

er offices displayed flags at half-mast, as a mark of respect. The Associated Press, to-day, adopted resolutions expressive of profound sorrow at the death of Mr. Raymond.

San Francisco, 13.—Additional discoveries of rich silver deposits are reported at White Pine, causing considerable excitement in that region. The shipments of bullion from thence, have latterly averaged seventy to eighty thousand dollars a week. Their milling facilities will soon be doubled.

Intelligence has been received of the rapid progress of rust in the wheat and barley crops; the damage is most considerable in the coast counties, where heavy fogs have prevailed during the past few weeks, although accounts indicate that the rust is not general or the mischief would be more serious.

Legal tenders 741.

Twelve hundred Chinamen arrived from Hong Kong yesterday.

The Tribune's Washington special says, the Republican Club held a meeting last night to take action about the disgraceful riot at the election to-day. The hall, was mostly filled with colored men. Resolutions severely censuring the rioters and saying that every man had the right to vote as he pleased was almost unanimously tabled; then one was passed sincerely hoping that necessity will throw upon us no repetition of the scenes of that day. This strange turn of words excites comment.

The printers are preparing for a big fight over the colored printer Douglass. His supporters will hold a meeting to-night and an address will be made by Howard and others.

New York.—The Swedenborgian Convention tabled the resolution on the subject of the introduction of the words "parish" and "diocese" into their organization.

Williamsburg.—The Dime Savings Bank has been robbed by sneak thieves of nearly $6,000.

Minnie Warren was married at Westhaven, Conn., to-day, to Commodore Nutt.

Boston.—The court has refused a new trial in the case of Mrs. Nancy Madden, convicted of the murder of her son-in-law, Obadiah Jones, at Canton, in July last; she has been sentenced to be hanged.

Information has been lodged with the U. S. Attorney that the schooner Lave, laden with great guns, shell and other ammunition, was bound for the West Indies. The informers wished her to be libelled, but Attorney Hilliard, after a personal inspection of the vessel refused to detain her, as the proceeding was in violation of the law.

Boston.—The Coliseum, to-day, was filled to its utmost capacity; the programme was strictly classical. Musical critics pronounce the whole performance a success in every respect. Geo. Peabody was introduced by the Mayor, and made a brief speech. He was heartily cheered. The grand chorus was dismissed to-day, with an appropriate recognition of their services. To-morrow there will be given grand concerts by the children of the public schools.

Buffalo.—U. S. detective John Byrne, arrested U. S. detective Russell R. Lowell, at Canandaigua yesterday, for collusion and conspiracy with counterfeiters; Lowell was lodged in jail to await his trial.

Hudson.—The first charter conferred by the Regents of the New Jersey University, to grant degrees upon women, was to-day conferred upon the Hudson River Institute at Cleaverick.

New York.—Two men named Lovis and Arnold were arrested last night on a charge of boring holes in the bellows of their gas meter; each hole saved ten per cent on the consumer's bill, while the companies sustained ten per cent loss. This fraud has been largely practiced here and in Boston.

A freight train of 11 cars ran through an open draw into the Passaic last night. The persons on the train escaped.

Concord, N. H.—John P. Austin was shot dead on Tuesday evening, in Dover, by Ann Gage. Some young people were examining a revolver when the deceased asked Miss Gage to fire at him, not supposing the pistol was loaded.

Chicago, 19.—The Tribune's Washington special says the McGarrahan case has got into the Attorney General's office. The other side asked the Secretary of the Interior to issue patents to them, but he referred the matter to Judge Hoar, for advice. McGarrahan's counsel appeared before the Attorney General to learn the result of the application.

The case of lawyer Bradley against Judge Fisher, was called up at the Circuit Court yesterday. Bradley claims $20,000 damage because Fisher expelled him from his court during the Surratt trial; Fisher has filed a plea, shielding himself behind his prerogative as a Judge on the bench at the time the proceedings occurred.

Pittsburg, 20.—Miss Emma Litke, aged 15, a resident of Juniata Co., was suffocated by the escaping of gas, at the St. James Hotel, in this city last night. She blew out the gas instead of turning it off.

Washington.—A very large meeting of the Typographical Union was held in this city last night. The committee on nominations, among others, reported in favor of the admission of Lewis H. Douglass, a colored printer employed in the Government Office. A minority report against his admission was presented, on the ground that as he came from Denver, where there is a Typographical Union, without a card, he could not properly be admitted here. The majority report was adopted by a vote of 229 to 164. The announcement was received with applause, mingled with hisses. After a vote on three other applicants had been taken, the President was about to read Douglass' name, when a motion to adjourn prevailed amid great disorder and excitement.

Memphis.—The crop reports from Arkansas, North Mississippi and North Alabama are favorable, despite the unpropitious weather of some weeks past.

Washington.—To-day, in the District Circuit Court, in the case of W. S. Smithson vs. Edwin M. Stanton, in an action for fifty thousand dollars, for false arrest and imprisonment, Judge Hughes filed a motion for the inspection of the orders, letters and documents referred to in the pleas of the defendant. Judge Wylie reserved his decision.

The funeral services of Mr. Raymond are appointed for Monday afternoon.

Boston.—The closing performances of the Peace Jubilee were given to-day by 700 to 9,000 school children, attracting a large and delighted audience. Ole Bull played a solo, Parepa Rosa and Adelaide Phillips sang a duet. The closing piece was the "Old Hundredth Psalm," sung by the children, the audience joining. Several children were overcome by the heat and excitement.

Washington.—The Bricklayers' Union have expelled six members because they persist in working with two colored bricklayers in the Washington Navy Yard.

New York.—The cap makers are on a strike. They had a meeting last night at which a regular fight occurred; one man was badly hurt.

Washington, 19.—Reports have been received from the revenue officers of East Tennessee, North Carolina and the border counties of Virginia, communicating intelligence of the seizure and destruction of sixty illicit distilleries within a few weeks past. The work was rendered exceedingly difficult and dangerous, owing to the remoteness of the districts and the desperate character of those engaged in the business. Gen. Sherman directed the military to render any assistance in their power to the revenue officers. In consequence of the great difficulty encountered by the revenue officers in Philadelphia in their attempts to suppress the numerous contraband distilleries. Application has been made to the Secretary of the Navy for a squad of marines. The Attorney General directs the United States Marshall there to contribute aid to the local constabulary.
