Bussian Revolution-Prof. William G. Roylance will lecture this after-noon, at the State University on the "Russian Revolution."

Special Recital-A tourist party, east bound to Boston from the coast, was given a special organ recital in the Tabernacle at 5:20 p. m. yesterday.

Has Relative Here-Senator James B. Frazier of Tennessee, who recently became a member of the committee on privileges and elections before which the Smoot investigation has en conducted, is a cousin of C. K. cowland of this city.

Restaurant at Lagoon—John J. Gal-lacher was awarded, last evening, the restaurant concession for the coming summer season at Lagoon. The new restaurast building is well under way, and will be a great addition to the resort.

Five New Recruits-The Signal corps has enlisted five new recruits, and more are coming. The boys decorps has enhanced here here feed as, cide to hold social events every week or two, and fates will be decided at Thursday night's meeting. They are proposing to give a unique ball at no distant date.

Elks Election-The Elks will hold their annual election this even-ing, in their lodge rooms. Tom Ho mer and Dick Barthell are neck and neck in the contest for exalted ruler, with Tom slightly in the lead; and Frank L. Gardiner is considered as good as elected trustee.

"Witch of the Woods"--The highly "Witch of the Woods"--The highly spectacular and successfully presented operatic extravaganza given in the Salt Lake Theater recently by Mrs. Harriet Purdy Smith under the aus-pices of the Liberty Stake amusement committe is to be repeated on the night of April 9 at the Theater.

Oratorical Contest-The annual oratorical contest given under the aus-pices of the W. C. T. U. of this city, will come off in the First Presbyterian church on the evening of April 3. The contestants will be Florence Havenor, Elsie Addoms, Adelaide Smithen, Sa-die Jorgensen, Teckla Nelson and Maggie McNichols.

Maori Reunion-The semi-annual reunion of Zion's Maori association, will be held on Friday evening, April 5 at the Tweifth ward meetinghouse An interesting program consisting of instrumental and vocal music and humorous selections, has been arrang-The program will begin o'clock sharp.

Death of Infant-The friends of Mr. and Mrs. William P. O'Meara will sympathize with them in the death of their first born, a daughter, who made her advent into mortality at 3 o'clock this morning and who died at 7:39, after a heroic but futile effort to keep the spark of life aflame. Mrs. O'Meara's condition is as good as can be expected under the circumstances.

Car Load of Sheep-The Salt Lake stock yards have a car load of sheep to-day, from Moroni for local consumption, also, a load of horses for Los Angeles from northern Utah, and 125 beef cattle and feeders from Potter of Bear river for the Western Commis-sion company. There are 28 loads of sheep and lambs in Ogden today, from Gentile valley and Montpelier for San Francisco consignees.

28, in Barratt hall between the Thessalonian society of the L. D. S. University and the county school teachers. The question to be debated is: "Resolved, That the present pol-icy excluding Chinese from the United States should be maintained and rigor-ously enforced." The affirmative will be upheld by D. W. Cummings, R. S. Olsen and Richard W. Young, Jr. of the Thessalonian stoclety, and the neg-ative by Oscar Carlson and Nephi Jen-sen of the county school teachers. There will also be music. Admission will be free, and the public is invited.

Men Fined $100-T. M. Herbert and H. A. Barton, the two men found guilty in the criminal division of the city court, of having be-fouled the waterway to certain springs with the carcasses of diseased hogs, were fined $100 each by Judge C. B. Diehl, which sum, with the costs would amount to about $150 in each instance. The case will be appealed to the district court.

About Solomon Chamberlain-L. A Traner of Pocatello is in Salt Lake looking for information concerning the life and death of his great-grandfather, Solomon Chamberlain who was one of Will Remain Here—Col. C. O. Har-ris, who recently resigned as operat-ing manager of the Independent Tele-phone company, will remain in this city, and has east his lot with the DeForest Wireless Telegraph company, and notice has been given that the wireless stations will arrive in this the original Utah pioneers and whose name is found on the monument crected to their memory. Any one possess-ing the desired information will con-fer a great favor upon Mr. Traner by writing him at his home, 910 south, Cleveland avenue, Pocatello.

Sunday School Dances-Tomorrow afternoon and evening there will be dances in the Twentieth ward amusement hall, given by the officers and teachers of the ward Sabbath school. In the afternoon the little folks will enjoy themselves without money and without price and be treated in ad-dition thereto, with cake and lemonade. In the evening the adult teachers and their friends will hold forth.

Wife Beater Jailed-Leslie Bates was locked up in the city jail yesterday afternoon, charged with assault and battery, the victim of his alleged of-fense being his wife. The family lives at 440 south First West, and the cries of the woman brought neighbors to the scene of the trouble. The police were notified and placed Bates under arrest, but whether the wife will ap-pear as a witness against him remains to be seen

Gamblers Arrested — Detectives Shannon and Wilson yesterday made a raid upon a room in the D. F. Walk-er building, in which poker was being freely played. The players and onlookers succeeded in getting away, but the proprietors, E. Roy and George Hannah, were taken into custody. Af-ter depositing bail in the sum of $300 each they were released. The men will have a hearing before Judge C. B. Diehl in the criminal division of the elty court.

Japs Have Hearing—T. Nakamura, Henry Asanuma and T. Gonta, Japan-ese, are having a hearing in the crim-inal division of the clty court on a charge of having made an assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to kill, upon the person of M. Matsuna-ma, a fellow Jap, on the afternoon of March 20. An interpreter being necessary, it took the entire forenoon to introduce the testimony of two wit-nesses. The case is still on this after-noon. The man who was carved ap-To Measure Streams-Engineer H. 7. Sheley of the reclamation service will shortly leave for the Strawberry valley to resume measuring the streams tributary to the new reservoir. Mr. Sheley will make the trip from Heber on herseback 30 miles. The low status of the thermometer in that section of the state at this time of year is not such as to fill Mr. Sheley's mind with hopes of enjoying an early and balmy spring.

Artificer Miller Dead-Artificer Chas. Y. Miller of the Twelfth light battery, stationed at Fort Douglas, died yes-terday, in the Post hospital of pneu-monia. The deceased is a citizen of Monia. The deceased is a citizen of Yankton, S. D., and his family there have been notified. Unless they pro-vide for the shipment of his remains to South Dakota, the interment will take place in the Fort Douglas cemetery. Miller was a native of Austria, and served 16 years in the United tery. States army.
