DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. VII. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, WEDNESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 3, 1873. NO. 10.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Last Night's Dispatches.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Bills Introduced.

WASHINGTON, 2.—In the Senate, pending the reception of the President's message a large number of bills were introduced, by unanimous consent, to be hereafter referred, including one by Buckingham to provide for free banking, secure an elastic currency, appreciate the national obligations, and to reach specie payments without commercial embarrassment.

The President's message was received and read, when the Senate went into executive session for a few minutes and then adjourned.

HOUSE.

Bankruptcy—Admitted.

In the House notices were given of a number of bills to be presented, including one for a special bankrupt law.

Butler's resolution to admit Sypher, Shelden and Pinchbeck, from Louisiana, was discussed at length. The question was taken separately on Sypher, who was admitted by nearly a strict party vote, and Sheldon was admitted without the yeas and nays. Pinchbeck was not reached. Adjourned.

Nominations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 2.—The President nominated Geo. H. Williams, of Oregon, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; B. H. Bristow, of Kentucky, Attorney General, and A. R. Shepherd, Governor of the District of Columbia.

Protectorate Desired.

Accompanying the President's message is a letter from President Baez, dated Aug. 18th, to President Grant, desiring this government to assume a protectorate over St. Domingo, to preserve that country from hostile incursions from Hayti.

EASTERN.

Billiard Match.

NEW YORK.—The billiard match for $1,000, between Garnier and C. Dion, to-night, was won by Garnier, score 600 to 490, winner's average 10. Ubassey will challenge Garnier.

A "Reformed" Church.

The Kansas Pacific Railroad defaulted yesterday in the payment of the December interest on four millions in bonds.

A number of Episcopalian clergymen and laymen, among the former the Rev. Cheeney, of Chicago, met to-day at Association Hall, in response to the recent call of Bishop Cummins, of Kentucky, and organized themselves into a so-called Reformed Episcopal Church, with Dr. Cummins as presiding bishop.

Reverend Secessionists.

Among the prominent clergy present at the organizing of the reformed Episcopal church were Mason Gallagher, M. B. Smith, of N. J., Dr. Cheeney, of Illinois, Dr. Paine Nathan, Rev. Dr. Cheeney. Col. B. Ayrigg, of N. J., presided. Bishop Cummins' declaration of principles was referred to the committee, consisting of Bishop Cummins, D. D. Kellogg, of N. J., Albert Crane, of Chicago, Rev. M. B. Smith, of N. J., and Rev. J. A. Sabine, of N. Y. The committee reported a resolution to organize, the organization to be known as the reformed Episcopal Church, with the Right Rev. David Cummins as presiding bishop, and declaring its principles. The first avows belief in the Scriptures, the apostle's creed, the divine institution of the sacraments of baptism and Lord's supper, and the doctrine of grace, substantially as set forth in the 39 articles of religion; the second adheres to Episcopacy, not as a divine right, but as an ancient form of church policy; the third adopts the prayer book recommended by the convention of 1785, reserving the liberty to alter or change, as may be conducive to the education of the people, provided the substance of the faith be kept entire; the fourth rejects and condemns the doctrine that the church exists only on one order of form of ecclesiastical policy and that the ministers are priests in any other sense than that all believers are a social priesthood, that the Lord's table is an altar on which the body and blood of Christ are offered anew to the Father, that the presence of Christ in the Lord's Supper is a presence in the elements of bread and wine, and that regeneration is inseparably connected with baptism. After the devotional service it was resolved that a general conference be held on the second Wednesday in May. The following were appointed standing committees: — Revs. M. B. Smith, B. B. Leacock, Charles Cheeney, Macon Gallagher, C. Cunnington; Laymen, G. M. Tibbetts, G. A. Sabine, A. J. Tyng, G. S. Hubbard, C. D. Kellogg; Finance, D. Ayerigg, Albert Crane, and J. M. Carter. J. L. Morgan, of New York, was elected permanent chairman. The presiding bishop and standing committees were authorized to prepare the regulations for the government of the church and to report the same to the next council, with amendments to the prayer book and to adopt both until that council meets. Rules were adopted admitting ministers from other churches without letters of dismissal, re-ordinations to be performed by one or more bishops or with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery, and admitting communicants from other churches.

Bishoprick Tendered.

The Reformed Episcopal Church, to-night, tendered the Rev. Dr. Cheeney, of Illinois, the position of Bishop of the West.

Left for Paris.

The Herald's cable special from London says that eleven survivors of the Ville du Havre left for Paris to-night. During their stay here all were treated most kindly.

Fire and Loss of Life.

CANOJOHARIE, N. Y., 2.—A gasoline explosion in Arkell & Smith's sack factory burned the factory and contents, loss a hundred thousand, insured for half that amount. Peter McCabe was burned to death. W. J. Arkell, son of one of the proprietors, was severely burned.

The Protocol.

WASHINGTON, 2.—The protocol of conference held at the Department of State, at Washington, on the 29th of November, 1873, between Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State, and Rear Admiral Don Jose Polo de Barnabel, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of Spain:

The undersigned having met for the purpose of entering into a definite agreement respecting the case of the steamer Virginius, which, while under the flag of the United States, was, on the 31st day of October last, captured on the high sea by the Spanish man-of-war Tornado, have reached the following conclusions:

Spain, on her part, stipulates to restore, within ten, the vessel referred to, and the survivors of her passengers and crew, and, on the 25th day of December next, to salute the flag of the United States. If, however, before that date, Spain should prove, to the satisfaction of the government of the United States, that the Virginius was not entitled to carry the flag of the U. S., and was carrying it at the time of her capture without right and improperly, the salute will be spontaneously dispensed with, as in such case not being a necessary requirement; but the United States will expect in such case a disclaimer of intent of indignity to its flag in the act which was committed.

Further, on or before the 25th of December, 1873, if it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the United States that the Virginius did not rightfully carry the American flag, and was not entitled to American papers, the United States will institute enquiry and adopt legal proceedings against any of the persons who may appear to have been guilty of illegalities in connection therewith, it being understood that Spain will proceed, according to the second proposition made to General Sickles, and communicated in his telegram to Admiral Polo, on the 29th inst., to investigate the conduct of those authorities who have infringed Spanish laws and honorary obligations, and will arraign them before competent courts, and inflict punishment on those who may have offended. Other reciprocal reclamations are to be subject to consideration and arrangement between the two governments, and in case of no agreement to be subject to arbitration if the constitutional assent of the Senate of the United States be given thereto.

It is further stipulated that the time, manner and place for the surrender of the Virginius and the survivors of those who were on board her at the time of her capture, and also the time, manner and salute of the flag of the U. S., if there should be occasion for such salute, shall be subject to argument between the undersigned within the next two days.

Signed HAMILTON FISH.
JOSE POLO DE BARNABEL.

Synopsis of Treasury Report.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in his report, points out the falling off in the revenues, caused by the financial crisis, and bases the estimates of the receipts somewhat thereon. He shows that the coin receipts are still more than the interest on the public and other coin expenditures, and recommends economy and the reduction of appropriations, and if the effects of the derangement in business should continue, and make it necessary to provide additional means for this purpose, he recommends judicious additional taxation rather than a resort to borrowing and increasing the public debt. He says the operations under the refunding act, for the year ending Dec. 31, 1874, make a saving of one million dollars in the annual interest, and the entire saving of the annual interest under its operation is three millions. He recommends action to be taken before January next for the payment of the $20,000,000 loans of 1858.

The Secretary condemns the practice of paying interest on deposits, as tending to accumulate currency in the large cities, where it is used largely in loans to speculators, whose operations tend directly to increase the annually recurring stringency in the money market, and to derange business generally.

The Secretary alludes to the prevailing sentiment that more elasticity should be given to the volume of the currency, and earnestly commends to the wisdom of Congress a careful consideration of the subject, and that in such inquiry, the further inflation of irredeemable paper currency should be avoided, and a permanent return to the sound basis of specie payments be kept in view.

As regards any large augmentation of legal tender notes in time of peace, as a departure from the declaration of public policy and the pledge of the public faith to the national credit, made in the act of June 30, 1864, that the amount of such notes should never exceed four hundred million dollars, as well as from that more solemn pledge contained in the first act of the forty-first Congress, to make provision, at the earliest period, for the redemption of United States notes in coin, he refers to the uncertainty in public opinion as to the right and policy of issuing the forty-four millions called the reserve, and recommends the exact status thereof to be fixed by Congress. He opposes the issue of any part of the same to inflate the currency, and suggests that it be held for a reserve, under restrictions. He also recommends changes in the law authorizing the national bank notes to be replaced, as there are practical difficulties in carrying out the purpose of Congress, under the present law. A thorough revision of the customs laws is recommended, the tonnage tax should be repealed, and new laws regarding the enrollment and license of vessels should be made so far as they affect canal boats and similar craft employed on the internal waters of the State. The recognition of customs districts on the Atlantic coasts and various changes in the laws respecting our navigation are recommended. The Secretary details what has been done in the matter of the Louisville and Portland canal, and suggests further legislation.

WESTERN.

Organized.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—In the Assembly M. M. Estee, of this city, a Democrat, was elected speaker, and Loofborough, of Eldorado, clerk.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Tichborne Case.

LONDON, 2.—The evidence in the Tichborne case was closed to-day. Dr. Kenealy, counsel for the claimant, began his speech.

FRANCE.

Elected.

PARIS, 2.—Count Legur, a member of the Right Centre, to-day, was elected Secretary of the Assembly, by 309 to 270.

SPAIN.

Ceased Firing—Royal Insignia Removed.

MADRID, 2.—The insurgents of Carthagena ceased firing at two o'clock yesterday, but resumed today. Their fire is more feeble than before. The besiegers have been reinforced, and an assault is expected soon.

An order has been promulgated for the removal of the royal insignia from the army flags.

WEST INDIES.

"Virginius" Prisoners.

SANTIAGO, Nov. 23.—The U. S. steamer Juniata arrived on the 20th. Her commander visited the hundred and one Virginius prisoners now remaining here. He telegraphed Consul General Hall and assured him that no other executions, except the thirty-seven, have occurred, and that if the American government demanded the surrender of the prisoners no difficulty would be experienced in obtaining them.
