machine, with its representative, at the designated time and place, will be regarded as an acknowledgment of defeat and inability to compete.
KENNEDY & CHURCHILL,
Agents Singer Sewing Machine, 100 Fourth St.
GEO. W. SCOVILLE,
Agent Improved Howe Sewing Machine, 100 Fourth Street.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

Messrs. Kennedy & Churchill, Agents Singer Machine, and Geo. W. Scoville, Agent Howe Machine,—in response to a challenge you published in the "Courier-Journal" of the 22d inst. permit us to ACCEPT your challenge to exhibit our Sewing Machine for the FIRST PREMIUM at the coming Kentucky State Fair. As you have thrown down the gauntlet, we most cheerfully pick it up.

JNO. McCONNELL & CO.,
Agents Florence Sewing Machine, No. 110 Fourth Street.

THE RESULT.

The FLORENCE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE was awarded the TWO HIGHEST PREMIUMS at the Kentucky State Fair over ALL ITS COMPETITORS, and was declared by all who examined it to be THE BEST SEWING MACHINE on exhibition.

The following is a list of the ladies and gentlemen who composed the Committee, and by whom the premiums were awarded.

DR. BROWN, Chairman,
Emmance, Ky.
MRS. W. BENEDICT,
MRS. JUDGE LOGAN
MRS. E. LOW
HON. GEO. E. H. GRAY.

REASONS.

1—Simplicity and great range of work. 2—Its making four different stitches, viz: the lock stitch, double lock stitch, knot stitch, and double knot stitch. 3—Its reversible feed motion, operated by simply turning a thumb screw, enabling the operator to run the work right or left, and convenience of self-fastening the ends of seams. 4—The perfect finish and substantial manner in which the Machine is made. 5—The rapidity of its work, and the quality of the work done. 6—Its easy adjustment.

The Very Best Sewing Machine!

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION SEWING

MACHINE is the best in the Market. In addition to all work done on other lock-stitch machines, this machine will work button holes, eyelet holes and do oversewing, the same stitch as by hand-sewing. It is a strong machine, will sew any kind of fabric and is as low in price as any other standard machine in use.

Inquiries respecting it will be answered and
