hobby of the opposition in Utah. "Give the women the right to vote," said they, "and Mormonism is a doomed institution." A "Mormon" Legislature passed the "Act conferring upon women the elective franchise," it was signed by a "Liberal" Executive and became a living statute. And now those who lamored for its passage cry its repeal. What for excuse could our legislators offer to the women of Utah, for depriving them of rights bestowed upon them by the highest political anthority-an Act of the Governor garding the enlistment of colored and Legislative Assembly, confirmed by the tacit consent of the Congress of the United States? Nothing but a crayen desire to pander to the

The right of sufirage having been conferred upon the women of Utah, we do not betieve they can legally, and we are ers. sure they cannot rightfully, be deprived of it, even if those who represent their fathers, husbands and brothers were stupid enough to wish to rob them of that right. The marked bal-tot guards the way they would creep along to steal the power which the people will not confer upon them. "Ballot stuffing" is impossible under this plan. It ex-cels all others as a protection against the cunning corruptionist. Therefore those who want not only all the executive but also the legislative powers of the Territory, make a terrible hue and cry against the marked ballot, and in the place of sound argument use misrepre sentation and buncembe, and raise a din to confuse and deceive the multitude. The objact of retaining the marked ballot is, simply, as the Record.
