

POLICEMEN TO GO BACK.

City Council Reinstates the Eight Men Let Out Last May.

TO REPORT FOR DUTY ON MONDAY.

People on the West Side Petition for Additional Protection of Their Property.

As the result of an action of last night's Council meeting, the eight policemen removed last May will, within the next few days, again be on duty in the city and their removal will be a definite step toward the restoration of the status quo at the last meeting of the police committee. After a full and free discussion of the subject, the committee decided to reinstate the eight policemen.

That the chief of police be, and he is, authorized to immediately authorize the reinstatement of the eight policemen removed last May, and to place them on duty in their respective beats within five days from the date of the council meeting. The chief of police is authorized to place them on duty in their respective beats within five days from the date of the council meeting. The chief of police is authorized to place them on duty in their respective beats within five days from the date of the council meeting.

Members of the West Side petitioned the Council for additional police protection. The petition was referred to the committee on police and the committee recommended that the Council should place the eight policemen removed last May on duty in their respective beats within five days from the date of the council meeting. The chief of police is authorized to place them on duty in their respective beats within five days from the date of the council meeting.
