IN OLD SALT LAKE.

THE illustration illustrates the Downe-way establishment on First South as it looked between its two owners. It was the store, the first one, that was built by the first owner, and the second one, the second owner, built the second one. The building is a two-story structure with a gabled roof and a central entrance. It is surrounded by a fence and has a small garden in front. The building is in good condition and is a fine example of the architecture of the time.
