TAFT'S THOUGHTS.

With hands upon Mr. Taft's cranium, Persia's representative told the Knock-ers of the thoughts passing through his brains as follows:

"He is just now congratulating him-self that he was made a 'Knocker at sight,' and so is the gost. "He is now trying to discover some word to use instead of 'd-e-lighted." "He is wondering whether the 'in-visible Knox' who bosses this bunch can prossibly be the abbunctions scenario. visible Knox who bosses this bunch can possibly be the abiquitous senator from Pennsylvania. The tension upon Mr. Taft was made even lighter than freedom from speaking, as a skillfully made up "double" represented him in the entertainment statures, occupying a conspicuous place at the raised table with "Uncle Sam" and "Miss Columbia." Fifteen Knock-ers were dressed to represent 15 foreign nations, and a message to the president-elect came from each. Emperor William's wireless message was to announce to Mr. Taft a kiss for sach check and the hope that the tenate would not find it necessary to re-Pike's opera house and was kissed by the 'Prince Charming'-it was his just kiss-and then he acquired the habit and then he acquired the manit of displaying his pearly toeth in a geraphic smile.
