There are few men better pre-pared to meet their Maker and be judged for the deeds done in life than W. H. Lewis. Recently Mr. Lewis has been active in promoting the Lewiston Sugar fac-tory, and in organizing a bank for his home town. It is only a little over a month ago since he was called upon to part with the wife of his youth, and it is not unlikely that this had some bear-ing upon his early death, for since his and was shaken to obtain to be den for mencar attention at the heeplul. The acci-dent occurred by his being struck with some heavy material he was helping to unload. His arm was broken and he was badly bruised about the body. The divorce suit of Joseph H. Carney vs. Mary Carney was called for hearing before Judge Howell. The default of the defendant was entered. The couple were married at Butte, Montana, Jan. ing upon his early death, for since his sickness he has manifested considerable indifference a to whether he lived or died, and his attendants found it difficult to induce him to take proper nour-lehimet and medicines. New Schoolhouse Progressing - Grain Crop Above Average S. S. Convention, Special Correspondence.

Righy, Fremont County, Ida., Aug. 31. -Today a large number of citizens at-tended the funeral of little George Leonard, the son of Wm, and Eliza J. Sorenson.

On the 29th inst., the little fellow, who was one year and nearly eight months old, left the house for a few minutes and when his mother missed him, search was immediately comd resulting in the finding body about a block away in the canal which flows past their door.

His mother has been confined to the house for some time with poor health, and the father was away from home working with a binder. All the community sympathize with the parents in their sad bereavement. Consoling re-marks were delivered by Elders J. B.

Hansen, R. G. Dixon and Jas. J. Chandler, and a large cortege attend-ed the remains to the cemetery.
