

FRAGMENTS.

Last night of the Minstrels.

Regular session of the City Council to-night.

Lead quotations, New York, per 100 lbs., 71.

W. B. DODD, Esq., returned from Sanpete last evening.

JOHN COLLINS, for drunkenness, was fined $5 this morning.

DR. PIERCE, of Provo, came to this city on last evening's Utah Central train.

The Salisbury troupe will arrive from the east, via the D. & R. G., this evening.

The Troubadours open their engagement at the Salt Lake Theatre this evening.

There is a case of diphtheria in the family of Judge Hope, at 614 E. South Temple street.

The Herald was several hours late this morning, owing to a break in the printing machinery.

Silver quotations, corrected daily by Wells Fargo & Co., New York, $1.03; London, 47.61.

The city of Butte, Montana, has decided to levy a tax of one mill on the dollar for a firemen's fund.

PETER PETERS, of P. Peters & Son, of St. Louis, will leave for the east to-morrow, via the narrow gauge.

At Boise, Idaho, last Friday night, the barber shop of Andy Carter was burglarized, and $10 in silver taken.

McCONNICK & Co. to-day received one car of flour, value, $4,200; total, $7,000.

JOHN BAKER and son, of the Detroit mining district, Utah, will leave for New York on to-morrow's D. & R. G. train.

WELLS, FARGO & Co. to-day received two cars of silver, value, $3,000; total, $5,800.

MR. M. WORMSER, of New York, who has been visiting this city, will start for home to-morrow, going via the D. & R. G.

An avalanche of fun at the Theatre to-night, in the performance by Salisbury's Troubadours. Tickets were selling lively all day.

Brother H. G. PARK and wife have gone to Cache Valley to attend the funeral of the late Bishop Robert Leatham, he being their relative by marriage.

The case of U. J. WENNER vs. Elias Smith, was set for hearing in the Third District Court to-day. Wenner was the appointee of Governor Murray for Probate Judge of this county, when there was no vacancy.

"THREE OF A KIND" is the last of the American farces, 1-1/2 acts, written by Mr. E. F. KILMER, and was produced at the Third Avenue Theatre last evening. It is the sort of a jolly, rollicking thing which brings roars of laughter from an audience. "Three of a Kind" is, perhaps, as successfully fresh and funny as the "Brook" or "Green-room Fun," with which the Salisbury Troubadours have become identified. There are witticisms and some bright repartee here and there. "Three of a Kind" may be added to the success of this merry band. If laughter is the result of success, then it is one after it. - N. Y. Journal.

LOCAL NEWS.

Earthquake. We learn that at about a quarter past eleven o'clock last night before last an earthquake took place at Milford, Beaver County. The shock lasted about eight seconds, and thoroughly alarmed the residents of that town, shaking houses, rattling dishes, shifting furniture, etc. A second and lighter vibration occurred at 11:40 a. m. yesterday, continuing about three seconds.

Incorrect. - This morning's Herald says:

"A dispatch received in this city yesterday, announces the death of James Leatham, who died at the residence of his brother Robert Leatham, Bishop of Providence, Cache County. The gentleman was highly respected, and nearly sixty years of age."

If the Herald will again refer to the local in last evening's News, it will learn that Robert Leatham, the Bishop of Providence, is the one whose death his friends are called to mourn. James was taken ill yesterday evening.

Teachers' Institute. - The programme of the Teachers' Institute for November 7, 1886, is as follows:

1-Practical illustration of moulding and clay in the art of the potter.

2-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

3-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

4-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

5-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

6-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

7-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

8-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

9-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

10-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

11-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

12-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

13-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

14-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

15-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

16-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

17-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

18-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

19-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

20-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

21-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

22-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

23-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

24-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

25-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

26-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

27-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

28-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

29-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

30-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

31-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

32-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

33-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

34-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

35-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

36-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

37-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

38-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

39-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

40-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

41-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

42-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

43-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

44-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

45-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

46-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

47-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

48-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

49-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

50-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

51-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

52-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

53-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

54-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

55-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

56-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

57-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

58-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

59-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

60-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

61-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

62-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

63-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

64-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

65-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

66-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

67-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

68-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

69-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

70-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

71-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

72-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

73-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

74-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

75-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

76-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

77-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

78-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

79-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

80-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

81-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

82-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

83-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

84-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

85-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

86-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

87-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

88-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

89-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

90-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

91-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

92-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

93-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

94-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

95-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

96-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

97-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

98-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

99-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

100-Practical illustration of the art of the potter.

HENRY GROW ARRESTED.

THE CHARGE IS UNLAWFUL COHABITATION WITH HIS WIFE.

At a few minutes past 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Deputy Colla went to the Temple Block and served a warrant of arrest on Mr. Henry Grow, of the Nineteenth Ward. Shortly afterward he was around subpoenaing such witnesses as were supposed to know something of the case, and six of these were summoned to appear and testify last evening.

Mr. Grow was taken before Commissioner Gilchrist, who set the examination for 10 o'clock this morning, and fixed the bail of the accused at $1,500, T. V. Williams and George Bourne being sureties.

At the appointed hour to-day Mr. Grow appeared at Mr. Gilchrist's office, and asked that he be allowed to waive the preliminary examination. The request was granted, and the bond for Mr. Grow's appearance to await the grand jury's action was being made when Deputy Williams arrived with the intelligence that the witnesses had been subpoenaed to go before Commissioner McKay, that the assistant prosecuting attorney, E. B. Critchlow was there in waiting, and that the complaint had been made out before McKay, who was ready to proceed with the examination.

Judge Gilchrist explained that the warrant of arrest had been returned to him by the officer, and he had taken steps in consequence thereof. A consultation with Judge Harkness then took place, and finally Mr. Critchlow was sent for, who insisted that McKay should hear the case.

The misunderstanding having been bridged over, the parties repaired to McKay's office, with the exception of Mr. Critchlow, who had some other business to attend to. Commissioner McKay (who, by the way, is an assistant to the District Attorney, and unites with the office of committing magistrate that of a prosecutor of prosecuting privileges, in laboring with the grand jury), was himself prepared to listen to the testimony, but as all the parties were not ready, the case was set for tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

The complaint charges the accused with unlawful cohabitation with Mrs. Henry Grow and Sarah Jennings, as his wives, from Sept. 1, 1882, to Aug. 25th, 1885, in the County of Salt Lake, contrary to the provisions of the Utah State Statutes.

After Mr. Grow had left the room, it was discovered that the witnesses were not present. They had been subpoenaed to appear last evening before the Commissioner, and on New South Temple street, they came yesterday, and as nothing was done, went away. This morning some of them, having understood that the preliminary examination was waived, departed to attend to other matters. Deputy Colla chased up the stairs to Mr. Grow's room, and overtook and requested to instruct the witnesses subpoenaed to be present for examination to-morrow morning, when further developments may be expected.

A Pleasant Affair.

Bishop Wm. Thorne, of the Seventh Ward, yesterday reached the allotted age of man, but apparently attached not little importance to the fact, for in his usual busy way he was disposed to allow the day to pass by without notice, the saints of the Ward were not, however, to him they assembled at the meeting house in such numbers as to almost fill the lower story of the building, the upper story being used for an it is undergoing repairs. Their purpose was to surprise him by a demonstration in his honor, and they succeeded. When all were assembled, brother Thomas H. Woodbury, the Bishop's Counselor, was deputed to call upon him to attend a meeting of the Relief Society in the meeting house, and when he did so the Bishop begged of his company to excuse him for a short time, and accompanied him. On reaching the meeting house they found the main hall in darkness, the lights having been turned low, and after the Bishop was fairly in the room, without knowing that any one was present, he was "flooded" at the sudden glare of light, the vast jets around the room were simultaneously turned up, and at such a host of friends assembled. Greetings and congratulations followed, and the Bishop's visitors whom he had left at home having arrived, the whole company were seated at a series of long tables spread with the luxuries of the season. While the vials were being disposed of, the Salt Lake brass band, many of the members of which are residents of the 7th Ward, appeared outside and discoursed sweet music. Supper over, the tables were soon cleared from the room and the assembly seated in order to listen to the programme arranged to follow.

Mrs. Charles Lambert, president of the Relief Society of the Ward, then delivered a brief address and presented the Bishop with a handsome photographic album subscribed by the sisters, which contained a number of the portraits of themselves and others.

Music by the band, a solo on the organ by Miss Millie Foster and a song of welcome by the choir followed, and then Brother David McKenzie, in behalf of the members of the Ward, made a speech which was full of feeling and expressive of the love and confidence in which the Bishop is held by the members of the Ward, and presented a beautiful walking stick, with an appropriate inscription engraved upon it.

Miss Sarah Edgington, representing the young ladies of the Ward, followed with another address, and presented a pair of elegant gold-rimmed spectacles.

The presents were also made in the shape of a large easy chair, hat, gloves, etc., a speech delivered by Brother Henry Wallace, a duet by Misses Carrie Thorn and Millie Foster, remarks by the Bishop himself, in which he found difficulty in expressing himself his joy and gratitude at the honor shown him was so great, and the proceedings closed with a few words by Counselor Thomas H. Woodbury and benediction by Brother Henry Dinwoodey.

The affair was one of the most pleasant of the kind we ever attended, and will be long remembered by the people of the Ward, especially by the worthy Bishop.

Court Proceedings.

In the case of Louis Olcott vs. Christopher F. Dixon and Ruth E. Kinsey, the court found $100 for plaintiff, and held that Ruth E. Kinsey was not liable nor a proper party to the action.

E. A. Ireland, receiver, vs. Wm. H. H. Bowers, et al.; judgment for plaintiffs against all the defendants, as prayed.

Thomas McBride vs. Joseph Baker, et al.; jury waived, and trial before the court in progress.

Appointed. - Elder John W. Saunders, of this city, who left on a mission to the Southern States recently, has been appointed to labor in the Tennessee Conference.

VISITORS.

There came to the city with the large company of excursionists on Sunday, Mr. John Deere, of Moline, Illinois, and a small party of personal friends consisting of Mr. and Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Chapman and daughter.

Mr. Deere is the founder and principal proprietor of the celebrated steel plow works bearing his name. They are the most extensive in the world, employing over fifteen hundred men constantly and turning out more steel plows than any other factory in America.

Mr. Deere, who is over 60 years of age, though retaining the vigor of youth, has retired from the active management of his immense works, his son Charles having succeeded him.

The party were kept busy seeing the sights of the city on Monday, being chartered by their enterprising representatives here, Grant, Odell & Co. They left for the west yesterday afternoon.

RETURNED.

Missionaries. - Elder Francis G. Palmer, of Ferrisburg, who returned from a mission to the Southern States on Thursday evening, called upon us on Friday and reported his labors during his absence. He left here a Utah-raised boy, with but little experience in worldly matters and some at all in the line of teaching, on the 15th of May, 1885, and on reaching the South was assigned to the North Carolina Conference, where he labored during the whole of his absence, principally in the western part of the State, with varying success. He had five different Elders for companions during his two-and-a-half years' stay in that land and greatly enjoyed their society and his labors in general, and highly prizes the experience which he gained while absent. He met with kind treatment generally and made many friends, to whom he feels deeply grateful for kindness received; but he also found not a few in his travels whose feelings toward him and the cause he represented were the reverse of friendly. Most assiduously and his companions with stories for months on two different occasions, and in one instance were armed with clubs, and many times he was threatened with violence, all because he was a "Mormon" Elder, laboring in his humble way to make known the principles of the Gospel and invite men to search the Scriptures and prove for themselves the truth of the doctrines he was sent forth to teach. Fortunately, he was not injured by any of the violent onslaughts of the rabble, nor did he allow them to prevent him from doing his duty.

He expresses regret that the Elders who have labored in the Southern Mission in the past have so generally neglected to write to their friends in that region after their return home, and feels sure that a little more attention to this common courtesy, would not only make those neglected friends feel better, but render their mission more pleasant for the Elders who are now in the mission.

On Saturday we had a call from Elder Oscar Rose, of Laverne, Sevier County, who returned last evening's U. C. train from a mission to the State of Illinois, upon which he has been absent since the 7th of April, 1884. His labors were confined to the central and southern part of the State, much of the time he preached in the State of Illinois, but he had not been in the State of Illinois a body were expelled from the Gospel. He found in his travels quite a number of persons who were connected with the Church in an early day, but they were as "Joseph Smith" and were questioned in regard to their present belief would paradoxically claim that the martyred Joseph Smith was originally a true Prophet, but that the Almighty cast him off for transgression, and yet that his son Joseph is now his successor.

He held 135 meetings during his absence, and labored assiduously in spreading a knowledge of the Gospel privately, with what success time only will determine, as the result of his labors in this cause are not always to be had at once, and he is not always to be had at once.

"Paul plants and Apollos waters, but God giveth the increase." Whether his labors prove fruitful of good to others or not, Brother Rose feels that they have been of benefit to him. He gained a good experience and found much joy in his labors, although he met with much opposition. On one occasion he and his companion were taken from their journey by a mob, by an armed and drunken mob, and marched off a distance of a mile and a half with the apparent intention of taking their lives, but they were finally let go with a warning to leave the State immediately, which, by the way, they failed to obey. It is a significant fact that the leader of that gang of ruffians was killed during last winter in a drunken row.

On another occasion, while holding a meeting in a school house in Logan Co., by permission of the school directors of the district, those functionaries, who had evidently read their action in granting them the use of the building, or done so to entrap them, marched into their meeting followed by a noisy rabble carrying drums and supplied with eggs with which to pelt the Elders, and demanded that the meeting be immediately dismissed. The Elders were not disposed to resist orders coming from such a source, and discreetly acquiesced and escaped the evening, to the evident disappointment of the rabble.

The rehearsal of "The Mikado" last evening was the smoothest yet. Everything will be ready for the public presentation on Monday next.

Culbert King, of Kingston, Beaver County, has been arrested by U. C. Commissioner at Marysville on a charge of unlawful cohabitation with his wife. He was taken to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. Each of the witnesses was also held under bonds to appear before the court for the sum of 75 cents per cent. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

STOP THAT COUGH.

By using Dr. Frazier's Throat and Lung Balm - the only cure for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness and Sore Throat, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Do not fail to use it. It may prove fatal. Scores and hundreds of grateful people owe their lives to Dr. Frazier's Throat and Lung Balm, and no family will ever be without it after once using it, and discovering its marvelous power. It is put up in large family bottles and sold for the sum of 75 cents per bottle. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

An Entertaining, Reliable House. Z. C. M. I. can always be relied upon not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the Agency for such articles as have well-deserved merit, and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always reliable. Having secured the Agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and a positive guarantee. It will surely cure any and every affection of Throat, Lungs, Chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

POPULAR HOME MADE STORE.

We are receiving new Goods Daily from the Provo Woolen Mills in Flannels, Linseys, Waterproofs, Jeans, Tweeds, Cassimeres, Blankets, Yarns, etc. We have also a large stock of Home Made Children's, Youths and Men's Suits, Underwear, Overalls, Socks, Stockings, Goddard's Hats, etc. Wholesale and Retail at

JOHN C. CROFT, Proprietor, No. 55, HOOPER & ELDREDGE BUILDING. Agents Provo Woolen Mills.

A consignment of Ladies' Paris Bows in embroidered