IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVEL-

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is central ly located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East

Close connections are made a Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pitteburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route-

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and best Smoking and Second Class

They are at work now on a fine zine bracket cornice for the new Bank Building. It will probably be the handsomest thing in the line in the city. It will be five feet nine inches deep and of proportionate thickness. In this branch of industry this firm renders importation out of the question, being able to manufacture cornices of this description much cheaper than they can be laid down here from abroad.

Obsequies.-The funeral services of William Fewens, accidentally killed on Monday, were held at the 15th Ward School-house yesterday afternoon. Having been a member of Deseret Fire Company No. 4, which is composed of railroad hands, his fellow firemen turned out, in costume, to pay their last respects to their deceased comrade, every company in the Brigade being well represented.

Bishop Lorenzo D. Young and Elders G. G. Bywater and Feramorz Little were the speakers on the occasion, all of whom, having been personally acquainted with deceased, testified to his exemplary character. The cortege or procession that followed the remains to the grave was quite large.
