NOTICE.

GEO. Y. WALLACE,

Don't ever go hunting for pleasures; They cannot be found thus, I know; Nor yet fall a-digging for treasures, Unless with the spade and the hoc. he bee has to work for the honey:

The drone has no right to the food ; And he who has not earned his meney The ant builds her house by her labor The squirrel looks out for his mast; And he who depends on his neighbor Will never have friends, first or last

In short, 'tis no better than thieving. IThough thief is a hard name to call, And never to give back at all. -Youth's Companion.

Fire Still Raging—400 Families With

TYRONE, Pa., 21 .- The fire is still raging furiously throughout the woods. About 250 houses were consumed in Osceola, and four hundred families rendered homeless. Great praise is due to D. D. Wood, train master of Tyrone, who loaded a lot of box cars with men, women and children, and sent them through the burning forest at fest anged to Phillipsburg. Four fast speed to Phillipsburg. Four trips were made, and about a thousand people taken to a place of safety. Hontzulale, six miles from Osceola, is reported entirely destroyed. The fire is spreading rapidly beyond Houtzdale, and at the latest accounts it had reached Parsonville, six miles from there. The fire has damaged the P. R. R's track, from Osceola to Hontzdale, so that no coal can be shipped for some time. A meeting will be held to raise, funds for the sufferers.

The heaviest losers by the Osceola fire are as follows: the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., $65,000; Liveright, Linde & Co., $30,000; Herius & Co., $30,000; John K. White, $25,000; Isaac Taylor, $20,000; Walker Bros., $15,000; Dr. D. R. Good, $16,000; Gille Brisbin, $14,000; L. Y. C. Single, $10,000; James H. Lipton, $11,000; L. A. Crist, $6,000; John Elliott & Co., $12,000; J. C. Henderson, $16,000; Emmet Sayers, $3,000; the Presbyterian church, $8,000, and a host of smaller $8,000, and a host of smaller amounts. The insurance on the mills will reach, probably, a quar-ter of a million outside of the Mo-shanon land and lumber mills; the Moshanon mill is placed in Philadelphia, and the insurance will reach about $300,000. Later reports say that a woman named Stoneber
