

E. F. Sheets, where his clerk, Elder Isaac Brockbank, and several assistants are to be found, and further on to the receiving and crediting office, where Brother John Kirkman sits smiling at his daily task. Our old-time friend, Brother Joseph C. Kingsbury, who has general supervision over all the above-named departments, under the direction of the Presiding Bishopric, may also be seen within, when his manifold duties have not called him elsewhere.

The office of the Presiding Bishopric, where Bishops Preston, Hardy and Burton, or their efficient clerk, Brother W. E. Bassett, are to be consulted, is still in the south end of the building, through the first door on the right after going up the steps from the south gate. And now, we believe, we have taken the reader right through the establishment, just as our reporter was chaperoned through this morning by Brother Kingsbury, when the only thing omitted was the ascent into the rooms of the upper story, which our representative was told are yet used for the old-time purposes of miscellaneous storage.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, JULY 21.

Returned From Ogden.—Presidents John Taylor, George Q. Cannon, and Joseph F. Smith and the brethren who accompanied them to Ogden, last week, to attend the Weber Stake Conference on Saturday and Sunday, returned to this city last evening.

Woman's Work.—Sisters E. R. Snow Smith, E. C. Clawson and Louie Felt visited Sugar House Ward on Tuesday, and met with the Primary Association of that place in its annual meeting. The day following Sisters Clawson and Lydia Ann Wells were at West Jordan for a similar purpose, and yesterday attended a quarterly meeting of the Primary in the Fourth Ward.

Brought to the Pen.—Captain Hawley, detective, Saturday evening, brought to this city from Provo, Edward Watterson, charged with stealing cigars and shoes, on the D. and R. G. Western Railway. Watterson had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner A. O. Smoot, Jr., at Provo, and pleading guilty was held in $1,000 to answer at the next session of the First District Court. Being unable to procure bail, he was brought to the Penitentiary for safe keeping.

Fatal Fire.—A fire caused by the attempt of a little girl named Knoth to light a fire with coal oil, broke out in Ogden Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. A loud explosion was the first indication of the trouble, and a moment later the girl, aged about eight years rushed into the street, her clothes all ablaze. A gentleman who beheld the shocking sight, threw a blanket over her and thought he had extinguished the flames. It transpired however that this was not the case. She was frightfully burned and died yesterday from her injuries. The damage to the house and furniture was slight, owing to the prompt response of the firemen.

The Cracksmen's Latest.—The burglar is not content any more with going into and through private dwelling houses and clearing the pockets of the inmates of any loose cash that may have been left there, nor does he seem to find room for the development of his genius in the simple prying up of a window and the stealing of a few watches, shoes, or brown vests. He has sought a nobler employment for his ambitious talents, and last night inaugurated the thing by an assault on a fire and burglar proof safe in the meat market of Jennings Brothers on First South Street. This he managed to investigate in a thoroughly businesslike way, probably to his own complete satisfaction, and again left without exciting the attention of anybody or leaving any clue for the police to work on. The definite amount of the loss has not yet been ascertained.

The Twelfth.—The twelfth book of the "faith promoting series" has been issued by the Juvenile Instructor office. It is a work of nearly 100 pages and entitled "Labors in the Vineyard." Its contents comprise experiences of a number of prominent brethren while engaged in preaching the Gospel in various lands, forming a series of exceedingly interesting narratives, some of which include relations of adventures more or less thrilling, signal manifestations of divine interposition, and exhibitions of the power of God. The little work is a gem in its line, and we commend it to the special perusal of the young, while people of mature years can also read it with profit. It is sold at the moderate price of 25 cents.

A Fine Anthem.—One of the finest musical compositions, by a home author, ever rendered in public, was sung by the Tabernacle Choir yesterday afternoon at the close of the services. It was the new anthem by Joseph J. Daynes, to words by John Nicholson, entitled: "The Nations bow to Satan's Thrall;" first rendered at Miss Olsen's benefit in the Theatre, a short time since, and for the second time yesterday. It undoubtedly ranks among the best pieces ever attempted by the choir, and possesses merit, unequalled in its line for many years by a home composer. The grand organ enhanced the effect wonderfully, making it seem almost another thing entirely, though it created a marked favorable impression before. Miss Agnes Olsen sang the soprano solo, and Mr. T. C. Crawford the male solo. Both did splendidly, as did the chorus, organist and other instrumentalists, all led by Brother E. Beezley.

Democratic Ratification.—The meeting of Democrats in the Federal Court Room, Saturday evening, for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of Cleveland and Hendricks, was not remarkable for its numbers or enthusiasm. W. C. Hall presided and S. W. Darke acted as Secretary.

Ben Sheeks presented a resolution to the effect that "we endorse the nominations made at Chicago," and afterwards being called on, addressed the assembly. He proclaimed himself a Democrat, eulogized Governor Cleveland and spoke against the policy of the Republican party.

J. L. Rawlins followed much in the same strain, and referred to the first act of Congress for the benefit of actual settlers on the public lands, as being the work of a Democratic administration. At this point George R. Maxwell, a Republican, arose and interrupted the speaker, but was promptly "sat down on" and Mr. Rawlins proceeded. He advocated the "separation of Church and State" in Utah, the "relegation of religion to its proper sphere," etc., and arraigned the Republicans for "promising to settle" a certain local issue and not doing it, and having thus shown where he stood on the "Mormon" question, went on with political matters till he closed.

Robert A. Waddill was the next speaker, and he was followed by S. A. Kenner in a pithy speech, and he by H. D. Johnson (who was also interrupted by Maxwell) and Mr. Bamberger; after which three cheers for Cleveland and Hendricks were given and the meeting came to a close.

Satisfactory Evidence.

J. W. Graham, Wholesale Druggist, of Austin, Tex., writes: "I have been handling Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam For The Lungs for the past year, and have found it one of the most saleable medicines I have ever had in my house for Coughs, Colds, and even Consumption, always giving entire satisfaction. Please send me another gross."

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE. Advantageous in Dyspepsia.

Dr. G. V. Dorsey, Piqua, Ohio, says: "I have used it in dyspepsia with very marked benefit. If there is deficiency of acid in the stomach, nothing affords more relief, while the action on the nervous system is decidedly beneficial."

It is fast becoming the family medicine of this section. I have warranted dozens of bottles and never had one returned."

DANGEROUS SUBSTITUTES

FOR HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE

Several inferior and dangerous "substitutes" for the genuine "Horsford's Acid Phosphate" are being offered for sale; and we hereby caution the dealers and public against buying or using them, as they will not produce the same effect upon the system as the genuine "Horsford's," and the ingredients in some of them are dangerous to health.

Some of these "substitutes" or imitations are simply Dilute Phosphoric Acid, which interferes with the digestion; while the genuine "Horsford's" not only causes no trouble with the digestive organs, but materially assists in their action.

One preparation that is being offered for sale, by the gallon, contains Meta- or Pyro-Phosphoric Acid, which are declared by the highest authority to be poisonous. The same preparation also contains Chloric Acid, which is a compound of Chlorine. "Horsford's" contains neither of these ingredients.

These "substitutes" are liable to be found at soda fountains, because of their cheapness.

COME, GENTLEMEN!

You have for years BLACKLINED and UNDERVALUED PURE, WHOLESOME and BETTER BAKING POWDERS than your own—the "Royal." By blacklines, alleged "Government Chemists" who do not exist, and under the garb of "absolutely pure" you have forced into unsuspecting families a powder which contains the active drug AMMONIA. Eminent physicians and chemists condemn its use in articles of daily food. You cannot longer evade the issue, AMMONIA. The public will compel you to defend its use.

DO NOT TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT.

Every housekeeper can prove the truth of our statements by placing a can of the "Royal," top down, on a hot stove until heated, then remove the cover and smell "AMMONIA." This test will show that the "Royal" contains AMMONIA; that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia. The strength of our powder can be proven by the consumer's reliable test,

THE TEST OF THE OVEN.

In my opinion "DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER" IS SUPERIOR to the "Royal Baking Powder" IN EVERY RESPECT.
