GREAT CATHEDRAL FOR WASHINGTON

Corner-Stone of That of Sts. Peter and Paul Laid With Much Ceremony.

PRESIDENT MAKES ADDRESS.

If Office is Accepted by Any Man for The Honor, Takes it to Harm of Those He Should Serve.

Washington, Sept. 29.-Today witsessed two events here of general interest to the religious world at large and especially to the Epolscopul thereb. The first of these events was the laying of the foundation stone of the cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul, at M. St. Alban, Wisconsin avenue. The other was the great open air service of the international convention of the of the international convention of the frotherhood of St. Andrew, which brought to a close the convention which has been in session here for the past week. The corner-stone laying as under the guidance of the Episcepal church in America.

With befitting ceremony and solemuly, the foundation stone of what principles to equal in point of architecture and outlay the most magnificent cathedrals in the world was laid at noon.

A NOTABLE OCCASION.

A NOTABLE OCCASION.

It was a notable occasion, made ye so by the presence of the present of the United States, the bishop London. Rt. Rev. A. F. Winnington rum, who delivered the salutation; hop Satterles of the diocese of schington, who performed the cerency of laying the foundation stone, I many other bishops of the church. The ceremony began with the promotion of 20 choir boys, followed by hishops, the clergy, the cathedral pyter, the cathedral council and the rune band playing Mendelsohn's ymn of Praise," which was sung by choir as the procession marched inthe ampitheatre. The ceremony of ing the foundation stone completed, hop Satterlee introduced President onevelt, who said: velt, who said:

PRESIDENT SPEAKS.

"I have to say but one ward of greeting to you today and to wish you godspeed in the work begun this noon. The salutation is to be delivered by our guests, the bishop of London, who has a right to speake to us because he has shown in his life that be treate

state and above all, in a demoracy such as ours: timply as giving a chance to render service. If office is accepted by any man for its own sake and because of the honor it is felt to corfer, be accepts it to his own harm and to the infinite harm of those whom he ought to serve. Its sole value comes in the state, but above all its sale value comes in the church if it is seized by the man who holds it as atrend work for the people whom he serves."

"I greet you here, Bishop Ingram, because you have used your office in I have to say but one ward of greet-for year you here, Bishop Ingram, because you have used your office in the aid of manidud; that while you have arrived all, you have realized that the greatest need of service was for whom lear has been given in this world. I believe so implicitly in the good that will be done by and through the production of the service of the servic this cathedral, Bishop Sateeries, be-cause I know that you and those with you the people of your church, the people of your kindred churches, to one which I belong are growing more a more to realize that they must on by their lives how well they shall judged by their fruits. JAPANESE OFFICIALS CALL ON SECY. TAFT.

Tokio, Sept. 29 .- Preliminary to three Tokio, Sept. 22.—Preliminary to three days of social and diplomatic activities Secy, of War Taft and his party spent a quiet day resting in the palace of Siba, an ancient and picturesque residence belonging to the Imperial family. During the day numerous Japanese dignitaries and officials called upon the secretary. Among the more impertant of the callers was Lieut. Gen. Terauchi, the imperial minister of war, who had the imperial minister of war, who has a lengthy conference with Mr. Taf Some importance is being attached the fact that there have been two cor Some importance is being attached to the fact that there have been two conferences between the two war ministers, and it is believed in certain quarters that the groundework is beling laid for an entente concerning immigration. Another of Mr. Taft's callers today was Libbeus Wilfley, representing American commercial interests in Shanghal, who is anxious concerning the attitude of the United States in view of the talk of the dismemberment of China, and who came here to request that Mr. Taft make a positive statement concerning this on the occasion of the dinner to be given in his honor by the American association of Shanghal. It is understood that Mr. Wilfley was informed that Secy. Taft would make no statement on the question.

Secy. Taft and his family took a long drive in the imperial carriage this afternoon. The route which the carriage would take had not been announced, but the crowds in the streets recognized the American secretary and greeted him with cries of "banzai" and bows and smiles. FRIENDS OF THE FARMER.

A pamphlet issued by the department of agriculture, biological survey, pro-tests against the deep-rooted hatred displayed by farmers and sportsmer against hawks and owis. It is pointed displayed by farmers and sportsmen against hawks and owls. It is pointed out that only a few species of hawks and owls strack poultry, and that the vast majority of these birds are really friends of the farmer. In that they earch for voracious rodents which destroy alike grain, produce, young trees and eggs of birds. The birds of prey, the majority of which labor day and night to destroy the enemies of the husbandman, are persecuted unceasingly, while that most destructive mammal, the house cat, is petted and fed and securely sheltered to spread destruction among the feathered tribe. The difference between the two can be summed up in a few words—only three or four birds of prey hunt birds when they can procure rodents for food, while the cat seldom touches mice if she can procure birds or young poutry. A cat has been known to kill twenty young chickens in a day, which is more than most raptorial birds destroy in a lifetime.

The rapactous birds breed slowly.

most raptorial birds destroy in a lifetime.

The rapactous birds breed slowly, rearing only one brood a year, though if the first set of eggs is destroyed another will be laid. The young grow slowly and need a relatively large amount of food. To satisfy their hunger requires constant foraging on the part of the parents, and the strain of rearing the family is probably twice that of any of the other land birds. Even the adults are large exters, gorging to the utmost when the opportunity presents; and as digestion is very rapid and assimilation perfect, a great quantity of food in relation to the body weight is consumed every day.

Hawks and owls are complementary to each other. While hawks hunt by day and keep diurnal mammals in check, owls, whose eyesight is keenest during twilight and before dawn, capture pocturnal species. Again, owls are less migratory than hawks, and during the long winter remain in the land of les and snow to wage incessant warfare against the enemies of the orchard, garden and harvest field.
