

WITTE AND SUITE SAIL FOR RUSSIA.

Before Departing He and Baron Rosen Made a Farewell Call Upon the Japanese Diplomats.

TALKED WITH NEWSPAPER MEN

Thanked Them and Said He Recognized That "The Pen Is Mightier Than The Sword."

New York, Sept. 12.—The Russian commissioners who successfully concluded a treaty of peace with the emperor of Japan at Portsmouth, N. H., started on the return to St. Petersburg today. The party, headed by Sergei Witte, sailed on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Before leaving the city, Mr. Witte and Baron Rosen made a farewell call upon the Japanese diplomats, who expect to leave for home later in the week.

Baron Komura was unable to see the Russians because of his illness, but through Minister Tachibana he sent them a cordial message of farewell. Mr. Tachibana and other members of the Japanese party entertained the Russians for half an hour.

In addition to Mr. Witte, the party sailing on the Kaiser Wilhelm II included Gregory Wilekoff, financial agent of the Russian government to the United States. Before leaving the hotel, Mr. Witte shook hands with some of the hotel attaches with whom he had been brought into contact.

A big crowd gathered at the dock of the Kaiser Wilhelm in order to see Mr. Witte, and there was much cheering and handclapping as he went up the gang-plank, to which he bowed and acknowledgments. He received the newspaper men cordially in his rooms on board the steamer and, through Baron Rosen, made a statement to those whom he had met, thanking them and saying that he was very much pleased to have been so forcibly impressed upon him that "the pen is mightier than the sword."

He then shook hands with all of them and said good-bye. Shortly before the ship sailed, Maj. Lynch of the United States of New York and 40 members of the Irish club of New York were received by Mr. Witte. Each member of the Irish club presented to the peace envoys the Russian, American and Irish flags. Maj. Lynch said to Mr. Witte:

"We take this opportunity of thanking a country which has been a friend of our adopted country in time of need."

When the huge crowd for all visitors to go ashore, Mr. Witte and Baron Rosen embraced and kissed each other good-bye. As the ship drew out into the stream the Irish delegation and others on the dock cheered lustily, and Mr. Witte lifted his hat in response.

Before Mr. Witte left his hotel for the steamer today, he had a conference with Isaac N. Seligman, and Oscar Straus of this city and Adolph Kraus of Chicago.

Mr. Seligman said after the conference:

"Mr. Witte allowed us to foresee the emancipation of the Jews in Russia and their participation in the government of the empire in the same degree and proportion that other Russian subjects are allowed to participate."

"Mr. Witte made no pledges; he spoke for himself as an individual, but it is well known, while not in power now, he will be soon. The Jews in Russia will again enjoy civil rights. Discrimination prejudicial to the Jews, and the injustice of which Mr. Witte admits freely, will be ended, and they will be placed on an equal footing with the rest of the empire's subjects."

"The matter of a loan," he said, "was not even suggested. Mr. Witte, at the time of our first conference with him at Portsmouth, had expressed a desire to confer with us further on the question of the persecution of Jews in Russia, and the visit of Messrs. Straus, Kraus and myself to him this morning was in compliance with the expressed wish of Mr. Witte. We continued the discussion of economical conditions in Russia where he had left off, citing inequalities in the law and restrictions particularly affecting the Jews, and suggested their abolition or repeal."

"I may say that we left Mr. Witte impressed with the belief that the reforms urged by us will be in effect and that in no very distant day the Jews of Russia will enjoy equal rights with all other Russian subjects."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

TAGGART DIVORCE CASE.

Judge Smyzer Concludes His Argument in Behalf of Wife.

Woonsocket, R. I., Sept. 12.—Judge Smyzer concluded his argument in behalf of Mrs. Taggart today. After dwelling at length upon the alleged jealousy of Capt. Taggart and the cruel treatment of his wife, Judge Smyzer took up the letters from Taggart to his wife which were read during the hearing.

"Although it might be to the interest of both sides to falsify themselves on the witness stand," he said, "it would be impossible for them to get around these letters which were written from the heart of Taggart to his wife and which substantiated that he was in the wrong."

CRAZY MAN WANTED

To See the President Would Have Him Interfere in Behalf of The People Against the Coal Barons.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 12.—Frank Schamaus, a Russian Jew, 20 years old, was arrested here late this afternoon, and after an examination by the justice of the peace, was sent to Mineola, L. I., to be examined as to his sanity. The arrest was made by a secret service officer, one of the personal guards of the president.

Schamaus, who resides in New York City, arrived here at 11:30 p. m. from New York, and soon afterward had an interview with Mr. Barnes, assistant secretary to the president. He desired to see the president and talk with him about the price of coal.

He said he was the general coal agent of the United States, and that he was in the coal business in the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania, and the strike will result in great hardship for the people of the country.

He wanted 10 minutes with the president to tell him to appoint a committee of three men who would regulate the output of coal supply so as to provide the poor with fuel at reasonable prices, even in the event of a strike.

Schamaus was escorted at once to the White House, where he was recently had written one letter and sent two telegrams to the president on the subject of the price of coal, and he informed him that it would be possible to arrange an interview for him at the moment.

Later in the afternoon the secret service agent found Schamaus in the room at a hotel and placed him under arrest.

He made no objection to accompanying the secret service man to the office of Justice Franklin. The justice questioned him at length in the presence of three of his personal guards who had assembled out of curiosity.

Schamaus answered all questions intelligently and rationally until coal was mentioned. He began to rave, and an address on the question of the alleged oppression of the people by the coal magnates. He reviewed his plan to have the president interfere in behalf of the people and declared that had not President Roosevelt settled the coal strike three years ago more blood would have been shed than the world ever saw.

In the course of his remarks he turned to a bystander who had asked him a question about anathema, and declared the time would come when the people would have liberty without the restraint of law, as laws would be unnecessary. He pointed out President Roosevelt as an example of what a man could do to accomplish and said every man could do as the president had done.

When Schamaus was escorted to the New York police force, and Commissioner of Police McAdams was on him. The permit was issued yesterday. No riot was discovered, however, and Schamaus said he had not carried one.

FREIGHT HANDLERS' DEMANDS ARE PEREMPTORILY REJECTED

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Demands of the members of the Freight Handlers' union of Chicago for an increase of 10 per cent in wages or an arbitration of their demands and the demand for a conference regarding the stopping of the railroad strike in Chicago notified President P. J. Flannery of the union that negotiations were closed.

The news of the refusal of the general managers to grant the increase in wages and the declaration to hold a conference, was received angrily by the men. They immediately arranged to call a series of mass meetings to consider the action of the roads.

At the meeting of the railway officials there was little discussion as to what the action of the roads should be. The meeting lasted only a few minutes, and before adjournment the officials of the railroads had pledged themselves not to deal individually with any committee of the freight handlers.

It developed after the meeting that the general freight agents had communicated with the freight handlers as individual employees and informed each of them that the railroads were paying the highest wages they could pay.

Notwithstanding a feeling of confidence, said to have resulted after individual interviews with employees, that there will be no strike, the railroad companies are going ahead with preparations for one. The preparations are precautionary. Cars are being hauled to the freight houses, and hundreds of men have been tentatively hired to take the places of the union men should they vote to strike.

Chief of Police Collins has been communicated with and he will furnish police protection to the freight houses.

The agreement which expired last June and which the union is seeking to re-establish with a 10 per cent increase in wages, is the basis of settlement of the big strike conducted by former President Curran of the Freight Handlers' union.
