It is estimated by several commission merchants of the city that J. Thornton, who operated under the name of the Salt Lake Grain and Produce Company, and who has disappeared, succeeding in getting away with nearly $2,000 from outside sources and from Thornton's scheme was to buy for thirty to sixty days and sell for cash. CASE AGAINST MRS. BAKER

It is Postponed Indefinitely at the Request of the Prosecution.

Mrs. Baker is Allowed to Go on Her Own Recognizance—Defendant Lake Gives Bail.

Mrs. J. M. Baker was released today on her own recognizance. In connection with this it may be noted that the prosecution in the Christensen case is being accused of exhibiting signs of weakening and that it proceeded with the investigation in the first place in a half-hearted manner. There have been so many rumors of this kind afloat that a reporter of the "News" spoke thereon to Deputy Gunnel, who said, in regard to the alleged signs of weakening, "Not a word of truth in it. The county attorney's office thinks a serious crime has been committed, and the office will do all it can to sift the matter to the bottom."

Quite a crowd had gathered in Justice Parker's court room this morning in anticipation of the preliminary examination of Mrs. J. M. Baker. All the witnesses who testified at the coroner's inquest were present. The defendant occupied a seat alongside of the witnesses who testified at the coroner's inquest were present. The defendant occupied a seat alongside of her husband and her attorney, W. H. Hutchinson, Esq., when the court inquired if the parties were ready to proceed Mr. Hutchinson was asked to have the case continued indefinitely, at the same time requesting that the bondsmen be released and that the defendant be allowed to go on her own recognizance. The motion was granted. Mrs. Baker, after shaking hands with a number of members in the Albert Bank, left the court room smiling.

OLD MEMBER OF THE CHURCH.

Thatcher, Arizona, March 7, 1899.

Editor Deseret News:

Among some notices of the oldest living child born in the Church, I am still older by about three years than the one reported. I was born on the 15th of September, 1831, in Lawrence county, town of Amboyne, Ohio. I am the son of Hiram and Lydia Harmer who were baptized in the spring of 1831.

DANIELSON DURAM HARMER.

A HUSBAND'S WOES.

Wife Attended Parties and Left Him to Mind the Babies.

Peter Rasmussen Jr. has commenced divorce proceedings against his wife, Cressie Rasmussen, alleging that the marriage took place in Grantsville county, March 1, 1895, and that for some time past Mrs. Rasmussen, against his repeated protests, has attended dances and parties in company with other men. The plaintiff also alleges that his wife is extremely irritable, and quarrelsome and is possessed of an ungovernable temper. Mr. Rasmussen further says that he has been constantly annoyed with his wife for her unbecoming conduct she called him vile and opprobrious names and refused to do him her wifely duties and attacked him with a knife. Once, plaintiff says, his wife attempted to beat him over the head with a beer bottle and another time threatened to poison him.

There are two children of the marriage, but the prayer of the complaint is merely for a dissolution of the matrimonial tie.

MOVING THE TWENTY-FOURTH.

In accordance with a dispatch received at Fort Douglas from the war department, three companies of the seven now at the fort have been placed under marching orders. The regimental headquarters was directed to which the companies which would be sent away. After a conference with the company commanders, company D will be sent to Fort Harrison, and company M to Fort Spokane. Company K, of the Twenty-fourth, now at Fort Logan Springs, Wyo., will be sent to Fort Assiniboine, as directed by the war department. It is thought that the companies sent to Fort D. A. Russell will not be moved.

The commander of company B is Capt. Wyeant, the senior captain in the regiment. Capt. Ducat is in command of company D and company M is commanded by Capt. Batchelder. The latter officer will be the first to move. Capts. Henry Wyeant, Arthur C. Ducat and Joseph B. Batchelder, Jr., First Lieuts. William R. Hamilton, H. Weedy Wright of the regiment of Washington volunteer infantry now at Manila, and First Lieut. Henry O. Lyon, now at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., Second Lieuts. William L. Murphy, Theodore A. Baldwin and Daniel F. Keliher. There has been no estimate that the company Wyeant will be promoted to the position of major.

KILLED BY A HORSE'S FALL.

David Leslie, a well known mining man, died at Farmington last night of an accident which took place on Antelope island on Monday afternoon. The unfortunate man was engaged in White's sheep camp on the island, rounding up some cattle, when his horse stepped and fell, pinning him to the ground. Friends carried the injured man into the city for medical aid, but he passed away at Farmington, after being viewed upon the train for Salt Lake. The remains were taken to the undertaking parlors of J. W. Taylor, and the funeral was held this afternoon. The deceased, who was a native of Maryland, was 42 years of age.

WITH THE SALVATION ARMY

Its Self-Denial Week is from March 10 to March 26 This Year.

Adjutant S. M. Simonson, in charge of the operations Army work in this city, says that all eyes in army circles center now upon their coming self-denial week, so called because officers, corps, soldiers and friends join in a united effort during the week set apart for the purpose to deny themselves of some articles of food or other comforts, and with the money thus saved create a fund for the benefit of the army's work in their home and missionary field. It is a remarkable fact, says Mr. Simonson, the accomplishment of which ought to make the army rejoice, that throughout the world by the effort over $400,000 were raised last year, and with the economy that is practiced by the army, it is not difficult to reckon the tremendous good that can be accomplished with these funds. The army is sent its officers and soldiers to nearly every home in the United States during the days from March 18th to 26, inclusive. The people will be urged to deny themselves in some practical way, and this contribute, however small it may be the sum, to the effort. Suppose for instance, that 100,000 persons in the United States will deny one of two pounds of beef during the week, a thing that many will do, suppose furthermore that each pound averages 15 cents. It is a simple problem of mathematics that the receipts of the army would be increased to the extent of $15,000. Add to this the saving from sugar, butter, etc., to say nothing of articles of clothing, and one will readily understand how with the proceeds of such self-denial, generally practiced, an immense amount of money may be raised for a noble purpose.

At the request of Mr. Simonson, the foregoing item is submitted to the "News" readers.

THE BARBERS' TROUBLE.

The Barbers' Union in this city is still wrestling with the "blacklog" problem. Some eight or nine unionist artists of the smaller shops have been cut at via tongs and refuse to charge fifteen cents. The five cent men on East Temple street still holds out and accuses the union of forcing down the rates and adding ten cents to the comfortable letters about three times a week. This insinuation is indignantly denied by the Knights of the Razor, who have employed the services of a detective to unearth the anonymous scribe. In the meantime it is gratifying to note that the two magnetic lathers on South Temple street who have an score that one occasion "squared up" to each other on the sidewalk have shaken hands and entered into the fifteen cent compact.

PHILIPPINE ISLAND CURIOSITIES

Just now the window of a down town store is the center of attention. Philippine souvenirs brought home by Lieut. Grow being the drawing card. The collection includes arrows, Manser and Remington rifles, blood earthing machetes, Spanish soldiers' uniform, of the light and airy order, cartridges, shells and fragments of the same. Philippinish bandages and a Mauser rifle.

Among the more unique curios are to be found a couple of old time Spanish bullets, that were used on state ballrooms, by the Spanish governor's escort; a couple of cutlasses taken from one of the warships sunk by Dewey, and a metal enameled plate that had been cut by a splinter from a Spanish shell a few minutes after it had left the hands of a Utah artillerymen.

CHAUNCEY AND IRA WEST.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 6, 1899.

To the Editor:

A few days ago, as myself and companion, Elder S. E. Holt, were distributing our literature among the people, and conversing on the principles of the Gospel, where opportunity presented itself before us, we were invited to a house, by a pleasant looking gentleman, to see one of "Cy" Foster, residing at 802 Sylvania st., St. Joseph, Mo. He inquired of us as to his cousins, who were the sons of Ira West, the early Pioneers, namely Chauncey W. West, and Ira West. Their mother died in Atchison Co., Mo., on the way to Utah, and Chauncey and Ira West (the only names he can remember) went on west. Chauncey W. West was the captain over a company of fifty. Any information as to where they or their families reside, as he (Cy. O. Foster) could hear from them, would be gladly received by the readers of the "News," by Cyrus O. Foster.
